

Lincoln County Leader.

Volume VIII.

Toledo, Lincoln County, Oregon, Friday, May 25, 1900.

Number 12.

LOCAL IN BRIEF.

George A. Houck, the well-known goat breeder and dealer, is in Lincoln county this week talking goats. As well be seen by a notice in another column, Mr. Houck will have an auction sale of goats at his ranch near Monroe on June 12. Our ranchers who want a start in this valuable industry might club together and send one of their number out there to make the purchases. By so doing the cost of getting the animals into Lincoln county would be but very little per head. Lincoln county needs goats—250,000, Mr. Houck says—and here is a chance to secure a few.

The Ladies Aid society met with Mrs. C. F. Soule Tuesday afternoon and elected the following officers for the ensuing six months: Mrs. C. F. Soule, president; Mrs. G. R. Schenck, vice president; Mrs. G. A. Landreth, secretary; Mrs. J. McNeil, treasurer. Adjourned to meet with Mrs. F. M. Wadsworth, Tuesday, June 5. Earnest request is made to all members to be there, as the society wishes to order material for the fair. Boats will be at the landing promptly at 1:30 p. m. to convey all members across the bay.

Mrs. Mary King, mother of Mrs. C. B. Crosno, accompanied by her son, C. B. King, and the latter's wife, all of Spokane, Wash., arrived last Saturday evening on a visit. They are now enjoying an outing at Otter Rock, in company with Mr. Crosno and family, Mr. and Mrs. Stone Wells and Fred Stanton.

Mrs. C. E. Hawkins returned Tuesday evening from Leadville, Colo., where she has been attending a meeting of the board of managers of the Women of Woodcraft. She was accompanied by her daughters, who visited at Pendleton during her absence.

Mrs. Moses Gregson is eagerly looking forward to the arrival of her sister, Mrs. Eva Shakespeare, from Liverpool, England, who will probably make her future home with her. The sisters have been separated for forty years.

J. H. Penn of Yaquina went through Monday morning on his way to Astoria to attend the session of the grand encampment I. O. O. F. He goes as a delegate from Lincoln encampment No. 37.

Visiting comrades, sons and daughters of veterans, the Toledo schools and civic societies are invited to join in the march to the hall. The Lincoln Post and the Relief Corps are requested to meet in front of T. P. Fish's on Memorial Sunday at 10:30 a. m. and proceed to the M. E. church to attend the services to be conducted by Rev. C. M. Brown.

COMMITTEE.

GRAND REPUBLICAN RALLY.

Friday, June 1, 1900, at 8 p. m., at Toledo, in the courthouse. Free excursion boat from Newport and way points. There will be a splendid musical program arranged, and the latest campaign songs will be sung. Speakers of state reputation will be here to address the people on the political issues of the day. Come one, come all, and have a glorious evening. Ladies especially invited to come out.

COMMITTEE.

Alder Lodge, the pretty home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Penn of Yaquina, was the scene of a very enjoyable social event last Saturday evening in honor of the birthdays of the hostess and Mrs. G. R. Schenck of Toledo. The rooms were beautifully decorated with flowers, ferns and the always appropriate and lovely national colors. Vocal and instrumental music and jolly conversation caused the time to pass rapidly—as it always does at the Penn home—and there was the customary accompaniment of refreshments, prepared by the hostess herself, who has no superior in the culinary art. Mrs. Penn was the recipient of a handsome four-piece silver tea set, each guest being represented in the gift. She also received other beautiful reminders of the occasion, one being from her daughter Miss Clair, now visiting at Chicago. It is proper to remark here that there was not, apparently, a younger person than the hostess present, although the occasion marked her three-score years. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. William Toner, Masters Alfred and Claude Toner, Mr. and Mrs. J. Blaser, Miss Jennie Blaser, Mr. Fred Walch, Miss Hazel Walch, all of Yaquina; Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Schenck, Miss Daisy Pattison, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Soule, of Toledo. Others had been honored with invitations to the pleasant event, but the arrival ahead of time of the evening train and other obstacles upset their calculations. It was at a late hour when the Yaquina guests dispersed to their homes, leaving behind the usual shower of congratulations and good wishes. The Toledo guests enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Penn until Monday morning.

Ladies, don't forget that your last summer's hat can be made to look like new by having it re-trimmed at Mrs. G. E. Baumann's.

Mrs. T. P. Fish has a new stock of dress goods. Call and examine.

Will Ford and family moved down to Newport the fore part of the week.

Agent Buford and L. D. Wood were over from Siletz Monday on business.

Ladies, have you seen the beautiful new sashed sailors at Mrs. G. E. Baumann's?

County Commissioner Wakefield of Waldport was a county seat visitor Wednesday.

George A. Landreth is agent for the famous Edison phonograph. Prices from $7.50 up.

Ed Norton of Yaquina, union candidate for assessor, mingled with Toledo friends Tuesday.

Daniel Grady lost a valuable cow Tuesday evening, presumably from eating some poisonous plant.

Don't forget to look over our beautiful line of men's and boys' hats and caps. Y. B. M. Co.

Mrs. M. M. Davis and son Bush passed through from Yaquina to their Corvallis home Monday.

Ladies, we have a new lot of trimmed hats. Get one for Decoration day. G. R. Schenck & Co.

The farm home isn't complete without the Pacific Homestead. If you want a good offer, let us know.

Ladies, buy Defiance baking powder—absolutely pure—and get a handsome prize with each can, at Blaser's.

Another lot of new goods in plaids; also prints and gingham for ladies' shirt-waists, at Lugger & Pruett's.

Our grocery and crockery department is extensive, always fully assorted. Call and get our prices. Y. B. M. Co.

Renew your old sailor by having it cleaned and one of those elegant sashes put on. All colors at Mrs. G. E. Baumann's.

William Buoy, local agent of the C. & E., ranchman, harem, etc., has added a pair of kids to his stock of quadrupeds and expects to raise a large crop of kid gloves.

A large number of Toledo people were in Newport last Friday hunting water agates and listening to the political speeches. Some of them reached Newport under difficulties, but report a good time.

"It is with a good deal of pleasure and satisfaction that I recommend Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Druggist A. W. Sawtelle, of Hartford, Conn. "A lady customer, seeing the remedy exposed for sale on my show case, said to me: 'I really believe that medicine saved my life the past summer while at the shore,' and she became so enthusiastic over its merits that I at once made up my mind to recommend it in the future. Recently a gentleman came into my store so overcome with colic pains that he sank at once to the floor. I gave him a dose of this remedy which helped him. I repeated the dose and in fifteen minutes he left my store smilingly informing me that he felt as well as ever." Sold by O. O. Krogstad, druggist.
