REPUBLICAN TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT—
William McKinley

FOR VICE PRESIDENT—
Theodore Roosevelt

Hon. H. W. Corbett announces himself as a candidate for the United States senate. He is the defendant in a damage suit, charged with weaning a woman away from her hubby, or something of that kind, and thinks his election to a seat in the United States senate would prove his innocence. This is certainly in the nature of an innovation. A member of the great United States senate should be old enough to be tame. When Mr. Corbett has squared himself in court he will then have proven that he is not too young for the position to which he aspires. The legislature may then weigh his other qualifications with those of other aspirants. But the charge against him indicates that he is too young to hold down a seat in such a dignified body, and he should remove that obstacle before he can hope to see his little boomlet expand.

Last Sunday was such a nice day in Portland that it received a beautiful eulogy from a delighted and grateful paragrapher of the Oregonian. The question of the poet—"What is so rare as a day in June?"—has been answered. Evidently a day in July—that is, a pleasant day—in Portland. Now here on Yaquina bay the day in July that isn't delightful is very rare, and if we had a spasm of joy or something on account of each perfect day, the subject would be overworked. Everybody invited.

The Fortieth Annual State Fair, to be held at Salem September 17 to 22 inclusive is designed by the Oregon State Board of Agriculture to be "The greatest industrial exposition ever held on the Pacific coast." Ten thousand dollars will be given in premiums on live stock, agricultural, horticultural, dairying exhibits, etc. Those who are interested may obtain a premium list by addressing M. D. Wisdom, secretary, Portland, Oregon.

William Jennings Bryan was feeling unusually well the other day and declared to an interviewer that he does not believe the republicans will carry a single state in the coming presidential election. "The Nebraska Lily," as he was called at Kansas City, is either untruthful or silly. Unless he learns to keep his balance a little better he'll have hard work to carry Texas.

During last May an infant child of our neighbor was suffering from cholera infantum. The doctors had given up all hopes of recovery. I took a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy to the house, telling them I felt sure it would do good if used according to directions. In two days time the child had fully recovered. The child is now vigorous and healthy. I have recommended this remedy frequently and have never known it to fail.—Mrs. Curtis Baker, Bookwalter, Ohio. Sold by O. O. Krogstad, druggist.

The farm home isn't complete without the Pacific Homestead. If you want a good offer, let us know.

In The Summer

Of life a woman may find herself fading and failing. She doesn't understand it. She goes to doctors, who treat her for this or for that, but she gets no better. She grows frail and pale. She can just "drag about the house," but has no pleasure in life.

Many such women have taken advantage of Dr. Pierce's offer of free consultation by letter, and have been restored by Dr. Pierce's treatment to perfect health. There is no more wonderful medicine for women than Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Its action upon the womanly organs is at once apparent in the decrease of pain and the increase of strength. It cures female weakness and such diseases as take away the strength and beauty of women.

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter free. All correspondence private. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.
"Before I commenced to use your medicine I was in a bad condition (for eight years) and four doctors treated me," writes Mrs. Bettie Askew, of Garysburg, Northampton Co., N. C. "They, of course, gave me at the time some relief, but it did not last long. I was some days in my bed and some days I dragged about the house. I have used five bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and five of the 'Golden Medical Discovery' and four vials of the 'Pellets.' Now I feel like a new woman, and I want the world to know it."
The action of the "Favorite Prescription" is assisted by the use of "Pleasant Pellets" when the bowels are irregular.
