YAQUINA ITEMS.

Quite a number of valley people are in town. They came to enjoy the trol-ling and are having all the fun they want with the sportive salmon.

Mrs. Arch Horning returned Friday from a month's visit at Corvallis.

Mr. Earl and family have taken rooms at the old Yaquina hotel. It is used only as a lodging house now.

Peter Schirmer treated the people of Yaquina to strawberries Saturday.

W. C. Hoefflein has moved his family from Albany and they will reside in Yaquina this winter.

Miss Luger, sister of our merchant, arrived Monday from Ohio, accompanied by her niece. They will spend the winter here.

J. S. Gaither had the misfortune to drop his watch into the bay, and now Davy Jones is supposed to have it in his locker.

The steamer Harrison came in Satur-day for freight.

Misses Pearl Markham and Susie Gentry are attending school at Toledo this winter.

A. H. Rowe and family left Thursday morning for Aberdeen, Wash. They lived here several years, and will be missed.

Several families have moved in lately, and house-hunting seems to be active.

Miss Mary Casteel came in Monday from Philomath and will spend the winter here with relatives.

THE BRAVERY OF WOMAN

Was grandly shown by Mrs. John Dowling of Butler, Pa., in a three-years' struggle with a malignant stomach trouble that caused distressing attacks of nausea and in-digestion. All remedies failed to relieve her until she tried Electric Bitters. After taking it two months, she wrote: "I am now wholly cured and can eat anything. It is truly a grand tonic for the whole system, as I gained in weight and feel much stronger since using it." It aids digestion, cures dys-pepsia, improves appetite, gives new life. Only 50c. Guaranteed at Krogstad's drug store.

Closing out our floor matting at cost. Now is your chance. Con-roy, Son & Co.

Just Suits Him.

Colonel Frank Parker, former editor of the Walla Walla States-man, passed through Corvallis on his way home from Elk City on the C. & E., where he has just added 640 acres of land to his fine ranch. Colonel Parker's tract now amounts to 1200 acres. The colonel admits that his own state is a fine place, and all that, but he says there is no such opportunity for acquiring farming land up in Washington that suits him like the Yaquina bay region. "On his reserves Na-ture has placed, he says, every-thing to provide a man with the necessities of life. There is game, trout, fruit, stock and chickens, and the colonel is looking forward to the time when he shall quit Walla Walla editorial life and settle down to a sensible existence.

The colonel had with him a bag of apples that were mostly three and four pounders. They were of enormous size and the editor-rancher confessed that he knew no name for the species. He says they grow as easily in the salt air of that coast country as prunes do in the Ump-qua valley. Colonel Parker has been sending complimentary boxes to his friends in all parts of the coun-try. This method of giving away his superb crop has proven popular and the colonel does not see why he should not make a good thing out of his fruit business.—Corvallis Gazette.

You assume no risk when you buy Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. O. O. Krogstad, druggist will refund your money if you are not satisfied after using it. CURED OF CHRONIC DIARRHOEA AFTER THIRTY YEARS.

"I suffered for thirty years with diarrhoea and thought I was past being cured," says John S. Hallo-way, of French Camp, Miss. "I had spent so much time and money and suffered so much that I had given up all hopes of recovery. I was so feeble from the effects of the diarrhoea that I could do no kind of labor, could not even travel, but by accident I was permitted to find a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and after taking several bottles I am entirely cured of that trouble. I am so pleased with the result that I am anxious that it be in reach of all who suffer as I have." For sale by O. O. Krogstad, druggist.

CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY A GREAT FAVORITE.

The soothing and healing prop-erties of this remedy, its pleasant taste and prompt and permanent cures have made it a great favorite with people everywhere. It is es-pecially prized by mothers of small children for colds, croup and whoop-ing cough, as it always affords quick relief, and as it contains no opium or other harmful drug, it may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by O. O. Krog-stad, druggist.

Lugger & Pruett have received a large assortment of men's kip and calf boots, as well as shoes for ladies and gents, in all grades and prices.
