YAQUINA ITEMS.

D. P. Blue has been sick for several days.

Miss Hazel Walch is at home for a few days.

The past few days have been very pleasant and warm.

F. Goin left Saturday morning for his home at Alsea.

Mail Clerk Litchfield returned Tuesday evening from Salem.

Miss Fay Norton came home Friday night to attend the ball.

Miss Lillie Derby was in town Saturday making calls and shopping.

Mrs. J. Bowers of Beaver creek is in town, the guest of Mrs. J. Blaser.

We are glad to know that Mrs. Jenkins is recovering from her late illness.

Rev. Dawson will hold service Sunday, morning and evening. Let us all be there.

We are sorry to hear that Mrs. J. M. Norton has been quite ill for the past few days.

We all anticipate pleasure in attending the concert, and wish Mr. and Mrs. Rosebrook a full house.

Mr. Fowler came in as conductor Tuesday night. He is an old-timer on the road and his many friends were glad to meet him again.

Messrs. Miller and Bartges, with their families, left Wednesday morning for their new home at Ashland. Our best wishes go with them.

Everybody call at the store and see how well Mr. Lugger looks behind the counter. Yaquina people never knew before how handsome he is.

Mr. Editor, if you pay for the babies born at Yaquina, we claim the reward. Mrs. Hanlon has a brand-new girl. [We owe you ten cents, although you fail to give day and date or say anything about Pa Hanlon's interest in the new-comer.—Ed.]

The promptness of Joe Morris saved Yaquina from a big fire. Sparks from a stove in the warehouse settled on the roof, which is covered with tar, and was making good headway, when Joe flew up the ladder, turned on the water, and the scare was soon over.

Yaquina, Or. Jan. 22, 1900.

The Yaquina Bay Mercantile Co. can again supply you with the celebrated Stayton flour and feed. Ask for it.

The following is a list of eight classes of people who do a town no good. First, those who go out of town to do trading. Second, those who prefer a quiet town to one of push and energy. Third, those who imagine they own the town. Fourth, those who think business can be done slyly without advertising. Fifth, those who deride public spirited men. Sixth, those who oppose every movement not originated by themselves. Seventh, those who oppose every public enterprise that does not appear to benefit them. Eighth, those who seek to injure the credit of an individual.—Drain Watchman.

We are better prepared to serve our customers than ever before. Our stock is most complete. Call and examine for yourself. Miller & Pruett.

The Jolly Girl

Often changes to the jaded woman. "I can't see what's come over Mary; she used to be such a jolly girl," was the remark of a young woman visiting a married school-mate. Marriage changes a woman. The drains and pains which are so often the sequence of marriage rob her of all vitality. Give her back her former strength and she'll be as "jolly" a wife as she was a maid. Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription gives back the lost strength by re-establishing the health of the delicate womanly organs. It dries the drains and stops the pains. It cures ulceration, inflammation and female weakness. It makes weak women strong and sick women well. "For two years I had been a sufferer from chronic disease and female weakness," writes Mrs. Allen A. Bobson, of 1125 Rodman Street, Philadelphia, Pa. "I had two different doctors and they gave me medicine which only relieved me for a time. My niece advised me to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I concluded that to open a correspondence with you for some advice would be better, as I did, and have been highly benefited. I find that after taking six bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and five of 'Golden Medical Discovery' and following your advice in regard to local treatment, I am now a strong woman. Accept my sincere thanks for the interest manifested in my case and the happy results obtained."

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter free. Correspondence private. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Table Mountain Ranch For Sale.

320 acres of land, one-half deeded; 125 acres bottom land and as much more level enough to run a mower over; 40 acres of good cedar and several acres of live old fir; 30 acres slashed and in grass and clover; 10 acres plow land; small orchard; good berry patch; two small houses; good barn and outbuildings; a small lumber and shingle mill—water power—in first-class running order; water is flumed but 200 feet; the mill is of simple construction and can be run by anyone; timber is close to mill, mostly cedar. This place takes all the farm land up the creek that will be settled for many years, making an endless stock range and also assuring a good hunting ground, which is well supplied with elk, deer and bear. The falls are never without fish, which is as far up as salmon can go. This place will be sold at a bargain. For prices and further information call at ranch or address B. M. or M. F. Griffith, Elk City, Oregon.

Stayton flour and feed. You can buy it of the Yaquina Bay Mercantile Co.

The man with the standing ad is the backbone of the newspaper, and the solid man of the community. In summer or winter, in sunshine or rain, his name greets the public eye with every issue of the paper, and the public come in time to regard him as well established in a successful business, whether they have been his patrons or not. "Nothing succeeds like success," and the public once getting the idea that a man is doing well, stands ready to patronize him and turns to him naturally when it wants anything in his line. In this simple fact lies the whole secret of persistent advertising.
