

Lincoln County Leader.

Volume VIII.

Toledo, Lincoln County, Oregon, Friday, July 6, 1900.

Number 18.

WE CELEBRATED.

The glorious Fourth was ushered in at Toledo Wednesday morning by the booming of artillery manipulated by Gunners Sam Owen and Clarence Altree of Light Battery Q. Every state and territory received a salute; also Porto Rico, Hawaii, Guam and the Philippines, with a few thrown in for future acquisitions—possibly Canada, Mexico and Cuba—and then it began to rain. Plenty of artillery music will produce rain every clatter—in Oregon. The plan has been known to fail in Nebraska and Kansas. So have the crops. But we're wandering from home—approaching again the celebrated nightmare country.

But it did rain—not vigorously, but just enough to keep several hundred persons away from Toledo and disarrange the plans for the forenoon program. Open air exercises were out of the question, and the band showed the way to the courthouse and the crowd soon filled the circuit court-room to its capacity. The program was somewhat marred by the hurried change of plans, but it was a good time while it lasted. The entrance of a company of little girls representing the states and displaying the national colors was the signal for the band, and "Hail, Columbia," burst forth with its old-time force and effect. The band was in evidence frequently. When the little breaks in the program were encountered, the band boys came to the rescue. An earnest invocation by Rev. C. M. Brown was followed by the reading of the Declaration of Independence by Hon. R. A. Bensell. Mr. Bensell is an artist at that difficult but essential task, and is always in demand. The oration by Hon. E. H. Belknap is declared by old residents to have been the best ever heard in Toledo. It was a real Fourth of July oration—laden with facts and ringing with patriotism. The audience "warmed" to the speaker readily, and the latch-string of Lincoln county will always be visible and in working order when the eloquent farmer of Benton county arrives. Mr. Belknap is also a singer and led the national anthem, "America."

In the afternoon the weather was more agreeable, and the athletic contests occurred according to program.

The 100-yard foot race was won by Willie Simpson of Elk City. Joe Turnidge gave him a hard chase for 75 yards, but couldn't go the distance.

The 300-yard mule race was landed by Tom Williams—or rather by his mule, with Tom up.

Edith Mickelson captured the foot race for girls under 16. Edith isn't very big, but she can run like a Dakota prairie fire.

The sack race was also captured by Willie Simpson. Stony Wells looked like a winner, but jumped out of his sack and went through en dishabille—that's French for "not in it," you know.

The standing high jump was won by Paris Parks after a spirited contest. No measurements were taken, but it couldn't have been over eleven feet.

The running broad jump was one of the warmest events of the day, and was finally landed by Joe Turnidge. The track was heavy and no records were broken.

The slow horse race was won by Sailor Bob's horse, with Jay Van Cleve up. Jay's horse, ridden by Sailor Bob, didn't understand the thing and rushed through as if expecting a feed of oats at the finish.

There were three entries in the double scull race, consisting of Joe Shermer and George Lewis, Frank Fogarty and Jesse Reeder, Billy Ford and Clarence Altree. Shermer and Lewis won rather easily. Fogarty and Reeder hung on manfully, but were handicapped by an inferior boat. Ford and Altree quit before the turning stake was reached. Clarence belongs to the band and was blown out before the start.

George Lewis was also a winner of the single scull, but the previous pull had weakened him, and Fred Bichsel gave him a hard chase.

The tug-of-war between a team composed of Newport and Yaquina giants on one side and Toledo on the other was won by the former. It was an exciting struggle.

The greased-pig chase was a rather tame affair. The spectators crowded in and didn't give the pig a little bit of a chance, and the narrow street and Joe Turnidge did the rest. S'noutrage!

A better natured and better-behaved crowd never graced a Fourth of July celebration. Only two or three were drunk enough to be conspicuous, and they were very happy and inoffensive. One of the number was an underdone youth who probably had merely dreamed he'd been imbibing. It is almost safe to say Toledo beat the nation on that day for good order and sobriety.

The day closed with fireworks in various places and a dance at Thiel hall.

The larger number of visitors came from up the river, owing to the threatening weather on the lower bay. The Richardson brought up only a few passengers. The launch Too Few, Captain Lentlen, also brought too few from below, and the morning train did likewise. The Ruth brought about forty from Elk City.

The celebration was a success, considering the weather, and all present seemed thankful that it was no worse and generously overlooked the little flaws.

The next big event will be the county fair. Save up your big beets and things.

Among the entire list I have never found anything to equal Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for all stomach and bowel troubles," says O. W. Wakefield, of Columbus, Ga. "This remedy cured two severe cases of cholera morbus in my family and I have recommended and sold hundreds of bottles of it to my customers to their entire satisfaction. WHITE MAN TURNED YELLOW.

Great consternation was felt by the friends of M. A. Hogarty of Lexington, Ky., when they saw he was turning yellow. His skin slowly changed color, also his eyes, and he suffered terribly. His malady was Yellow Jaundice. He was treated by the best doctors, but without benefit. Then he was advised to try Electric Bitters, the wonderful stomach and liver remedy, and he writes: "After taking two bottles I was wholly cured." A trial proves its matchless merit for all stomach, liver and kidney troubles. Only 50c. Sold by O. O. Krogstad, druggist.

NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that sealed bids for building a bridge across the Big Elk River at or near D. B. Ramsdell's place will be received up to 2 o'clock on Monday, the 9th day of July, 1900, the plans and specifications for which are now on file in the county clerk's office. The court retains the right to reject any or all bids.

During last May an infant child of our neighbor was suffering from cholera infantum. The doctors had given up all hopes of recovery. I took a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy to the house, telling them I felt sure it would do good if used according to directions. In two days time the child had fully recovered. The child is now vigorous and healthy. I have recommended this remedy frequently and have never known it to fail.—Mrs. Curtis Baker, Bookwalter, Ohio. FARMERS IN SESSION.

The Lincoln County Farmers Association met in Toledo last Friday. There was a good attendance and an interest manifested that augurs well for the future of the association.

The meeting was called to order by Vice President James McDonald.

The usual routine business occupied the early part of the session.

A committee of three, consisting of J. W. Parrish, Hans Olson and O. E. Rache reported the following as a part of the constitution:

"The object of this association shall be the discussion and promotion of farming, fruit culture and stock raising in all their phases, and for the mutual advancement, entertainment and protection of all classes directly interested in agriculture." Adopted.

It was decided to hold a county fair at Toledo this fall, and the following motion by Mr. Nash carried by a unanimous vote:

"That the executive committee be empowered to constitute a special fair committee, formed of one member from each of the four main districts of the county and three others, representative respectively of stock raising, fruit culture and general farm products, with power to constitute sub-committees for any purpose. That the fair committee shall set the date and make general arrangements for the details of the fair."

The following paid the constitutional membership fee of 25 cents: Wallis Nash, F. M. Wadsworth, E. J. Norton, J. H. Lutz, G. J. Crosby, Peter Schirmer, James Beach, J. C. Kaupisch and A. E. Stout.

A committee of three, consisting of Wallis Nash, H. Olson and P. Schirmer, was appointed to see members of the press and solicit their presence.

At the afternoon session the following officers were elected by acclamation: James McDonald, president; J. W. Parrish, vice president; F. M. Wadsworth, secretary-treasurer. Executive committee—John McClusky, Wallis Nash, E. J. Norton, H. Olson and Gust Forssell.

Interesting talks were made by Messrs. Nash, Norton, Olson, Kaupisch and Schirmer. Mr. Nash exhibited and submitted to test some cheese of his own manufacture. Owing to enforced absence THE LEADER can give only the expressed opinion of more fortunate citizens: Mr. Nash produces a high-grade article.

The following committee on program was appointed for the next meeting, due notice of which will be given in THE LEADER: F. M. Wadsworth, Gust Forssell, J. W. Parrish, E. J. Norton, Wallis Nash.

We are indebted for this brief account of the meeting to the notes of the efficient secretary-treasurer. It is needless to state that the press is heartily in sympathy with the Farmers' Association. Farmers are readers, and their interests are the printer's. This is true of every branch of business, and every citizen of the county should be an enthusiastic supporter of the fair proposition and all other work of the association. THE LEADER invites the association to make free use of its columns on any and all occasions.
