The Nicaragua canal bill will be sprung upon the coming congress at its very opening. The leading champions of the measure are very hopeful since Czar Reed discarded his scepter.

A newspaper man who flashes a bogus subscription list is about as pitiable an object as Senator Hoar and others in his class who are holding up to the gaze of the world that spurious George Washington, Aguinaldo.

The Northwest Herald of Portland has promised to "look into" a certain municipal matter and "tell the people the truth." This threatened deviation from its well-known policy comes as a pleasant surprise to the readers of the Herald.

The recent state elections seem to have given entire satisfaction to newspapers of every political faith. About one-half of them evidently were never up against real success, and the little Nebraska rainbow is magnified in their eyes until it reaches from coast to coast.

If Congressman-elect Roberts of Utah, the polygamist, is permitted to take his seat in the house the majority of the people of the United States will be greatly surprised and justly indignant. The ambitious and gally man from Utah will probably get all that's coming to him.

The Oregonian, with a characteristic display of courtesy and good will toward men, devotes a half column to Rev. Dr. Magie, who delivered the sermon at the funeral of Vice President Hobart. In the course of his remarks the reverend gentleman referred to the friendship existing between President McKinley and Vice President Hobart and credited the latter with asserting that the president "is a good man." This utterance the Oregonian brands as "arrant pulpit toadyism," and adds: "President McKinley is entitled to the sympathy of all men of good sense and good taste." Being a man "of good sense and good taste," Editor Scott winds up his peculiar explosion with the following overflow of "sympathy:" "Perhaps Vice-President Hobart's ideal of 'goodness' in the case of McKinley was Sioux Indian standard, viz., to take everybody's 'scalp' but his own." The politically versatile editor of the republican Oregonian is daily adding to his reputation as the leading curio of Oregon. As a study in black-and-white he is the whole thing. May he continue to develop in that line and furnish amusement for the millions.

Gaining a Wide Reputation.

As a cure for rheumatism Chamberlain's Pain Balm is gaining a wide reputation. D. B. Johnston of Richmond, Ind., has been troubled with that ailment since 1862. In speaking of it he says: "I never found anything that would relieve me until I used Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It acts like magic with me. My foot was swollen and pained me very much, but one good application of Pain Balm relieved me." For sale by O. O. Krogstad, druggist.

A SURE CURE FOR CROUP.

Twenty-five Years' Constant Use Without a Failure.

The first indication of croup is hoarseness, and in a child subject to that disease it may be taken as a sure sign of the approach of an attack. Following this hoarseness is a peculiar rough cough. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough appears, it will prevent the attack. It is used in many thousands of homes in this broad land and never disappoints the anxious mothers. We have yet to learn of a single instance in which it has not proved effectual. No other preparation can show such a record—twenty-five years' constant use without a failure. For sale by O. O. Krogstad, druggist.

Cleaning House

Once or twice a year the good housewife has a thorough house cleaning. The house has been swept and dusted every day in the year, but the housewife knows that in spite of vigilance dust accumulates in cracks and corners, and is only to be removed by special effort.

It's the same way with the body. You look after it every day. You take all the ordinary precautions of cleanliness and health. Yet the body needs its special cleaning to rid it of the accumulations of waste and poisonous matter which invite disease. Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, taken regularly once or twice a year, would save many a sickness. It purifies the blood, strengthens the stomach, and cleanses the body of poisonous accumulations.

"Last spring I had a severe attack of pneumonia, which left me with a bad cough, and also left my lungs in a very bad condition," writes John M. Russell, Esq., of Brent, Cherokee Nat. Ind. Ter. "I had no appetite and was so weak I could scarcely walk. My breast was all sore with running sores. I got two bottles Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which I believe saved my life. I cannot express my gratitude to you. I am able now to do very good work."

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser, in paper covers, sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay cost of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.
