

Lincoln County Leader.

Volume VIII.

Toledo, Lincoln County, Oregon, Friday, April 13, 1900.

Number 6.

LOCAL IN BRIEF.

Constable Altree, assisted by Sheriff Ross, returned Tuesday night from the Drift creek country with Bert Griffith and Frank Baker, charged with larceny, H. H. Curler being the complainant. The men were to have had their preliminary hearing before Justice Krogstad yesterday forenoon, but it was mutually agreed to postpone the same until tomorrow (Saturday), owing to the absence of attorneys.

I. F. Hiser has purchased of H. R. Sturdevant a 65-acre tract on Mill creek, about three miles from Toledo, and will now settle down and become a genuine webfoot. Mr. Hiser has been occupying the place for several months past and is therefore thoroughly familiar with its advantages. Under his skillful touch it will soon become a valuable and pretty home.

John Brown, Richard Anderson and Cecile Clay of Siletz, who participated in the Epworth League convention at Albany, returned Monday evening, the other members of the delegation following a day later. The Albany papers speak in complimentary terms of that part of the program furnished by the Siletz league.

The Ladies Aid society met with Mrs. A. Rosebrook Tuesday afternoon and decided to begin preparations for a fair in the near future. The president earnestly requests all members to attend the next regular meeting, to be held at the home of Mrs. R. F. Holm on the afternoon of April 24, and bring calico quilt pieces.

Agent Buoy returned Saturday evening from Albany, where he attended a grand stampede of the Elks on the previous all night. He reports that the law prohibiting the killing of Elk was strictly enforced at Albany, which accounts for his return.

Rev. C. M. Brown departed Monday morning for Lebanon to participate in the ministerial association. He will hold services at Eddyville and Chitwood on Easter Sunday, and on the following Sunday will hold an Easter service in Toledo.

Mrs. T. P. Fish returned Saturday evening from a protracted stay with her aunt at Portland, who was very sick for a long time, but is now convalescent. Mrs. Fish is suffering from a severe cold.

Abe Lincoln W. R. C. No. 49 will give an entertainment in the near future. Something unusually good is promised—and these ladies always keep their word.

William Brown departed Wednesday morning for Corvallis, near which place he expected to obtain employment on a ranch this season.

Robert Collins and family have removed to the north end, which brings Robert nearer to his work at the Maple Hill ranch.

The Pacific Homestead is a paper for Oregon farmers in every branch of the business. Get our offer.

FOR SALE.—Good steel axle farm wagon. Price, $20. G. FORSSSELL, Morrison, Or.

G. E. Baumann went down to Yaquina Wednesday, returning next day.

A. Rosebrook and G. R. Schenck & Co. have new ads this week.

Al Waugh accompanied the unfettered delegation to Portland.

Tin cups 2 for 5 cents at G. R. Schenck & Co's hardware store.

Deputy Sheriff Fred Ross hiked to the valley yesterday in search of a dentist.

Take your burlap sacks to the Y. B. M. Co. and get the highest market price.

Fish bite better when you get your fishing tackle at G. R. Schenck & Co's.

Mrs. C. E. Hawkins and Mrs. William Alexander are reported among the sick this week.

The farm home isn't complete without the Pacific Homestead. If you want a good offer, let us know.

Mrs. J. H. Penn passed through last Saturday evening en route to her Yaquina home from a visit with friends at Portland.

Frank Tillotson and family are visiting relatives at Dallas this week. Frank contemplates a visit up in Washington before returning.

Charley Montgomery invites his friends in Siletz and vicinity to call and see him. He sells general merchandise cheaper than anybody.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Thayer, Mrs. W. H. Thayer and two children, and Dr. S. S. Thayer enjoyed and outing at Otter Rock Tuesday and Wednesday.

Billy Ewing departed yesterday morning for Fort Canby, Wash., where he has secured a position in the life-saving service. His friends wish him a successful career.

Attorney B. F. Jones has been absent on business at Portland and other points this week. He also planned to visit Sumpter, provided the smallpox didn't have possession of the place.

D. P. Blue of West Yaquina and County Clerk Lutz boarded the train Wednesday morning for the purpose of taking care of the delegates to the democratic and populist state conventions.

W. H. Smith representing H. E. Bucklen & Co., Chicago, Ill., was in Toledo Tuesday night. As a result advertisements of the well-known Bucklen's and King's remedies appear in this issue.

Mrs. T. P. Fish announces that she has returned from Portland with a well-selected stock of dry goods and dress goods, which she invites the ladies to inspect; also a line of spring and summer hats, which will be closed out at a bargain.

Rev. E. H. Bryant, piloted by Mrs. Bert R. Betz and Miss E. N. Dyer, came over from Siletz yesterday on business. They returned in the afternoon, accompanied by Mrs. Bryant and Miss Katie McMann. The later returned Wednesday evening from a visit at Chemawa.

Easter service will be held in St. John church next Sunday evening. The Easter celebration of the Holy Communion will be held in the church at 10 o'clock on Monday morning. Special prizes will be given to the two members of the Sunday school having the most money in their Lent boxes at the Sunday evening service.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to express our gratitude to all our kind friends and neighbors for their assistance during the sickness and at the burial of our beloved husband and father.

MRS. O. C. COFFIN,
ONA COFFIN.

House-renovating time is here. Wallpaper and paint are great beautifiers and I am prepared to sell you these from a fresh stock.

O. O. KROGSTAD.

George A. Landreth, the barber has been out in the valley on business since Tuesday.

Fishing poles, hooks and lines—anything you want in this line at G. R. Schenck & Co's.

The largest assortment of flannels, calicoes and domestics you can see at Lugger & Pruett's.

Hon. C. B. Crosno attended the several state conventions at Portland this week—in the role of spectator.

Jimmie Derby was over from Mill 4 slough Tuesday. He reports that the frost Sunday night did no damage to the fruit on their ranch.

Lugger & Pruett have received a large shipment of hats and caps—something very neat in men's wear. Come and see them and get prices.

Rev. Dawson was up from Newport yesterday and held a service at the Episcopal church, it being necessary for him to be at home today (Good Friday.)

Schenck & Co. are expert millinery artists and designers, and with their large stock of new goods and modest prices cannot fail to please. The ladies are cordially invited to call.

There is on exhibition at THE LEADER office a sample of a goat's fleece exactly a foot in length and as fine and silky as ever grew on a goat. County Treasurer Hyde, from whom we obtained it, said it was clipped from one of "Widder Hyde's" goats. It is certainly an eloquent argument in favor of Lincoln county, Oregon.

Peter Tellefson and family of Yaquina passed through Wednesday morning en route to Auburn, Wash., their new home. Mr. and Mrs. Tellefson have many friends in this county who regret their departure. Mr. Tellefson has been a staunch friend of the printers, and they can heartily join the community in wishing him a happy and prosperous future.

THAT THROBBING HEADACHE.

Would quickly leave you, if you used Dr. King's New Life Pills. Thousands of sufferers have proved their matchless merit for Sick and Nervous Headaches. They make pure blood and build up your health. Only 25c. Money back if not cured. Sold by O. O. Krogstad, druggist.
