YAQUINA ITEMS.

Particulars of weddings next week.

Mrs. Chester Dixon of Elk City is a guest at the Hotel Casteel.

Mrs. George Hoefflein, who has been seriously ill, is improving.

Charles Litchfield returned from his trip to the Siletz looking like a rancher.

Fred and George Chambers of Siletz were calling on friends Saturday.

The steamer Roberts came in and took three cars of flour and feed for Florence.

Lloyd Pruett went out to Salem Tuesday, where he will attend school this winter.

Mrs. D. Jenkins and Miss Helen Pygall were visiting friends at Oneatta Tuesday.

Miss Winnie Davis of Newport was in town Wednesday visiting her sister, Mrs. W. C. Hoefflein.

We are glad to learn of Mrs. J. H. Penn's improvement. She has been confined to the house for several weeks.

Peter Shermer of Pool slough treated the people to fresh strawberries this week which were ripe and sweet. He says he has plenty that are ripening.

When you cannot sleep for coughing, it is hardly necessary that any one should tell you that you need a few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to allay the irritation of the throat, and make sleep possible. It is good. Try it. For sale by O. O. Krogstad, druggist.

JOHNSON ITEMS.

The fair is over, and Mr. Morris is home again.

Mr. and Mrs. Resch returned home last week.

Mrs. Affolter started to the valley Wednesday.

Archie Stephens started to the valley Sunday on a pleasure trip.

J. F. Stephens moved on his claim a few days ago, intending to stay there all winter.

Hoyt Parmele has gone to the valley for his last load of provition (so he said) until 1901.

Clarence Parmele brought in a 25-gallon barrel churn. Some one must be tired of the old dash churn.

Ball brothers started with a boat load of fish Thursday. We have not heard whether they reached the canoe landing or not.

Mr. Parmele, after selling his cattle, bought the world, and a four-horse team will bring it in this week. I wonder if he will let the school have the use of it.

Wonder of wonders! The ship came in this morning. She had been stuck on the Nestucca bar, but didn't stick on the Siletz. The fishermen here have been idle, having no nets.

Nearly all the horses have been sick of late and people are doing what they can to keep them alive. Mr. Morris purchased a $140 horse the other day, and now he fears that it will die.

"For three days and nights I suffered agony untold from an attack of cholera morbus brought on by eating cucumbers," says M. E. Lowther, clerk of the district court, Centerville, Iowa. "I thought I should surely die, and tried a dozen different medicines but all to no purpose. I sent for a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and three doses relieved me entirely." This remedy is for sale by O. O. Krogstad, druggist.

Another ton of men's and boys' clothing and furnishing goods just arrived. Call and look at our fall and winter stock. We defy all competition.

SPECIAL OFFER IN MUSIC FOR READERS OF THIS PAPER.

We are in receipt of a copy of E. T. Paull's latest and greatest march, just from the press, entitled "Dawn of the Century March." The title page is a work of art, without doubt the handsomest ever seen on a piece of music, magnificently lithographed five colors. Mr. Paull is known all over the country by people who use music as being the author of the celebrated "Ben Hur Chariot Race March," which is a universal favorite. Other famous marches composed by him are "Charge of the Light Brigade," "America Forever," "A Warmin' Up in Dixie," great characteristic piece, etc. This new march of Mr. Paull's "Dawn of the Century" is said by competent judges to be one of the best ever placed on the market. Mr. Paull is styled by the leading New York music journals "The New March King." Every piano and organ player should have a copy of this piece. It has six full pages of music. In consideration of our mentioning this new march in our news columns, the publishers agree to furnish any of our readers with a complete copy of the piece for 25c in postage stamps or silver, provided this notice and this paper is mentioned, otherwise the regular price 50c will be charged. The publishers also agree to furnish free, to any reader of this paper for a 2c postage stamp, a catalogue of their publications containing thirty pages of music. This special offer can only be obtained by mentioning this paper, and writing direct to the publishers: E. T. Paull Music Co., 44 W 29th St. New York.
