The author of "In His Steps," the famous religious book, of which over three million copies have now been sold, has been induced to answer, in an article which he has sent to The Ladies, Home Journal, the question which unconsciously comes to the mind after reading his book: "Is this plan practicable in our present daily life?" Mr. Sheldon does not evade the question, but answers it in a direct and vigorous manner, and tells exactly what he believes would be the effect of his plan upon modern business methods and present-day social life.

James Reed Injured.

Mr. James Reed, struck his leg against a cake of ice in such a manner as to bruise it severely. It became very much swollen and pained him so badly that he could not walk without the aid of crutches. He was treated by physicians, also used several kinds of liniment and two and a half gallons of whiskey in bathing it, but nothing gave any relief until he began using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. This brought almost a complete cure in a week's time and he believes that had he not used this remedy his leg would have had to be amputated. Mr. Reed is one of the leading merchants of Clay Court House, W. Va. Pain Balm is unequalled for sprains, bruises and rheumatism. For sale by O. O. Krogstad, druggist.

Another car load of the famous Stayton Flour, Feed and Chop received this week by the Y. B. M. Co.

The great trouble with some people in most towns, is that they cannot cast their bread upon the water unless they are assured in advance that in a few days it will come back to them a full grown sandwich, all trimmed with ham, butter and mustard and rolled in a warranty deed for one-half of the earth and a mortgage upon the other half.—Ex.

There is a time in almost every young man's life, says a wise observer, when he imagines that he is really a warm number. When he grows older and, by experience, accumulates a small store of good common horse sense, he views the same class of boys with disgust. He meditates on his past and wonders if he ever was such a confounded fool. A smart alec is about the most despicable mortal that ever drew breath, but the law forbids killing them, and people are compelled to just grin and bear their presence in the community.

One hundred mackintoshes for men, ladies, girls and boys, just received at Henry Lewis'. All styles, shapes and colors, with or without capes, and prices from $2.50 up. Call and examine. A fit guaranteed.

There is a new swindle being sprung in the country. It takes three persons to make it work, not counting the sucker. A man dresses to represent a clergyman, drives up to a farm house and requests the privilege of remaining over night. Before the hour of retiring comes, a man and woman drive up and request to be directed to the nearest minister as they desire to be married. The pretended clergyman volunteers his services joins the couple in the bonds of wedlock and the farmer is asked to sign his name as a witness. Shortly after the signature of Mr. Farmer turns up on the heavy end of a promissory note—Beaver City (Neb.) Tribune.
