JOHNSON ITEMS.

A man was here looking for land, and on starting away he said: "My partner and I will be in here with a sawmill soon."

J. F. Stephens and family of six have moved in and taken up a claim. They had just two accidents while coming in over that Salmon river road. First mashed one hind wheel; second, an upset; no bones broken.

Hoyt and Edgar Parmele started to Sheridan the first of the week with a ton of fish. While going along the beach between Siletz and Salmon rivers a wave struck them and threw boys, fish and everything into the ocean. The horses struck the rocks and received some bruises.

The wagon was upset, the coupling-pole and brake broken and the box floated off. They gained the beach, caught the wagon box, floated it out and managed to recover 17 fish, while the rest floated just out of reach. Had the tide been coming in they would have got more, but they were afraid to venture farther.

Some girls who were on the beach for an outing saw the catastrophe, and after the danger was all past said they "could just sit down and cry"—but what's the use?
