STORY OF A SLAVE.

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. George D.
Williams, of Manchester, Mich., says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work." This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. It is a godsend to weak, sickly, run-down people. Cure guaranteed. Only 50c.
Sold by O. O. Krogstad, druggist.

For boots and shoes, hats and caps at clearance prices go to Conroy, Son & Co.

Dr. F. M. Carter of Elk City was down the fore part of the week.
He represented THE LEADER at the Cissie Kelton performance, but failed to report.

Austin Rosebrook and son Leon went down to Newport last night to entertain the people with their violins. They are always in demand when real music is wanted.

Tom Jackson and Lesh Williamson of Siletz were in town Monday, accompanied by the former's cousin, Harry Reed of Grand Round. Tom has gone to Kern-ville to remain during the salmon season, and wants THE LEADER to follow him. Later—Tom came over again Wednesday to meet Mac Fearn, his "cousin-in-law," who arrived that evening from his home at Drain. He will be Tom's boat puller.

The case of Conroy, Son & Co.
vs. Larkey Logan came up before Justice Collins Tuesday. Owing to the absence of defendant's attorney, the proceedings were one-sided, resulting in a judgment for plaintiff. The case will probably be finished in circuit court

Z. S. Derrick was the victim of a serious accident in the vicinity of Nashville, Sunday. As he drove along, his team became frightened, and wagon and man rolled off of a precipitous grade. In the scramble down the mountain side the wagon with the man in it is said to have turned over no less than three times.
Derrick was severely bruised in many places and was supposed to have suffered internal injuries. He was picked up by the Sunday excursion train, and taken to the nearest station, where he received needed attention.—Corvallis Times.

Mrs. T. L. Olson died last Saturday night, after months of suffering from consumption, and was buried in the Toledo cemetery Monday. We were unable to obtain other particulars.
