ELK CITY ITEMS.

Miss Clara Crawford arrived from the valley the last of the week.

Dr. Carter's family has come in from Philomath to spend the summer.

Cascara bark is coming in. Mays is paying $2.50 per 100 pounds for it.

Fred Wittenstrom is running the quarry for Geo. W. Davis at Morrison.

Last heard from M. W. Simpson and Arthur Rochester they were hunting bee trees.

Geo. W. Banfroft went to Portland this morning. He left the quarry under the management of J. C. Dixon.

A. Rae returned from Portland the first of the week, where he has been attending the Advent camp-meeting.

The posters for the candidates, dance at this place on May 28 resulted in another one of those joyous times that make the people who failed to attend feel that they missed a treat. We were informed on the morning of the 28th that a special train would be run from Yaquina to Elk City to bring the dancers and candidates, but later we thought, from what we could hear, that it was a mistake. But in the evening, while the people and candidates were gathering in from the neighboring hills and valleys, news came over the wire that the people of Toledo had taken an interest in the affair, and informed us they were coming. We knew without asking further questions what that would bring, and commenced to prepare for a Toledo turnout and arrange to make them welcome.

Rufe said it was no use to try to catch trout to feed them, so commenced to give thanks and prepare to break bread. We soon heard the whistle of the coming train. It soon made its appearance and above its noise arose sounds that made us know Toledo had arrived. Candidate McDonald said his bees had swarmed, and started after the smoker. Dr. Carter said "Why! Why!" A. B. Clark commenced to prepare an oration. Joe Gideon asked Elmo Davis if he supposed they would believe the pig story that Troy Mays was telling on him, Candidate Ross, with his hair parted in the middle, landed at the station with six partners, followed by Landis, Lutz and Wadsworth. We soon found dancing room was too small in the hall, and Dr. Carter offered his store building. Rosebrook's band was soon in position there, and dancers were informed that numbers were good in either hall. Two dances at the same time and town, and no opposition. From midnight till 3:30 a. m. R. F. Simpson and his army of cooks were trying to make the doubtful crowd believe he could feed them all before daylight. Remarks like "We will never get anything to eat," etc., could be heard from hungry-looking people, but after over one hundred and sixty had been fed the last one came out with a smile and remarked: "There's plenty left yet." We can't say how many votes were traded, won or lost, but Troy Mays came very near making Joe Gideon believe he stole the pig. K. C. May 31, 1900.

A GOOD COUGH MEDICINE.

It speaks well for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy when druggists use it in their own families in preference to any other. "I have sold Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for the past five years with complete satisfaction to myself and customers," says Druggist J. Goldsmith, Van Eiten, N. Y. "I have always used it in my own family both for ordinary coughs and colds and for the cough following la grippe, and find it very efficacious." For sale by O. O. Krogstad, druggist.

A SPRAINED ANKLE QUICKLY CURED.

"At one time I suffered from a severe sprain of the ankle," says Geo. E. Cary, editor of the Guide, Washington, Va. "After using several well recommended medicines without success, I tried Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and am pleased to say that relief came as soon as I began its use and a complete cure speedily followed." Sold by O. O. Krogstad, druggist.
