

Lincoln County Leader.

Volume VII.

Toledo, Lincoln County, Oregon, Friday, January 26, 1900.

Number 47.

LOCAL IN BRIEF.

The concert given by Rosebrooks orchestra at Thiel Hall Monday night was well attended, and the hearty applause which followed each number indicated that all present were well pleased with the entertainment. It was a somewhat lengthy program, and mention in detail is impossible. The orchestra presented some fine selections, and the violin solos and duets by Shedd and Leon Rosebrook were warmly received. Clarence Altree simply stuck to his every-day gait in his impersonation of Pat Murphy, the Irish songbird, and he played Picayune Johnsing, the smoked American, to a finish. Clarence is especially fitted for this branch of the show business. Nature has been kind to him and attached him to a face that needs but little retouching. He also warbles and whistles like a thing of life or something. He'll do. The concert was good medicine—a credit to Rosebrooks orchestra.

It has just leaked out that Dr. Frazer's main object in visiting Siletz recently was to get in practice for his coming wrestle with the Woodmen's goat. He had the hardest kind of a ride and was thrown from the horse once, and he will be surprised if the goat introduces him to any new movements. By the way, Dr. Frazer is a grand example of what the glorious climate of Lincoln county will do for the newcomer. When the doctor came to Toledo a few weeks ago he brought with him a pair of legs each of which measured thirty-three inches in length. This, he it understood, was not natural, but simply the result of association. A brief stay in Toledo has brought his pedals back to their normal length—thirty-one inches.

Jack Allphin fell from the sidewalk, just across the track opposite Conroy's store, Wednesday evening and sustained a fracture of the right arm just below the shoulder. Dr. Darnell set the broken arm and Jack is said to be feeling surprisingly well. He recently celebrated his 71st birthday, however, and such accidents generally cause one of his age a great deal of trouble. He has the sympathy of all who have any of the precious quality in stock, and all wish him a speedy recovery.

Rosa Muszynski was blown from the railroad bridge which crosses Depoe slough Monday while on her way home from school, just as she had reached a point beyond the water edge. Fortunately she was not much injured, but had the strong gust of wind carried her into the water she would probably have been drowned. The strongest wind of the season prevailed for a short time Monday evening.

Wallis Nash of Nashville precinct came down on business Tuesday evening and remained until yesterday morning. Mr. Nash was drawn as a juror, but being a lawyer, stood on his rights and didn't respond. He was sick and could not get here in time, anyway.

L. D. Wood was over from Siletz yesterday. He is now a notary public and in this capacity will register the voters of Siletz precinct.

Manager Edwin Stone of the C. & E. was a Sunday visitor in Toledo.

Commodore Lentdes of Foo Foo fame was in town yesterday.

For bargains of all kinds go to Conroy, Son & Co.

Ed Wade of Yaquina had business in the county seat yesterday.

Postal Clerk Charlie Litchfield went out to Salem today to visit his parents.

Mrs. Ora Copeland returned Monday morning from her visit at Newport.

Fred Bailey of Oyster City came up Monday for a visit with George Baumann, returning Wednesday evening.

Charles Hyde came down from Eddyville to participate in the Rosebrook concert, returning yesterday morning.

Conductor Walter Bartges has been taking a lay-off this week, and the familiar shape of Ed Beeman is seen in his place.

Superintendent George Bethers and family returned from Newport last Saturday and are again at home in their Toledo cottage.

Ladies, The White House is closing out well-made flannelette wrappers at only $1 each. Call before they are all sold. H. Lewis

Fred Stanton, Dye Wade and Ade Crosno departed Wednesday morning for tall timber to resume their duties as professional cabin-builders

If any citizens of Lincoln county haven't been in Toledo this week, they will please report. Those who have been here are too numerous to mention.

Services at the M. E. church every Sunday in the month except the third, morning and evening. Prayer meeting every Wednesday evening. C. M. Brown, pastor.

Dr. Frazer, the dentist, will go to Yaquina next Monday evening and be at the Casteel hotel Tuesday and Wednesday, returning to Toledo Thursday morning. Saturday evening he departs again for a few days' professional visit at Waldport.

Several lively showers of fine hail fell Monday night, but as a winter storm it was tame.

For good strong coffee, ground ready for use 11 pounds for $1 go to Conroy, Son & Co.

Mrs. F. H. McDonald of Newport arrived this morning for a visit with relatives and friends.

Ladies, do you wish a nice dinner set free? Call on Peter Tellefson, Yaquina, and he will tell you all about it.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. George Baumann has been having a struggle with croup this week, but is better.

Mrs. C. C. McBride of Eddyville came down last night to see her father, M. J. Allphin, returning this morning.

Colonel F. J. Parker of the Walla Walla (Wash.) Statesman and proprietor of one of Lincoln county's famous ranches, came in on business last night, returning this morning.

There will be a special meeting of Abe Lincoln Relief Corps next Tuesday evening, January 30, the object being to discuss the joint observance of Lincoln's and Washington's birthdays. The president, Mrs. Sturdevant, earnestly requests all members to be present.

George King passed through Tuesday night en route to Newport from a visit at his birthplace in England and other points on the isle.

THE LEADER was unable to interview Mr. King, owing to the limited stay of the train, but learned that he had his pockets filled with commissions for good able-bodied fighting men of Lincoln county who would enlist as officers in the cause of Great Britain against the Boers. He is armed with authority to raise an entire regiment of officers—privates not needed—and those who first respond to his invitation will, of course, get the top positions.

England, as is well known to all who have kept posted on the South African war, is sadly in need of officers: the privates are all right. Mr. King, it will be remembered, was a playmate of Mother Shipton, the famous old English prophetess. They were near neighbors, and played together in the back yard of the King home and together slid down the cellar door. Mother Shipton has been dead "for lo these many years," but the playmate of her early days is still with us, and quite vigorous—a striking illustration of the survival of the fittest. During his visit Mr. King visited Mother Shipton's famous well, the waters of which soon petrify anything placed therein. He brought back with him many fine specimens from the well, and did not forget to treat himself to a dip in the wonderful water, thus making himself proof against the venomous darts of wicked newspaper men. Some day we shall have a thorough interview with Mr. King and place more of his interesting experience before our readers. Meanwhile THE LEADER heartily congratulates him on his safe return to his family and friends on Yaquina bay as well as on his youthful appearance.

Odd Fellows Installation.

The officers of Toledo Lodge No. 108, I. O. O. F., were installed Saturday evening, January 20, by District Deputy Grand Master L. O. Olsson of Newport, as follows:

J. R. Turnidge, N. G.
R. A. Arnold, V. G.
O. O. Krogstad, R. C.
Lester Waugh, Treasurer.
W. A. Caton, R. S. N. G.
James Anderson, W.
J. H. Lutz, I. G.

A lunch was served by the members, and all present had an enjoyable time. They departed for their homes early in the morning.

REPORTER.

THE LAST WEEK

of Conroy, Son & Co's clearance sale. Bargains in all lines until February 1. Take advantage of the opportunity and come while they last.

The Ladies Aid society—that is, a few of the members, met with the president, Mrs. J. L. Hyde, Tuesday afternoon, and were well repaid for their walk through the mud and rain. After the meeting adjourned the hostess served delicious cake and lemonade, and as that is against the rules of the society, the president explained that it was the last time she could entertain them. The offense was freely forgiven. They adjourned to meet with Mrs. Brumfield next Tuesday afternoon. The president requests all members to be present, as something of importance is to be discussed.

A house belonging to Jack Allphin, just beyond the Eddyville station, was, with its contents, totally destroyed by fire about noon Monday. The building was occupied by Ira Vernon and family and the loss is a severe blow, as there was no insurance. William Wakefield is circulating a subscription paper in Toledo this week and our citizens are responding according to their ability. In this way Mr. Vernon will probably be enabled to get a new start in housekeeping. Mr. Allphin's loss was about $150, but he bears it like a philosopher.

C. A. Miller of the firm of Miller & Pruett of Yaquina passed through Monday morning en route to Ashland, this state, to inspect a business opening. Mr. Miller has sold his interest in the Yaquina business to H. K. Lugger, the well-known foreman of the C. & E. shops at that place. His desire to place his daughters in better schools led him to make the change. The family will probably remove to Ashland in the near future, and they will be missed by many warm friends in Lincoln county.

Wallis Nash, notary public, will be at the Nashville depot Saturday January 27, from 2 to 4 p. m., and Saturday, February 3, at the same hour, to register the voters of Nashville precinct.

Superintendent of Bridges Stevens and Section Foreman Pruett came up from Yaquina Wednesday evening on the former's whadyou-callit.

George A. Landreth, Toledo, Oregon, agent for the Edison Phonograph. Prices from $150 up.

The light-house tender Columbine came into port last Sunday on her customary mission.
