YAQUINA ITEMS.

N. Leabo has moved across to the west side.

Joe Morris was at Albany this week enjoying a layoff.

Mrs. Frances Watkins is seriously ill at the Hotel Casteel.

Rev. Mr. Dawson will hold services Sunday, morning and evening.

The lighthouse tender Manzanita is in attending to government business.

Mrs. Christenson of Morris is spending a few days with Mrs. Thos. Blower.

We are informed that Mrs. George Hoefflein is has been very sick recently.

Miss Ida Stimpson of Newport was in town several days, the guest of Mrs. Ed Sullivan.

Dr. and Mrs. Casie of Salem were in town several days, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Penn.

Mrs. John Andrew returned Saturday to her home on Beaver creek, after a week's visit with Yaquina friends.

Miss Carrie Mulver, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Dick Casteel, returned Saturday to her home at Alsea.

W. I. Christy and family returned Tuesday evening from Mill City. They expressed their pleasure in getting back to the bay.

W. C. Hoefflein has purchased the Irwin cottage on Prospect Hill. He will have it thoroughly repaired and made into one of the prettiest homes in Yaquina.

JOB COULDN'T HAVE STOOD IT.

If he'd had Itching Piles. They are terribly annoying; but Bucklen's Arnica Salve will cure the worst case of Piles on earth. It has cured thousands. For Injuries, Pains or Bodily Eruptions it's the best salve in the world. Price 25c a box. Cure guaranteed. Sold by O. O. Krogstad, druggist.

FALL CREEK ITEMS.

The weather is fine.

D. W. Pickett and family have gone to Albany, to be absent a few days.

Mrs. Evans of Waldport has been up to Alsea visiting relatives and friends.

Floyd Carns started this morning for Toledo to file on his ranch. He may also go to Siletz before returning.

Henry Boysen is fixing up his new house. I wonder what he means by it? Guess he has got tired of batching.

Grant Licken of Portland has been down to the bay. He says there are plenty of fish, and the roads are fine.

I would advise the trappers of Fall creek to trap on the Alsea, especially for coons, as they seem to be emigrating.

Dick Ballard of Kings Valley was over on Fall creek a few days ago. He stopped over night at the Palisade and returned by way of Grass mountain.

J. J. Wilson of Alsea was seen coming down the valley looking for a cook. He had oats for his horse and a lunch basket tied on his saddle. I wish him luck.

[Will Tillikum please attach his real name to each favor like the above, not for publication, but because we wish to know the author of everything that appears in this department?—Ed.]

Another ton of men's and boys' clothing and furnishing goods just arrived. Call and look at our fall and winter stock. We defy all competition.

YAQ. BAY MERC. CO.

JOHNSON ITEMS.

G. S. Portland has gone to Portland on business.

Our school closed last Friday. The pupils appreciate the vacation.

Parnele brothers took 22 head of cattle to the valley to market.

No ship in yet with silverside nets. The fishermen are almost discouraged.

Plenty of ducks on the bay, and berries on the bushes by the wholesale.

Mrs. Parnele has returned home. She brought with her fruit enough to last all winter.

Ball brothers have changed their route and mode of taking out fish. They now go up the Siletz river in boats.

Parnele brothers have stopped hauling fish out over that awful road, and there is talk of others stopping.

Some one (it sounded like more than one from the music made) must have been having a jolly time the other night sitting in a boat on the mudflat waiting for the tide to set them afloat.

People are on the move here. Jim and Bob Tronson have moved to Toledo, J. F. Ball has moved to the canoe landing and Tom Jackson and Harry Reed have returned to Siletz. All went up the Siletz river in row boats.

SPECIAL OFFER IN MUSIC FOR READERS OF THIS PAPER.

We are in receipt of a copy of E. T. Paull's latest and greatest march, just from the press, entitled "Dawn of the Century March." The title page is a work of art, without doubt the handsomest ever seen on a piece of music, magnificently lithographed five colors. Mr. Paull is known all over the country by people who use music as being the author of the celebrated "Ben Hur Chariot Race March," which is a universal favorite. Other famous marches composed by him are "Charge of the Light Brigade," "America Forever," "A Warm' Up in Dixie," great characteristic piece, etc. This new march of Mr. Paull's "Dawn of the Century" is said by competent judges to be one of the best ever placed on the market. Mr. Paull is styled by the leading New York music journals, "The New March King." Every piano and organ player should have a copy of this piece. It has six full pages of music. In consideration of our mentioning this new march in our news columns, the publishers agree to furnish any of our readers with a complete copy of the piece for 25c in postage stamps or silver, provided this notice and this paper is mentioned, otherwise the regular price 50c will be charged. The publishers also agree to furnish free, to any reader of this paper for a 2c postage stamp, a catalogue of their publications containing thirty pages of music. This special offer can only be obtained by mentioning this paper, and writing direct to the publishers: E. T. Paull Music Co., 44 W 29th St. New York.
