Nortons Notes.

Mrs. S. A. Bryant celebrated her 68th birthday on the 4th inst.

J. P. Hamar drove twenty head of beef cattle from his place, on Steer creek, to Albany last week.

J. A. Hamar of Champoeg, spent a few days last week visiting friends and relatives in this vicinity.

E. C. Derrick has moved his family to Nortons for the winter, so he could send his children to school.

Frank Hyde, the famous bear hunter of Little Elk, came over Saturday to have some fun with the boys and the bears.

John Pague, one of our old neighbors but now a stock buyer of Kansas, is spending a few days in this neck o' the woods.

A. L. Porter, deputy U. S. surveyor, came out from his ranch at Sugarloaf last Monday, and went to Corvallis to invest in some thoroughbred stock.

By not letting his wife pick the plums, like the rest of us do, C. H. Gillett fell out of a plum tree and broke his leg just above the ankle. He is getting along nicely now.

Married.—At the residence of the bride's parents, October 22, 1899, Mr. Albert Beers and Miss Luella Huffaker. G. F. Luckey, justice of the peace, officiating. (Editor, please remit me 15 cents.)

There was a good item spoiled the other day. There were some boys shooting at a dog and a bullet striking a rock glanced and struck one of the boys on the forehead and lodged beneath the skin. If it had struck a little harder we would have all went to the funeral, and, as it was not our dog they were shooting at, we would all put on our sad look and speak very low to our neighbors and ask them if they have got many sheep and cattle they have sold, etc.

Chitwood Splinters.

L. F. Pepin is putting an addition to his dwelling house.

Mrs. A. L. Chitwood is visiting her sister, Mrs. McBride, of Little Elk.

Mrs. Andy Parrish, of Rock creek, is over visiting her sister Mrs. Lafa Pepin.

Potato digging and wood cutting is the order of the day in this neck o' the woods.

Miss Bertha Chitwood, daughter of A. L. Chitwood, has gone to Mill City to spend the winter with her aunt, Mrs. Tunicliff.

J. E. Wilson has an apple tree in his nursery which he grafted one year ago last April and this year it bore seventeen fine, large apples. They are a new variety called the Bismark. They are beauties.

J. E. Wilson, wife and daughter and Harry Chitwood arrived home safely from the beach, where they spent about ten days picking huckleberries, catching fish, etc. They report having a splendid time.

Elder R. D. Renham, of Beaverton, spoke at our school house Saturday and Sunday at 11 a. m. and in the evening to a goodly number of attentive listeners. He is of the Seventh Day Adventist church.

Miss Neva Whitney reports that she is getting on nicely at Monmouth, where she is attending college. Her brother, Ira Whitney is attending the Agricultural College at Corvallis, and reports prosperity in his studies.

Uncle Jimmie Chitwood has his beans harvested but hasn't finished harvesting his pumpkin pies, although he is putting in his best licks in that direction. His nephew Harry Chitwood, from Tillamook county, has been visiting him for the past four weeks and has helped him considerably. Harry left for the Valley yesterday morning on the train. KUMTUX.

Summons.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Lincoln County.

John Woodman, Plaintiff,

vs.

M. F. Phillips, Defendant.

To M. F. Phillips, the above-named defendant: In the Name of the State of Oregon—You are hereby required to appear in the above entitled Court and answer to the complaint of the above-named plaintiff on file therein on or before the 1st day of the next regular term of said Court next following the expiration of the time prescribed in the order for the publication of this summons, to-wit: On or before the 22d day of January, 1900; and you are further notified that if you fail to so appear and answer said complaint and summons as by law required, the plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief prayed for in his complaint on file therein, to-wit: For a judgment against you for the sum of $80, with interest thereon at the rate of 10 per cent per annum from the 1st day of April, 1898, and for the further sum of $25 as attorneys' fees, and for the costs and disbursements of this action to be taxed; and for an order of the above-entitled Court directing that a sale be made of the property attached in said action by the Sheriff of Lincoln county, Oregon, to satisfy said judgment, which property is described as follows: One chestnut sorrel horse, with black mane and tail, about 10 years, weight about 1200 pounds; one red cow, marked with crop off of both ears, about 10 years old. And that upon a sale of said property the proceeds arising therefrom be applied to the payment of plaintiff's claim, and the overplus, if any there be, be paid to said defendants. The period of time prescribed for the publication of this summons upon you is more than six weeks from the date of the first publication, to-wit: Monday, the 23d day of January, 1900. The date of the last publication is Friday, the 19th day of January, 1900, and the date of the first publication thereof is Friday, October 27, 1899. This summons is published in the Lincoln County Leader by order of the Hon. J. W. Hamilton, Judge of the above-entitled Court.

Done in Chambers at Roseburg, Oregon, this 9th day of October, 1899.

WEATHERFORD & WYATT, Attorneys for Plaintiff.

Sheriff's Sale.

Notice is hereby given that by virtue of an execution and order of sale issued out of the circuit court of the state of Oregon for Lincoln county, bearing date October 23, 1899, and under the seal of said court upon a decree and order of sale in favor of John Riekard and against Lydia Brasfield and J. W. Brasfield, her husband, for the sum of Nine Hundred and Forty-Four Dollars and Seventeen Cents, with interest thereon at the rate of 10 per cent per annum from date of decree and $75 attorney's fees, and the further sum of $37.80 costs and disbursements of said suit, which decree was duly entered in said court on the 25th day of July, 1899, and duly docketed on the 29th day of July, 1899, in a suit wherein said John Riekard was plaintiff and said Lydia Brasfield and J. W. Brasfield, M. S. Rich, Nellie M. Rich, Porter A. Rich and ——— Rich, his wife, Clara Briggs and ——— Briggs, her husband, William E. Rich and Edna M. Rich, his wife, H. C. Nute, as executor of the last will and testament of W. H. H. Rich, deceased; M. M. Davis and E. E. Wilson as executors of the last will and testament of J. R. Bryson, deceased; C. G. Copeland and the state of Oregon were defendants, said decree, execution and order of sale to me directed and delivered, commanding me as sheriff of Lincoln county, state of Oregon, to sell in the manner provided by law for the sale of real property on execution, all of the following described real property, to-wit: All of Books numbered Eight (8), Nine (9) and Ten (10), each containing fourteen (14) lots, in Phelps' addition to the City of Newport in Lincoln county, Oregon, together with the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances thereto belonging, or in anywise appertaining, and in obedience to the command of said decree, execution and order of sale, I have levied upon said real property above described, and on SATURDAY, THE 26 DAY OF DECEMBER, 1899, at the hour of 1 o'clock p. m. of said day, last aforesaid, I will sell at public auction, at the courthouse door, in the city of Toledo, Lincoln county, Oregon, to the highest bidder for United States gold coin, cash in hand, all the right, title, estate and interest of said defendants in and to said real property to satisfy the amount due said plaintiff on said decree, execution and order of sale and costs and accruing costs, as in said decree, execution and order of sale provided.

J. H. ROSS, Sheriff of Lincoln County, Oregon. Dated at Toledo, Oregon, November 3, 1899.
