HE CAN'T HELP IT.

Editor of THE LEADER: I see that old Granny Scott, the ex-sheep herder of Yamhill and editor-in-chief of the Oregonian, is trying to raise a scare over the nomination of Mr. Roosevelt for vice president. He also seems to think Senator McBride a very small man. How about Corbett—I mean his Henry? Comment is unnecessary. Do you suppose he wants hush money?

A READER.

[Our correspondent seems to forget that there are moments when Scott is not a republican—nor anything else, politically speaking. The platform could not be constructed that would suit his peculiar and variable ideas, and no candidate is an all-around success unless he has been discovered and brought to the front by the cynical and sour-tempered editor of the Oregonian. What our correspondent refers to is simply Scott's natural gait. He would die if compelled to be genial, cheerful and courteous during forty-eight long, dreary hours, and no one really wants him to die, for he gives us that variety which is popularly supposed to be the spice of life—and there is only one of him.]

It's Time Wasted

And strength wasted, to try to push back the rising tide with a broom. It's just as great a waste of time and a far more serious waste of strength to try to push back the rising tide of disease with the "nervines," "compounds" and "nerve foods" which simply drug the nerves into a drunken stupor. They make you feel good? So does whisky, while the feeling lasts, but the reaction is dangerous and deadly. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is a temperance medicine. It contains no alcohol, opium, cocaine or other narcotic. It strengthens the body by purifying the blood and increasing the supply of that vital fluid. It heals diseases of the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition and thus removes the obstacles to a perfect nourishment of the whole body.

"Six years ago my stomach and heart troubled me so much I had to do something, as the doctors could not help me," writes Mrs. S. A. Knapp, of San Jose, California, Box 392. "I went to San Francisco and had treatment for catarrh of the stomach and was better for some time, then it came back. I then used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Pleasant Pellets.' These medicines cured my stomach. I do not have the pain and indigestion as I did. It is very hard for me to tell you what I suffered before I commenced taking your valuable medicine. I recommend it to all the sufferers whom I meet." Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets strengthen and stimulate the liver.
