The Boers and the English are still at it, and if reports are to be credited the latter are again getting a shade the best of it. Reports from the seat of trouble are slow and unsatisfactory, clearly showing the hand of the British censor.

The Northwest Herald, being an offensive partisan, insists upon dragging the Philippines question into politics. As THE LEADER has before remarked, there are a few isolated cases like this, but they don't count.

Like the sensible, level-headed man that he is, Admiral Dewey will add to his collection of jewels and things a wife—Mrs. Mildred Hazen, widow of the late General Hazen. Of course, if the man in the case were some other man it would be perfectly proper to remark that he is old enough to know better.

Vice President Hobart is a very sick man and the attending physician is reported as having no hope of his recovery. The position of vice president of the United States is a peculiar one. After a man is elected to it he is never heard of outside his own home or the nation's capital unless he gets sick or injured.

The Oregon hopgrowers should not hesitate to call their organization a trust. Trusts are terrible things—when pictured by demagogues during a political campaign, but just now is a good time to pause and ask, Who's hurt? This is supposed to be an age of trusts, but who wants to exchange it for an age of "busts," such as prevailed from the dawn of 1893 until the poor laboring man was elevated on a cross of gold in 1896? Here's success to the hop trust.

The fistic battle between Jeffries and Sharkey last Friday night had no political significance, both the principals being democrats. Sharkey emerged from the fray with a broken hand, a pair of fractured slats and the decision of the referee against him, but still insisted that he wasn't licked. One cannot but admire this democratic characteristic. The party has received many a hard drubbing, but always kicks against the decision and bravely presents its banged and battered front for another go under the same conditions.

The result of the elections Tuesday in several states contained no real surprises. The republican candidate for governor of Kentucky seems to have a plurality of 6000 to 8000, but his democratic opponent, it is thought, will contest. The legislature is probably democratic. Ohio went republican by over 50,000. Mark Hanna's barrel is still doing business at the old stand. Good! The next New York assembly will stand 93 republicans and 57 democrats—a republican gain of 12. Iowa has gone republican by over 60,000. The republican plurality in Massachusetts is 66,062. Pennsylvania has gone republican by 109,465. The republican majority in South Dakota was 4070. In North Dakota it is about 10,000. There were big republican gains in Kansas and New Jersey. The democrats took Maryland by 11,000. Nebraska remains in the confusion column by a margin of about 12,000. The other states that held elections went according to their custom. There was but little interest outside of Ohio, Kentucky and Nebraska, and it is doubtful if the result has any bearing upon national issues. However, it is very satisfactory.

Chamberlain's Pain Balm Cures Others, Why Not You?

My wife has been using Chamberlain's Pain Balm, with good results, for a lame shoulder that has pained her continually for nine years. We have tried all kinds of medicines and doctors without receiving any benefit from any of them. One day we saw an advertisement of this medicine and thought of trying it, which we did with the best of satisfaction. She has used only one bottle and her shoulder is almost well.—Adolph L. A Happy Mother

Prolicking with her baby makes one of the prettiest spectacles ever seen in the home. But nothing is sadder to see than the unhappy mother, weak and nervous, striving in vain to hush the cries of her weak and nervous babe. There can be no happiness for either mother or child without health. Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription "has done wonders" for many a woman, by restoring her health and opening for her the way to happy motherhood. This really wonderful medicine is not a cure-all. It is a preparation specially designed to cure diseases peculiar to women. It dries debilitating drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, cures female weakness, and removes the causes which generally make women nervous and sleepless.

There is no alcohol in "Favorite Prescription" and it contains no opium, cocaine or other narcotic.

Mrs. James W. Blacker, of 629 Catherine Street, Syracuse, N. Y., writes: "Your medicines have done wonders for me. For years my health was very poor; I had four miscarriages, but since taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery,' I have much better health, and now I have a fine healthy baby."

Use Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets with "Favorite Prescription" if the bowels are inactive or irregular.

Every woman needs Dr. Miles' Pain Pills.
