WHITE MAN TURNED YELLOW.

Great consternation was felt by the friends of M. A. Hogarty of Lexington, Ky. when they saw he was turning yellow. His skin slowly changed color, also his eyes, and he suffered terribly. His malady was Yellow Jaundice. He was treated by the best doctors, but without benefit. Then he was advised to try Electric Bitters, the wonderful stomach and liver remedy, and he writes: "After taking two bottles I was wholly cured." A trial proves its matchless merit for all stomach, liver and kidney troubles. Only 50c. Sold by O. O. Krogstad, druggist.

Sheriff Ross left this morning for Portland in charge of Clara and Hannah Thomas of Drift creek, whom he will place in the children's home at that place by order of the court. This action was result of alleged improper relations between one Chelboski, stepfather of the girls, and the 14-year-old Clara, the mother making the complaint. It is reported, however, that said complaint was not made until Chelboski had hiked into the mountains, where he is supposed to be in hiding. The mother, it seems, was willing to part with the elder child, Clara, but became very hysterical when the train left Toledo with her offspring. If the mother has told the truth, Chelboski needs hanging and she herself needs something besides sympathy.
