R. A. Miller and family departed Tuesday morning for Portlad, where they will make their home—for a few months, at least. It is hoped the change may prove beneficial to Mrs. Miller's health.

A fire broke out in the roof of the boarding hall at Siletz Wednesday, but was extinguished before much damage had been done. THE LEADER is informed that Dr. Daniel's patent fire extinguisher worked beautifully.

If troubled with rheumatism, give Chamberlain's Pain-Balm a trial. It will not cost you a cent if it does no good. One application will relieve the pain. It also cures sprains and bruises in one-third the time required by any other treatment. Cuts, burns, frostbites, quinsy, pains in the side and chest, glandular and other swellings are quickly cured by applying it. Every bottle warranted. Price, 25 and 50 cts. O. O. Krogstad, druggist. 6m

A SPRAINED ANKLE QUICKLY CURED.

"At one time I suffered from a severe sprain of the ankle," says Geo. E. Cary, editor of the Guide, Washington, Va. "After using several well recommended medicines without success, I tried Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and am pleased to say that relief came as soon as I began its use and a complete cure speedily followed." Sold by O. O. Krogstad, druggist.

As I expect to leave Toledo in July, I invite the ladies to call. I guarantee satisfaction both in price and work.

MRS. BRUMFIELD, Dressmaker.

A GOOD COUGH MEDICINE.

It speaks well for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy when druggists use it in their own families in preference to any other. "I have sold Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for the past five years with complete satisfaction to myself and customers," says Druggist J. Goldsmith, Van Etten, N. Y. "I have always used it in my own family both for ordinary coughs and colds and for the cough following la grippe, and find it very efficacious." For sale by O. O. Krogstad, druggist.
