The rains are bringing the salmon in and the catch is steadily increasing.

Mrs. Thomas Pavey was in town Tuesday, the guest of Miss Helen Pygall.

Joe Morris has just completed the finest system of waterworks in the city.

Miss Sadie Dixon left Thursday for Corvallis to resume her studies at the O. A. C.

The steamer Robarts was in Wednesday after a cargo of flour and feed for Florence.

Miss Mollie Gorman left Monday for Roseburg, where she will attend school this winter.

Mrs. Litchfield, accompanied by her daughter Gertrude, left Wednesday for their home at Salem.

Al Johnson of Portland arrived Tuesday with his friends and hunting outfit. They are here for a good time, and, weather permitting, will enjoy it.

Mrs. J. Booth, an old-time resident of Yaquina, spent Saturday and Sunday with her many friends on the bay and left Monday for Seattle to join her husband, who recently returned from Nome.

Married—At Oneatta, Tuesday, Sept. 18, Captain W. Mills and Mrs. Evelyn Goudie, Justice Allen Parker officiating. The serenade in the evening was composed of many strange sounds—songs accompanied by all kinds of instruments—musical and otherwise. The captain made some very fair promises for the future. After singing "Old Folks at Home," and wishing Mr. and Mrs. Mills all the happiness possible, the serenaders went their several ways home.

THE BRAVERY OF WOMAN

Was grandly shown by Mrs. John Dowling of Butler, Pa., in a three-years' struggle with a malignant stomach trouble that caused distressing attacks of nausea and indigestion. All remedies failed to relieve her until she tried Electric Bitters. After taking it two months, she wrote: "I am now wholly cured and can eat anything. It is truly a grand tonic for the whole system, as I gained in weight and feel much stronger since using it." It aids digestion, cures dyspepsia, improves appetite, gives new life. Only 50c. Guaranteed at Krogstad's drug store.

Get your children: suits and all sizes of men's and youth's suits at Lugger & Pruett's. Rock-bottom prices.

FALL CREEK ITEMS.

Fall Creek has come to life again.

Mr. Oglesby's folks are moving out to Alsea for the winter.

James Webber and family have gone to Independence to pick hops.

Wallace Lee has quit going up Fall creek. I guess the road has got too bad for him.

Oscar Tom came in from Corvallis. He says he had on 2100 pounds, which is proof that we have a good mountain road.

Mr. Monotti has quite a number of pickers at work on his prunes. These rains are discouraging to the prune and hop pickers.

Quite a lot of improvements are going on up at the Saybrook farm. How long it will last I don't know—till the leaves begin to fall, I guess.

Mrs. Brady and her sister, Mrs. Mand Ketchin, have returned to their home in southern Oregon. They have been visiting their aunt, Mrs. Trenholm, for the past month.

Charley Follet has arrived from Nevada and is stopping at Mr. Pickett's. He says there is too much rain here, but I think he will be all right when the moss begins to grow on his back.

I passed along the road by the Palisade farm a few days ago. No one was at home, and the chickens ran and flew like a hawk was after them. I think the owner needs care and attention.

The bachelors on Fall creek and Alsea are talking of going over to the Siletz after prune picking and chittin skinning is over—what for, I don't know. I wish them good luck, as I'm in the same boat.

The Pacific Homestead is the best farmers' paper published on the Pacific coast. If you are not already a subscriber call at this office and get our clubbing offer. Best thing yet.

CURED OF CHRONIC DIARRHOEA AFTER THIRTY YEARS.

"I suffered for thirty years with diarrhoea and thought I was past being cured," says John S. Hallway, of French Camp, Miss. "I had spent so much time and money and suffered so much that I had given up all hopes of recovery. I was so feeble from the effects of the diarrhoea that I could do no kind of labor, could not even travel, but by accident I was permitted to find a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and after taking several bottles I am entirely cured of that trouble. I am so pleased with the result that I am anxious that it be in reach of all who suffer as I have." For sale by O. O. Krogstad, druggist.

Another ton of men's and boys' clothing and furnishing goods just arrived. Call and look at our fall and winter stock. We defy all competition.

The candidate—He kissed the babe and rubbed the heads of Sam and Sue; he swore the twins were beautiful and wished that he had two—but that don't count. He asked about the corn bread which he vainly tried to chew, and forth with begged for the recipe, of course that tickled ma—but that don't count. But just before he left he stopped and winked, closed up his jaws, and slipping out behind the barn he took a drink with pa—and that's what counts.—Ex.
