SILETZ ITEMS.

A turkey cooked to a delicious brown ornamented the board of Sam Center.

Louie Fuller walked from Toledo and carried a live turkey for our Thanksgiving dinner.

A letter states that Guy Buford and Wesley Davis are meeting with success in their work in California.

Major Buford and daughter, Miss Mary, Superintendent Betz and wife and Mrs. Minnie Betz helped us to eat our turkey dinner.

Messrs. Adams, Grant, Strong, Cook and Klamath Charlie attended quarterly services at the M. E. church in Toledo Wednesday, returning in the afternoon.

The new sidewalk has been completed on the south side of Main street to a point opposite the parsonage, and a new crossing placed. Reed is a worker and a jolly good fellow.

Preparations are being perfected by Superintendent Betz for a grand Christmas entertainment. A Cantata will be executed by the government employees entitled, "We'll Have to Mortgage the Farm." Particulars later.

Mrs. Garnier of Portland, has been visiting her son, Will Garnier, at the hospital. He is convalescing rapidly and his recovery is due to the devoted efforts of his nurse, Miss Dyer. The government has furnished Will a good cork leg and he will soon be able to navigate the sea of mud in Siletz.

Memorial services in honor of Garret A. Hobart were largely attended. The textual subject was "The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death." Death is an enemy, does an enemy's work, but the greatest enemy is sin. Death has robbed us of an eminent lawyer, statesman, citizen, patriot, and financier with but few peers; has robbed us of an eminent Christian example and our vice president. The flags over the government buildings are at half mast, and though dead, yet he lives in the hearts of his countrymen.

Thanksgiving day was thoroughly celebrated at the chapel in Siletz. At 10 a. m. the house was crowded. Superintendent Betz conducted the services, which consisted in select readings and appropriate songs. Rev. Bryant talked briefly and Father Bucher followed in his usual happy manner. Major Buford's remarks were received with much pleasure by all, but especially by the children, whose smiling faces greeted him. Superintendent Betz gave a brief outline of the work accomplished during the year, and we all should thoroughly realize that to Major Buford belonged great credit for the many conveniences and privilege afforded us for cause of Thanksgiving on that day.

PASTOR.

WALDPOR WAWA.

Once again the cold December stills the earth with icy hand.

Sneaking old Jack Frost bit the sidewalk a few nights ago.

Mrs. N. A. Tyler has rented the Waldport hotel for the winter.

Supervisor Reynolds began repair work on the road Wednesday. Rather late, Al.

The Thanksgiving dance was a grand success and all hands enjoyed themselves immensely.

E. M. Kimball, the Aisea miller, brought down a load of flour and feed from the Valley last Tuesday.

Died—At her home, Saturday, December 2, 1899, Mrs. Bertha Bennett, wife of Albert Bennett. The deceased has been ill a long time, but of late had grown steadily worse. Her husband, with kind friends, has watched with her almost constantly, and was overcome with grief at her death. Albert Bennett is a Sir Knight of the Maccabees and has the heartfelt sympathy of the brothers here, as well as the entire community.

FALLING LEAVES.

SALADO SAVINGS.

High waters and bad weather predominates.

We are glad to say Mr. Bert Griffith is recovering from his recent illness.

After a month's illness Geo. Hodges is able to be out again. He started for Toledo to see the county court concerning the bridge to be built across Big Elk at Salado.

Thank the Lord for all favors. I am here to say we were all very thankful on Thanksgiving, but nearly all the people were, on account of poverty or bad weather, unable to have a feast.

William Arnold and family have moved on their ranch on Gopher creek. Mr. Arnold says they will stay there in the future. You bet this country is the best every time to live in and make a comfortable home, isn't it, Bill?

Mr. Girard is working for Mr. Daniel this winter. Mr. Daniels knows how to improve opportunities and his pluck and financiering have put him in a position to hire the ranch work done and let his big boys go to school to improve their minds.

Mr. Daniel's family paid due respect to Thanksgiving, and had turkey for dinner and perhaps lots of other good things. The writer is unable to say, but saw the turkey going by on the boy's back and he said it was for Thanksgiving dinner.

Messrs. Emery and Henderson are sawing the timber to make a woodshed for the school house. Good wood has been scarce for the school ma'am, but she has the pluck to stand all inconveniences, and is teaching her sixth week of a successful term with all the scholars that began the first of the term in regular attendance. NEXT.

YAQUINA ITEMS.

Miss Lillie Derby was visiting friends in the city Saturday.

Mrs. Randall of Newport was a pleasant caller in Yaquina Friday.

While we had many things to be thankful for, it was not a pleasant Thanksgiving day.

Rev. Dawson held services Sunday which were well attended. His sermons were very impressive.

Miss Emma Wright of Pool's slough passed out Saturday morning to take a six-months' school at Eddyville.

Some of the ladies met with Mrs. Charlie Miller Wednesday afternoon to make arrangements for the Christmas tree.

Misses Hattie Ferr and Bessie King spent Thanksgiving in Yaquina, the guests of Mesdames Russell and Jenkins.

Mesdames Russell, Hume and Bartges walked to Newport Wednesday to exercise their muscles and attend the Ladies Guild.

The ladies and gentleman who went to the life-saving station last Sunday say they had a good time and learned several things, viz: The way over the trail from King's slough; how to build potoon bridges; climb hills a la goat and wade through the mud to their boat that the tide had left high and dry. There is nothing like being equal to any emergency. JERRY.

Now is the time for a poor man to purchase at Miller & Pruett's.

Son of an Ohio Merchant Cured of Chronic Diarrhoea.

My son has been troubled for years with chronic diarrhoea. Some time ago I persuaded him to take some of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. After using two bottles of the 25-cent size he was cured. I give this testimonial, hoping some one similarly afflicted may read it and be benefited.—Thomas C. Bower, Glencoe, Ohio. For sale by O. O. Krogstad, druggist.
