Yaquina Notes.
Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin from the Alsea went out to Corvallis Tuesday.

The much-needed repairs to the church were attended to by our worthy citizens.

Miss Gertie Rowe went out to Portland Tuesday to visit with relatives during the winter.

Mr. Jacobson went to Toledo Saturday for the extreme pleasure of walking back over the hills.

Mrs. A. J. Stout and granddaughter, Eva Stout, were in town Saturday shopping and calling on their friends.

Mrs. Cannon and son of Beaver creek were trading in Yaquina last Friday; also Messrs. Weaver and Hultry of the same neighborhood.

Several persons have just arrived from North Dakota and will look over the county with a view to making it their future home. There is plenty of room. Let them come, and don't forget the strangers within our gates. JERLY.

SON of an Ohio Merchant Cured of Chronic Diarrhoea.
My son has been troubled for years with chronic diarrhoea. Some time ago I persuaded him to take some of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. After using two bottles of the 25-cent size he was cured. I give this testimonial, hoping some one similarly afflicted may read it and be benefited.—Thomas C. Bower, Glencoe, Ohio. For sale by O. O. Krogstad, druggist.

NOTICE.
I have a few tracts of good land in the Bay country which I can sell at Bargains. Call on or write to me. PETER TELLEFSON, Yaquina, Oregon.

Elk City Items.
Mr. Editor: You do not get the caption of your correspondence from this place correct. It should be "Elk City Items." We hope your compositor will adjust his spectacles and set this thing right in your next issue. Elk City is a real town, nestling among the hills at the junction of the Yaquina and Big Elk rivers, surrounded by a rich grazing and agricultural country, especially adapted to fruit raising and dairying. The town has about 75 inhabitants, a general merchandise store, owned by J. R. Mays & Son; one hotel, presided over by that most genial and accommodating of landlords, R. F. Simpson; a blacksmith shop, drugstore, postoffice and a public school. We also have a nice hall, owned by the Odd Fellows. At the last meeting of the order (Saturday evening, Nov. 25), we had a fraternal visit from Grand Master Weatherford, E. J. Seely and J. L. Burkhart of Albany. A banquet was given at the hotel by the members of the order here in honor of the visiting brothers. The supper was prepared by Mrs. R. F. Simpson, who is noted for her skill and success in the culinary art. The occasion was greatly enjoyed by all present.

A good audience met Sunday evening to hear Rev. Brown of Toledo preach, but he failed to put in an appearance. The evening, however, was well spent in singing and listening to a very interesting address by Prof. A. B. Clark of the public school. X.

The New York World
Thrice-a-Week Edition.

ALMOST A DAILY AT THE PRICE OF A WEEKLY.

The most widely circulated "weekly" newspaper in America is the Thrice-a-Week edition of The New York World, and with the Presidential campaign now at hand you cannot do without it. Here are some of the reasons why it is easily the leader in dollar a year journalism. It is issued every other day, and is to all purposes a daily. Every week each subscriber receives 18 pages and often during the "busy" season 24 pages each week. The price is only $1.00 per year. It is virtually a daily at the price of a weekly. Its news covers every known part of the world. No weekly newspaper could stand alone and furnish such service. The Thrice-a-Week World has at its disposal all of the resources of the greatest newspaper in existence—"America's Greatest Newspaper," as it has been justly named—The New York World. Its political news is absolutely impartial. This fact will be of especial value in the Presidential campaign coming on. The best of current fiction is found in its columns. These are only some of the reasons; there are others. Read it and see them all. We offer this unequalled newspaper and THE LEADER together one year for $2.25. Those wishing sample copies will please leave their names at this office.

We are better prepared to serve our customers than ever before. Our stock is most complete. Call and examine for yourself. Miller & Pruett.
