There is no politics in the Philippine islands question. A few weak-minded men of every political faith are shooting off their mouths and brandishing their deadly pens in support of Aguinaldo, but they constitute an insignificant part of our population. The popular pose of Americans today, regardless of politics, is standing up for America and lending their moral support at least to the American flag wherever it floats and regardless of how it got there. The man who isn't able to do this is apt to find himself the sole representative in his community of a despised but pitied minority. They're scarce—very scarce—thank the Lord!

The Boers and the Bulls are at it on the Transvaal border, and, if the meager reports are true, the latter seem to have the better of the initial fighting, which is contrary to the unanimous prediction of war experts. It must be remembered, however, that Johnny Bull's press censors far outclass our own Otis over in Manila. The world will be surprised if England doesn't pay dearly for her certain victory over the sturdy Boers.

A few smallpox cases are being reported from two or three points in the state. Oregon is the real all-around thing and offers inducements to representatives of every profession and trade. A smallpox specialist would probably find Salem, for instance, a city where he would be appreciated. Our state capital, by the way, is one of the prettiest little cities on the map, with climate and all other features strictly desirable.

Brother Nutting of the Albany Democrat is a credit to his profession and a shining example for his democratic brethren. Hear him: "October has come, the month when the Philippine war is to be pushed. The sooner Aguinaldo is captured the better for the whole business. Give him fits and end the war." More power to your good American Faber, Nutting!

General Pio del Pilar of the Filipino army has sent General Otis an offer to end the insurrection and capture Aguinaldo for the modest sum of $500,000. He evidently received his inspiration from Aguinaldo's similar deal with the Spanish government, when he sold out and hiked over to Hong Kong. That seems to be the depth of Filipino patriotism.

The Salem Statesman, the second best daily in Oregon, is preparing to put on additional metropolitan touches. With a continuation of the patronage which it merits the Statesman will soon be making a bid for first place. It is a pleasure to note its success.

After six failures on account of a shortage of wind the first of the series of the great international yacht race was sailed and our Columbia beat the Shamrock too easy. The second race also went to the Columbia, the Shamrock being compelled to quit on account of a broken mast. At the time of the accident the American boat was away ahead and gaining rapidly. Only a permanent injury to the Columbia can lose us that cup, and only the very faint-hearted are looking for an accident. Regardless of how the race may terminate the Columbia has proven that she is entirely too swift for the Shamrock, and English builders will either have to do better or quit the business.

Testifies to the Good Qualities of of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

On the 10th of December, 1897, Rev. S. A. Donahoe, pastor M. E. Church, South, Pt. Pleasant, W. Va., contracted a severe cold which was attended from the beginning by violent coughing. He says: "After resorting to a number of so-called 'specifics,' usually kept in the house, to no purpose, I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which acted like a charm. I most cheerfully recommend it to the public." For sale by Otto O. Krogstad, druggist.

James Reed Injured.

Mr. James Reed, struck his leg against a cake of ice in such a manner as to bruise it severely. It became very much swollen and pained him so badly that he could not walk without the aid of crutches. He was treated by physicians, also used several kinds of liniment and two and a half gallons of whiskey in bathing it, but nothing gave any relief until he began using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. This brought almost a complete cure in a week's time and he believes that had he not used this remedy his leg would have had to be amputated. Mr. Reed is one of the leading merchants of Clay Court House, W. Va. Pain Balm is unequalled for sprains, bruises and rheumatism. For sale by O. O. Krogstad, druggist.
