Siletz will Celebrate!

Editor LEADER: Will you allow us space in your paper? We are going to celebrate the Fourth of July this year in grand style. We are going to have a better time than anybody. There will be all kinds of fun, both in the white man's way and in the Indian's. We invite all who have never seen the Indians celebrate the birthday of our country to come and see us and have a good time. Program will appear next week.

COMMITTEE.

A SPRAINED ANKLE QUICKLY CURED.
"At one time I suffered from a severe sprain of the ankle," says Geo. E. Cary, editor of the Guide, Washington, Va. "After using several well recommended medicines without success, I tried Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and am pleased to say that relief came as soon as I began its use and a complete cure speedily followed." Sold by O. O. Krogstad, druggist.

As I expect to leave Toledo in July, I invite the ladies to call. I guarantee satisfaction both in price and work.

MRS. BRUMFIELD, Dressmaker.

JOHNSON ITEMS.
We now have school in district No. 50. Miss Myrtle Parmelee commenced a 5-months school June 4. Everything is progressing nicely.

The census-taker was in our part of the country last week and camped with us one night.

The weather is fine and the trout-fishing good.

Our citizens are trying to form a co-operative company to open a toll-road from Siletz bay to Grand Round. We hope it will be a success.

Man in a canoe—"Where does Parmelee live?" Answer from mud flats—"Up Drift river, beyond the first drift logs!" MAUD.

Service at Chitwood.
G. P. Rich of the Church of Christ will preach at the Chitwood schoolhouse Saturday evening, July 7; also Sunday at 11 a. m. and Sunday evening. All are cordially invited to attend.

General Mansfield, in charge of the United States engineer corps and government works on the coast, arrived in Albany this morning from San Francisco, and was joined at noon by Colonel W. W. Harts, in charge of the state work, from Portland. The two left on the noon train for the Bay, where they are to be met by the Gen. Wright. They will go down the coast a ways and then return on the Gen. Wright for the Columbia and Portland, inspecting the works of the government along the coast. Gen. Mansfield had charge of the immense work at Galveston which gave him prominence and is a genius in his line of work. Speaking of the Yaquina improvement he said it was the lack of a showing of the commerce of the Bay and not the Bay itself which caused a failure to secure an appropriation for the Bay.—Albany Democrat, June 11.

Elsewhere in this issue will be found the advertisement of the Bankers Union of the World of Omaha, Neb., who desire the services of some good man or woman to organize lodges for them in this county. This society has had the most phenomenal growth of any society in the west, and enjoys a splendid record. Its reserve plan is of the very best, and policies are issued covering death, disability, old age, sickness and accidents. It will pay our readers to investigate this opportunity.

M. W. Simpson arrived in this city Sunday from Southern Oregon and the northern part of California. He went over to his home at Elk City Monday. Marsh has secured an "extension" on a quartz proposition across the state line not far from Ashland. At present he will remain home, and it is a safe guess that he will do considerable fishing this summer, as he is the Isaac Walton of his section.—Corvallis Gazette.
