Mrs. J. F. Stewart was a visitor at our home, Mrs. Center's and Mrs. Copeland's this week. The judge, in company with Charles McDonald and Robert Collins, went on to their homesteads.

At the home of Clerk Brown, Saturday evening, October 6, occurred one of a series of delightful social gatherings. It was intended to be a surprise, but the host welcomed the large number with the remark: "I didn't expect so many."
A good program was rendered.
Dr. Daniel sang in his rich voice "Dixie" and "My Old Kentucky Home." Instrumental music was furnished by Mrs. Bryant. Mrs.
Betz and Mrs. Bryant captured the company and encores were cheerfully responded to. Refreshments were served and games indulged in.

A THOUSAND TONGUES

Could not express the rapture of Annie E. Springer, of Philadelphia, when Dr. King's New Discovery cured her of a hacking cough that for many years had made life a burden. She says: "After all other remedies and doctors failed it soon removed the pain in my chest and I can now sleep soundly, something I can scarcely remember doing before. I feel like sounding its praises throughout the Universe." Dr.
King's New Discovery is guaranteed to cure all troubles of the Throat, Chest or lungs. Price 50c and $1. Trial bottles free at O. O.
Krogstad's drug store.

IT HAPPENED IN A DRUG STORE.

"One day last winter a lady came to my drug store and asked for a brand of cough medicine that I did not have in stock," says Mr. C. R.
Grandin, the popular druggist of Ontario, N. Y. "She was disappointed and wanted to know what cough preparation I could recommend. I said to her that I could freely recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and that she could take a bottle of the remedy and after giving it a fair trial if she did not find it worth the money to bring back the bottle and I would refund the price paid. In the course of a day or two the lady came back in company with a friend in need of a cough medicine and advised her to buy a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I consider that a very good recommendation for the remedy." It is for sale by O. O. Kro-gstad, druggist.
