JOHNSON ITEMS.
Quite a number of campers are on the beach near Siletz bay.
Charles Reed and two sons have gone to the valley to work during the threshing season.

This is the land of scythes, and Jackey Johnson got cut pretty badly by one the other day.

Captain Smith, alias Wild Bill, and his companion, Paul Chatterton, accompanied by their dogs, were on the north side of Siletz bay last Thursday.

G. S. Parmele and daughter are going to Toledo, the former to file on a homestead, the latter to attend the teachers' institute.

The people here feel more as if they belonged to Lincoln county since the assessor has been around. Now for some good roads.

Archibald Thompson is home from McMinnville, without a puncture. He made the trip over that horrible Salmon river road, which we hear so much about.

A party of pleasure-seekers who came in from the valley a few days ago over that Salmon river road had one wagon wheel demolished and the tongue-bolt broken.

SNOWELAKE.

YAQUINA ITEMS.

R. J. Lane is out again, quite recovered from his illness.

Misses Lena and Mary Payne of Salem are the guests of Mrs. J. H. Penn.

Arthur Johnson is spending his vacation in Portland with his mother.

Harry Davis has quite recovered from his illness and is able to be out with the deer hunters.

The Rev. Mr. Dawson's service Sunday was well attended. The sermon was very instructive.

D. P. Blue and R. A. Stratford left Thursday morning for Aberdeen, Wash. May success attend them.

Mrs. Turner and daughter of Albany are spending a few days at Yaquina, the guest of Mrs. William Toner.

Mrs. C. E. Hout of Corvallis came in Saturday to spend several weeks at the west side with Mrs. Stevens.

Charles Gordon of Oakland, Cal., is in town shaking hands with old friends and looking after property interests.

The entertainment given at the church Saturday evening by Miss Ella Knight of New York was a very enjoyable affair. She is an elocutionist and impersonator of rare ability. Her voice showed careful training.

The picnic at Seal Rocks Sunday was well represented by the young people of Yaquina and they brought home as reminders some badly burned faces. Those attending were: Misses Mollie and Hazel Welch, Mabel Davis, Jessie Hume, Crosby, Messrs. Arthur Johnson, Steve Miller, Fred Welch and Bob Hume.

The Oregonian is talking a great deal about the cut-worms and what they are doing. We can all realize it by looking at our gardens. I would rather read of some way to get away with them. If we don't, there will not be any vegetables left, as they are not satisfied with the tops, but go into the ground after the roots.
