LOCAL IN BRIEF.

Get your groceries at Schenck & Co.'s

For flour at car load rates go to Conroy, Son & Co., Toledo, Or.

Agent Buford of Siletz was in Toledo Sunday.

Mrs. J. Blower and daughter Minnie of Mill 4 were Toledo visitors yesterday.

If you want bargains in harness, buggies or wagons, you may find them at G. R. Schenck & Co's.

H. N. Foster of Chitwood returned to his work at Yaquina yesterday from a visit with his family.

Ladies, buy Defiance baking powder—absolutely pure—and get a handsome prize with each can, at Blaser's.

A. S. Charles of Florence was in Toledo on business this week. He called and added his name to THE LEADER list.

H. E. Collins assumed the duties of justice of the peace Monday and may be found during the next thirty days at M. Hansen's old stand.

E. S. Fliteroft and family have removed to the beach, where they will conduct an eating-house during the remainder of the summer season.

Mrs. S. T. Jeffreys of Portland arrived last Saturday evening for a visit with her cousin, Mrs. T. P. Fish, accompanied by her daughter Blanche.

The Ladies Aid society will meet next Tuesday with Mrs. Vincent at the hotel. Don't forget the date, ladies. Come and bring your thimbles.

Our stock of clothing is complete in every respect. We have an immense assortment to select from, and our prices are always correct. Y. B. M. Co.

W. I. Christy of the C. & E. shops force at Yaquina passed out this morning for Mill City. He expects to be on duty for the company at that point about two weeks.

The newly elected county officials were sworn in Monday, and they are now fairly started upon two years of hard work and trouble. The offices are not worth the struggle for them. Who said "Sour grapes?"

W. Humphrey, an old resident of this country and an honored knight of the stick and rule, was in town the fore part of the week with one of Edison's famous concertographs. He gave a good entertainment and was liberally patronized.

Mrs. I. M. Starr went down to Yaquina Monday evening to relieve Agent Gaither, who had planned to be one of a party in an outing on the Siletz. The other members of the proposed expedition were Harry Walden, traveling freight and passenger agent of the C. & E., Fred Walch of Yaquina and Beal Gaither of Toledo. A message announcing the serious illness of Manager Stone of the C. & E. sent Mr. Walden back to Albany Tuesday morning, and the good time was F. Mrs. Starr returned Tuesday.

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.

Council Chamber, Toledo, Or., July 2, 1900.

Common council met in regular session. Roll-call showed the following members present: Mayor H. W. Vincent, Aldermen J. Ofstedahl, E. F. Gaar, Wm. Alexander, A. T. Peterson, C. C. Kubler; absent, Alderman Beal Gaither.

Minutes of last meeting read and approved.

The mayor called up the matter of an ordinance on nuisances within the city of Toledo, which had been laid over at a previous meeting, and inquired of the committee on ordinances as to what had been done in the premises. Said committee reported it had done nothing toward drafting such an ordinance. It was then moved by Councilman Peterson that said committee be given further time in which to act on and report said ordinance. Seconded by Councilman Alexander and unanimously carried.

The ways and means committee reported by Councilman Ofstedahl that nothing had been done by it worthy of report in regard to investigating the status of the "city hall lot" and moved for further time in which to make said investigation and report. Seconded by Councilman Gaar and unanimously carried.

The committees on claims, streets, ordinance, elections and fire and police had no reports.

The special committee, appointed at last meeting to interview the business men of the city of Toledo for the purpose of devising ways and means to establish a fire department, reported it had been unable to complete its labors, and Councilman Peterson moved for further time. Seconded by Councilman Kubler and unanimously carried.

The following claims were allowed under suspension of the rules, on motion of Councilman Ofstedahl, seconded by Councilman Alexander: C. H. Young, salary as city marshal for month of June, $7; same, cleaning city jail and time, $1.75; Fred Stanton, for work on streets and straw for two bed ticks, $2.35; B. F. Swope, fees as city recorder for month of June, $4.40.

Moved by Councilman Ofstedahl that the city marshal be authorized and empowered to hire two deputy marshals for the 4th day of July, 1900. Seconded by Councilman Kubler and unanimously carried.

Moved by Councilman Peterson that when the council adjourns it be to meet again July 11, 1900, for the purpose of completing all unfinished business. Seconded by Councilman Alexander and carried unanimously.

Moved by Councilman Peterson that in the matter of the grade of 6th street the same be referred to the committee on streets, to report at next meeting. Seconded by Councilman Kubler and carried unanimously.

On motion council adjourned.
B. F. SWOPE, City Recorder.
