YAQUINA ITEMS.

Weather warm and spring like. Look out for another wedding soon.

Mrs. Brown went to South Beach Monday for an outing.

Miss Nannie Blower was in town several days, the guest of Miss Helen Pygall.

The lighthouse tender Columbine is in the bay attending to the government work.

Miss Carrie Hass of Newport was on our streets Saturday attending to business and calling on her friends.

So many people have been at Toledo attending court our streets have been almost deserted.

J. S. Gaither has brought the residence of H. K. Luggar on Third street and will soon occupy the same.

Several lady friends of Miss Pygall assembled at her home Saturday for dinner and had a very enjoyable time.

Mrs. Jenkins has been quite sick from an attack of pneumonia. We hope to see her out soon. When such good people are sick the rest of us miss them.

Quite a number of changes have taken place recently. Mr. Miller of the firm of Miller & Pruett has sold his interest to Mr. Luggar and has left to look for greener pastures. May he prosper.

Elmer Helms of Waldport was in town to see his grandmother, Mrs. Harriet Helms, whose health is very poor, and as she is nearly ninety years old, it is not likely there will be any change for the better. JERRY.

The Yaquina Bay Mercantile Co. can again supply you with the celebrated Stayton flour and feed. Ask for it.

The farmer cannot too fully understand that all the live stock on his farm with which he is brought in daily contact will partake more or less of his personal moods. If he kicks open the barn doors in the morning and thumps the old mare with the shovel or pitchfork to let her know that he is boss of that ranch, even the hens will be nervous and out of sorts all day. It is the placid, even tempered farmer who has docile stock. If he leaves the kitchen door for the barnyard singing "The Sweet By and By," he will find his cows placidly chewing their cud and his hogs grunting contentedly in the morning sun. A horse understands when he is sworn at, and it embitters a cow to threaten to break her back with a straw cutter. A pig in the pen which receives a cheery "Good morning" from the owner will fatten twice as fast as the one which climbs up to receive a blow from a club. It is so with the fowls. The farmer who puts on a benevolent, fatherly expression as he scatters the grain will find every hen doing her best that day to lay an egg to prove her gratitude and confidence, while the one who scowls and mutters and tries to knock some hen's head off with a clothes prop will find himself feared and detested.—M. Budd in Nebraska Farmer.

Table Mountain Ranch For Sale.

320 acres of land, one-half deeded; 125 acres bottom land and as much more level enough to run a mower over; 40 acres of good cedar and several acres of live old fir; 30 acres slashed and in grass and clover; 10 acres plow land; small orchard; good berry patch; two small houses; good barn and outbuildings; a small lumber and shingle mill—water power—in first-class running order; water is flumed but 200 feet; the mill is of simple construction and can be run by anyone; timber is close to mill, mostly cedar.
