REPUBLICAN TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT—

William McKinley

FOR VICE PRESIDENT—

Theodore Roosevelt

The farmers of Kansas are forming a trust. By organizing they hope to be able to hold their grain until a satisfactory price can be obtained. This is a sensible idea, and the soil-tillers of every state in the Union should line up with their brethren in bleeding Kansas. The returns from the scheme will be found much more substantial than those derived from sitting on a box in front of a store, whittling, chewing tobacco and damming the trusts. Farmers should "get together" in the true sense of the term. That kind of a trust would protect them against all others—would, in fact, make all other trusts look like mere side-shows.

The real "paramount issue" is neither "16 to 1" nor "imperialism," but Bryan himself. This places all the vagaries, fallacies, exploded theories, etc., in a pile and makes it possible for the voters to arm themselves with ballots at the November election and pour in an effective "pot shot." The opposing forces may properly be designated as "Bryan and "anti-Bryan." This arrangement removes a number of distinctions without a difference.

One Philip A. Marquam of McLalla, this state, took his pen in hand the other day, produced some fearful and wonderful "poetry" and had it inserted in the Oregon City Courier-Herald, with a request that "other papers please publish." We cannot comply with the poet's request until we learn what he is willing to pay for the space. It's worth several times regular rates, and we hope the Courier-Herald got it.

American whisky, made in Kentucky, of course, carried off first honors at the Paris exposition. Thus are the bonds of eternal peace being formed. If Germany will now place its seal of approval upon the beer which made Albany, Or., famous, that little trouble in 1898 will be forgotten.

Senator Hoar considers Bryan a more objectionable horn of the dilemma than the administration's policy in the Philippines, and will support the republican ticket. While this is a mild surprise, Mr. Hoar's opinion is shared by thousands of so-called "anti-imperialists."

Democratic predictions of dire disaster in event of republican success have always been proven false. For this reason the dear people can only smile a broad smile when Bryan declares we'll lose our dear old Fourth of July if he is defeated.

Senator Lee Mantle of Montana, who left the republican party in 1896 because it wouldn't embrace the 16-to-1 idea, has returned to his old love, frankly admitting that 16 to 1 is a busted theory and the country in a prosperous condition.

In the Kansas City convention some delegate, full of sentiment or something, dubbed Bryan "The Nebraska Lily." As he has been adopted by Tammany, it will be perfectly proper to refer to him as "The Tiger Lily."
