The Northwest Herald shocks the world by declaring that Editor Scott of the Oregonian is inconsistent.

Late advices indicate that the British forces are not having a picnic with the Boers, their killed, wounded and missing since trouble began aggregating 600. It will be a costly war to both sides.

The American Agriculturalist estimates the total wheat crop harvested in the United States this year will amount to 565,350,000 bushels, a shortage of 149,652,000 bushels as compared with last year's crop, and the quality, the country over, is somewhat below the standard of the crop of 1898. The crop throughout the world is somewhat better than for the past two years, but there will still be a shortage of several hundred million bushels.

The expected happened when our own Columbia sailed away from the Shamrock and won the third and final race without a bit of trouble. The last race was sailed in a stiff breeze—almost a gale—just such weather as the owner of the Shamrock, Sir Thomas Lipton, had been publicly wishing for. When it was all over he manfully acknowledged that he was fairly beaten by the best boat. Then the band played "America" and the eagle and the lion hugged each other. Next!

An exchange says the best cure for gossip is culture. When you find a book-reading family you will find parents and children who have other things to talk about than their neighbors. Reading is a safeguard against gossip. People who can talk of books do not have to talk of persons.

See the latest styles and cuts in clothing, fresh from the loom, at Miller & Pruett's—a large and varied assortment.

A Willamette valley editor tells the story of a young bachelor sheriff who was called upon to serve an attachment on a handsome young widow. He called and said, "Madam, I have an attachment for you." She blushed and said the attachment was reciprocated. "You misunderstand," he said, "you must proceed to court." She told him she knew it was leap year, but she had rather he would do the courting. "Madam," he continued, "this is no time for trifling. The justice is waiting." "Oh, I prefer a minister," she said. "A squire married me the first time and I had bad luck."

Closing out is not our motto, but our low prices still prevail. Miller & Pruett.

REV. S. A. DONAHOE

Testifies to the Good Qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

On the 10th of December, 1897, Rev. S. A. Donahoe, pastor M. E. Church, South, Pt. Pleasant, W. Ta., contracted a severe cold which was attended from the beginning by violent coughing. He says: "After resorting to a number of so-called 'specifics,' usually kept in the house, to no purpose, I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which acted like a charm. I most cheerfully recommend it to the public." For sale by Otto O. Krogstad, druggist.

James Reed Injured.

Mr. James Reed, struck his leg against a cake of ice in such a manner as to bruise it severely. It became very much swollen and pained him so badly that he could not walk without the aid of crutches. He was treated by physicians, also used several kinds of liniment and two and a half gallons of whiskey in bathing it, but nothing gave any relief until he began using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. This brought almost a complete cure in a week's time and he believes that had he not used this remedy his leg would have had to be amputated. Mr. Reed is one of the leading merchants of Clay Court House, W. Va. Pain Balm is unequalled for sprains, bruises and rheumatism. For sale by O. O. Krogstad, druggist.
