Some day you may die a violent or unnatural death, and you'll need a coroner who is well qualified to sit upon you. Vote for Dr. F. M. Carter.

One of the most competent, deserving and popular men on the republican ticket is District Attorney George M. Brown. He will be re-elected without an effort, having made friends all over the district and thoroughly proven his fitness for the important position.

G. E. Davis, candidate for county clerk, is adding rapidly to his list of friends, and it will cause no great surprise if he is elected by a good margin. There isn't a more competent or deserving candidate in the county.

The Oregonian is ferninst the equal suffrage movement and declares that the amendment will not receive more than 15,000 votes. Editor Scott is not only cold-blooded and ungallant, but there are good reasons for believing he is receiving his cue from some crusty old bachelor. THE LEADER believes it is time to give the girls a chance, and hopes that its readers who enjoy the privilege of expressing their sentiments at the polls will, regardless of party affiliations, vote "Yes" on the equal suffrage amendment. Give the girls a chance. They're as good as you are—in fact, some of them are better.

Once upon a Time there was a Candidate who went from Place to Place in the County, and when he Discovered that some other Candidate for some other Office and of some other Political Faith had many Friends in a Neighborhood, he would say: "Behold, I am With him; we are working Together; he's for Me." But the Voters Investigated. And behold, It was Learned that the Candidate had Ananiased. And the Voters lifted up their Voices and said: "His name shall be Mud!"

On another page THE LEADER reproduces an editorial from the San Francisco Wave which should touch a responsive chord in the heart of every inhabitant of the Pacific coast. Irving M. Scott, the famous builder of the peerless battleship Oregon and Dewey's flagship Olympia, would, as the running mate of William McKinley, be a mos. popular candidate. The Pacific coast deserves this recognition, and the magic names "Oregon" and "Olympia" would cause the people of Oregon and Washington to rise as a unit and whoop it up for McKinley and Scott. We heartily second the motion of the San Francisco Wave.

The attention of our readers is directed to the announcement on another page of Josiah Gideon as a candidate for school superintendent; also to the fact that his name will appear upon the ballots as an "Independent REPUBLICAN." This is certainly a unique method of placing the office "out of the reach of politics." If Mr. Gideon does not wish politics to figure in his candidacy, it is not necessary for him to inform the voters that he is a republican. Excuse us for smiling.

A Cross Clerk

Is a rarity. For the most part the young woman behind the counter is smiling and obliging, though her back hurts, her side pains, or her head throbs distractingly. The wonder is, not that a clerk is sometimes irritable, but that she so rarely shows irritation, when every nerve is quivering and she hardly knows how to hold her head up.

The nervous condition, headache and weakness, which are the results of irregularity or a diseased condition of the womanly organs, can be entirely cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It regulates the functions, stops enfeebling drains, strengthens the nervous system and promotes the general health of the entire body. Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free of charge. All correspondence private. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

"Having used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery' during the past year," writes Mrs. Mattie Long, of Ploats Valley, Perry Co., Pa., "I can truthfully recommend the medicines for all female weakness. I have used several bottles of 'Favorite Prescription,' which I consider a great blessing for weak women. I was so nervous and discouraged that I hardly knew what to do. Your kind advice for home-treatment helped me wonderfully. Thanks to Dr. Pierce."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure dizziness and sick headache.
