SILETZ ITEMS.

[Received too late last week.]
Clark Smith is very sick at this writing.

John Adams ran a nail through his hand.

School will close Friday. It has been a success.

Mrs. West's little girl is very sick at the hospital.

The genial phiz of Sheriff Ross was seen on our streets last week.

A. W. Duncan of Seaside, Or., is visiting Major Buford a few days.

Clerk Brown is a smooth fellow, having separated from his flowing beard.

Mrs. Copeland has returned from Portland and has a large stock of goods on the way.

Grant King and W. H. Pollock make their weekly journeys to Siletz with butter, eggs, etc.

The large range, with accessories, has arrived and the school will soon occupy its new and commodious quarters.

Drew Severy, our good-natured postmaster, is going to leave us and Mr. Wood will take his place. This will be a good appointment and meet with the hearty approval of all.

Oscar Brown and John Brown are just putting the finishing touches on a new wagon, built entirely by them. It is a fine specimen of workmanship—all the work done by hand—and done Brown.

Washington's birthday was observed with very appropriate exercises at the chapel. Recitations, singing and reading by the school, good music by the choir, addresses by Father Jurek and the pastor.

Franchise day was a big day in Siletz. The anvils boomed and there was general rejoicing and making merry. Exercises at the schoolhouse by the children and addresses by Superintendent Betz, U. S. Grant and the pastor closed the day.

W. A. Miller, aged 75 years, died at the home of Larkey Logan February 14 of pneumonia. He was born in Kansas and came to this beautiful valley last fall. He was laid to rest in Siletz cemetery February 15, at 2 p. m. He leaves a wife here to mourn his loss.

Services at chapel are well attended and interest increasing, the choir is well organized and under the efficient management of Dr. Daniel, who was elected chorister some weeks ago, is furnishing the best of music. Mrs. Betz and Miss Lockhart as sopranos, Miss Anna Chambers as alto, Dr. Daniel as tenor and W. H. Brown as bass cannot be excelled in Lincoln county. Come and hear them.

Willie Towner aged 10 months, died at his home in Siletz February 19, 1900. He was taken sick Sunday night and everything was done for him, but in vain, and he is now "Safe in the arms of Jesus, safe on His gentle breast." The family have the sympathy of the entire community. A very large number attended the service held in the chapel. The school attended in a body and formed in open ranks for the procession to pass through. The pall bearers were four boys from the school. Special songs had been prepared by the choir and the service was very impressive. The little one was laid to rest in Siletz cemetery.

LATER.

Next Tuesday is pay day for the Indians.

Fred Horning was over Tuesday after a load of Salmon.

Mr. Alexander's genial countenance beamed on all one day this week.

Presiding Elder T. R. Ford is expected here to hold quarterly services Saturday and Sunday.

Our school is out. Mrs. Hosford is a good teacher. The children have learned very fast and all regret to see her go away.

The phonograph entertainment given by Captain Hatch was up to the usual standard and well patronized by our people.

A child of Jack West died at the hospital Wednesday at 3 a. m. Services were held at the Catholic church the same day.

Charles Montgomery is fitting up a room in Oscar Brown's residence for a grocery and general merchandise store. He has a good, fresh stock of goods on hand. His daughter, Miss Maud, will keep house for him. Their welcome has been pleasant.

Antone Selsie died February 26 and the following day was laid to rest in the Siletz cemetery. Appropriate service was held by the pastor at the chapel. A large number were in attendance. He leaves a wife, two children, and relatives and a host of friends to mourn his departure.

SALADO ITEMS.

Balmy weather here now.

The ranchers are looking over garden seeds with the view of planting them in the near future.

George Hodges has made him a brand-new bunjo and you can hear its mellow tones as you go by.

We are pleased to see George Davenport back again on Large Elk once more. Hope he has come to stay.

Everybody friendly and neighborly. It seems to be their maxim to all work together as brothers of this earth should.

Everybody was very sorry to miss the dance at the Parker place given by Mr. Webber, but the awful weather prevented.

George Hodges has bought the sawmill owned by Arnold and Bank on Gopher creek and will soon be making lumber as well as boats at Salado.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Davis paid Toledo a visit. Mr. Davis returned home Saturday and Mrs. Davis went to Siletz to visit her mother, Mrs. Copeland.

Today (Friday) will be the last of the school. Miss Boone has taught 4½ months and everyone of her pupils has been benefited. She is a careful and earnest teacher, doing her work in a thorough and conscientious way. She shows no partiality, and gives all kind attention and her best efforts.

WEBFOOT.

YAQUINA ITEMS.

Rev. Dawson will hold services here Sunday morning and evening.

Quite a number of the life-saving crew were up Tuesday trading.

What is the matter, Felix? Come again. We are glad to hear from you at any time.

Little Vern Blue came over Tuesday to visit with his aunt, Miss Helen Pygall.

Mrs. Fred Bailey of Oyster City was in Yaquina this week visiting and shopping.

A family from Nebraska came in Monday night. They will make Lincoln county their home.

W. M. Toner and family went out to Salem Thursday to visit with relatives and friends. We wish them a pleasant visit.

The warm winter has been a great blessing, especially to those who were short of wood. If some of the states would send us a few good wood choppers it would really be appreciated.

There was quite an excitement Monday afternoon over a little fight between the Boers and the English. After a fight lasting about two hours the Boers would have been whipped, but reinforcements arrived in time to save them, and the English retreated under the fire of mud balls, clubs and rocks. They were so completely whipped it is hard to tell when they will fight again. JERRY.

Real Estate Cheap.

I have for sale the following property: 1—91 acres; 2—160 acres; 3—7½ acres; 4—40 acres; 5—160 acres; 6—280 acres. Also a number of lots and houses in Fredricksburg and Olsson's addition to Newport.

JOHN A. OLSSON,

A Kansas editor thus soliloquizes: "If a man should wear his pantsaloons so long that whenever he appeared on the street he would be obliged to reach around behind and grab hold of the slack and hold them up, wouldn't the ladies laugh?"

NOTICE.

I have a few tracts of good land in the Bay country which I can sell at Bargains. Call on or write to me. PETER TELLEFSON.
