ELK CITY ITEMS.

Happy New Year to everybody. A. O. Krogstad was a caller on Saturday.

Dr. Carter went to the Valley the last of the week on a business trip.

The Bixel cheese factory is progressing as fast as circumstances will permit.

Fishermen get now and then a steelhead salmon, but they seem to be few and far between this winter.

George Bancroft returned from Portland Friday evening, and resumed his place as marshal at the Bevens quarry.

The United Artisans will meet on the second and fourth Saturday evenings at Artisans hall, in the Terwilliger building.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Dixon returned from the Valley last week where they have been visiting friends and relatives.

"To be, or not to be, that is the question" now on discussion at Elk City. Are we living the last year of the 19th or the first year of the 20th century?

Griffith Bros. of the Table Mountain shingle mill, arrived Saturday afternoon with 30,000 shingles. They were packed on mules to Salado and rafted down Big Elk river to this place for J. R. Mays & Son.

The Christmas tree and dance given by the Artisan lodge was a success in every way. Two trees were loaded with presents. The program was not lengthy, but from the cheers it received, was enjoyed by all. Afterward the hall was occupied by many dancers until 6 a. m. Everyone seemed to have come for a good time, and went home asking: "When can we come again?" K. C.

HAVING A GREAT RUN ON CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY.

Manager Martin, of the Pierson drug store, informs us that he is having a great run on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He sells five bottles of that medicine to one of any other kind, and it gives great satisfaction. In these days of la grippe there is nothing like Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to stop the cough, heal up the sore throat and lungs and give relief within a very short time. The sales are growing, and all who try it are pleased with its prompt action.—South Chicago Daily Calumet. For sale by O. O. Krogstad, druggist.

Table Mountain Ranch For Sale.

320 acres of land, one-half deeded; 125 acres bottom land and as much more level enough to run a mower over; 40 acres of good cedar and several acres of live old fir; 30 acres slashed and in grass and clover; 10 acres plow land; small orchard; good berry patch; two small houses; good barn and outbuildings; a small lumber and shingle mill—water power—in first-class running order; water is flumed but 200 feet; the mill is of simple construction and can be run by anyone; timber is close to mill, mostly cedar. This place takes all the farm land up the creek that will be settled for many years, making an endless stock range and also assuring a good hunting ground, which is well supplied with elk, deer and bear. The falls are never without fish, which is as far up as salmon can go. This place will be sold at a bargain. For prices and further information call at ranch or address B. M. or M. F. Griffith, Elk City, Oregon.

TO THE PUBLIC.

I want to let the people who suffer from rheumatism and sciatica know that Chamberlain's Pain Balm relieved me after a number of other medicines and a doctor had failed. It is the best liniment I have ever known of.—J. A. Dodgen, Alpharetta, Ga. Thousands have been cured of rheumatism by this remedy. One application relieves the pain. For sale by O. O. Krogstad, druggist.
