Lack of space prevents giving a list of delegates and other visitors to Toledo this week. In other words, representative citizens too numerous to mention were here.

REMARKABLE CURE OF RHEUMATISM.

Kenna, Jackson Co., W. Va.
About three years ago my wife had an attack of rheumatism which confined her to her bed for over a month and rendered her unable to walk a step without assistance, her limbs being swollen to double their normal size. Mr. S. Maddox insisted on my using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I purchased a fifty-cent bottle and used it according to the directions and the next morning she walked to breakfast without assistance in any manner, and she has not had a similar attack since.—A. B. PARSONS. For sale by O. O. Krogstad, druggist.

YAQUINA ITEMS.

Mrs. Peter Tellefson is quite sick with a bad cold.

Mrs. Andrew Stout was in town Wednesday calling on her many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Blue took a pleasant walk over the hills to Toledo Wednesday.

We are pleased to learn that Miss Lillie Derby is quite recovered from her late illness.

Mail Agent Litchfield is suffering from one of Job's comforters on the back of his neck.

The steamer Roberts came in Saturday and left Sunday with several Yaquina people as passengers, for Florence.

There will be a social at Scott's hall Friday evening, April 13. Everybody invited to come and have a good time.

Commodore Simon Lentden and his launch have been plying up and down the bay for several days. It looks like business.

Miss Emma Flitercroft took a tie pass Wednesday morning from Toledo and arrived at Yaquina early. She was the guest of Miss Edna Hoeftlein.

Thomas Blower has moved his family down to Yaquina from Morrison. They are settled in the cottage formerly occupied by Mr. Ahearn, on Alder Hill.

The farewell social given by the young people to Mr. and Mrs. Peter Tellefson was well attended, and all had a pleasant time, the only cloud being the thoughts of their leaving here. Mr. Tellefson has always been an active worker in the church and Sunday school, and during the many years he won the admiration and affection of all the people, and his departure for his new home in Washington occasions no little regret. JERRY.

Republican County Convention.

The delegates to the republican county convention assembled at the courthouse yesterday at 10 a. m., effected organization and adjourned until 1 p. m. The business was soon finished. Owing to lack of space and the late day in the week on which the convention was held, THE LEADER finds it necessary to condense its report.

Wallis Nash of Nashville was chosen as chairman of the convention, and made a first-class presiding officer. S. G. Irvin of Newport satisfactorily filled the position of secretary.

Following are the nominees of the convention:

For Sheriff—J. H. Ross of Morris precinct, the incumbent. Nominated by acclamation.

For Clerk—G. E. Davis of Big Elk precinct.

For Treasurer—J. L. Hyde of Little Elk precinct, the incumbent.

For Commissioner—F. M. Stanton of Toledo precinct.

For School Superintendent—G. W. Bethers of Toledo, the incumbent.

For Assessor—F. M. Wadsworth of Toledo, the incumbent.

For Coroner—F. M. Carter of Elk City.

For Surveyor—Lot Powell of Beaver Creek.

Delegates to the State Convention—B. F. Swope, C. C. McBride, Wallis Nash and Henry Nice.

Delegates to the District Convention—T. W. Gorman, H. R. Sturdevant, J. R. Mays, T. J. Buford.

J. H. Penn of Yaquina was chosen as county chairman for the ensuing year.

The following were named as precinct chairmen: Yaquina, J. H. Penn; Big Elk, W. A. Ridenour; Little Elk, J. W. Derrick; Morris, W. E. Ball; Lower Alsea, C. R. Evans; Five Rivers, D. M. Ross; Toledo, A. D. Perkins; Siletz, U. S. Grant; Elk City, R. A. Abbey; Newport, John Buckley; Nashville, Wallis Nash; Beaver Creek, Thomas Harrison; Council.

The convention was as harmonious as the average, and the clouds remaining after the struggle was over were few and small. We will have more to say on this subject next week.

CHITWOOD ITEMS.

Like human life, our April weather is "mingled with sunshine and rain." The hills and valleys are covered with beautiful wild flowers, and the little songbirds seem to be holding a jubilee concert.

The latter part of last week Mr. Rose of Corvallis was a guest at Mr. Foster's. He is moving upon his new home, the Ed Dunn place, on Thorn creek.

Cearley Mason seems to be kept very busy now days attending his store and running after his goats, as they seem inclined to ramble considerable since they have changed pasture.

Our district school seems to be prospering under the management of Miss Allie Mason.

Messrs. Ira Whitney and Leo Kurtichanov are visiting home friends once more. They have been attending the O. A. C. at Corvallis. We are pleased to note the improvement made by these promising young men since they entered college, and heartily bid them God speed. We understand that Leo has been promoted to corporal.

J. E. Wilson still runs Bachelor hall, Mrs. Wilson having been visiting her parents and friends in Illinois since last December. We are informed she expects to return in May. She writes that she is getting quite homesick, as the weather there has been so unfavorable for visiting. It cannot compare with the pleasant climate of Oregon, where flowers bloom the year round.

Walter Huffaker was down here Tuesday laying in a supply of provisions preparatory for chittim peeling in the near future. He says he has over 200 pounds of chittim peeled already this spring.

J. E. Wilson shipped over 1,000 pounds of moss to San Francisco by railroad.
