

Lincoln County Leader.

Volume VIII.

Toledo, Lincoln County, Oregon, Friday, October 19, 1900.

Number 33.

LOCAL IN BRIEF.

The following Salemites arrived last Saturday evening and went into the big woods next day under the escort of Attorney B. F. Jones and others: James Allison, Lou Southwick, W. E. Kenney, D. C. Minto, S. A. Sanford, C. A. Corsau, C. T. Roberts, Misses Brown, Southwick, Halley, Robertson and Brandt, Mrs. Dyer and son. The party was also accompanied by Wild Bill Smith and his bear dogs. Over on Dewey creek the bear was found, but the excitement was soon over. The bear was badly out-classed by the four dogs and Wild Bill and was killed before the rest of the party could get in touch. The Salemites are reported to have the juicy bear steaks.

Mrs. O. C. Coffin and daughter Ona and Misses Edith Norton and Violet Fredrich of Yaquina were Toledo visitors Tuesday. Mrs. Coffin and Children went out to Drain yesterday, where they will make their home, during the winter, at least, with Mrs. Coffin's people. They have many friends in Lincoln county, who will welcome them back next summer.

William Marshall has sold his business property to Lester Waugh and expects to remove to California in the near future. Mr. Marshall has only good words for Toledo and vicinity, but has reason stronger than mere business for making the change.

Agent Buford came over from Siletz Sunday evening accompanied by Dr. E. S. Clark of Chemawa. Edward Collins, Millard Collius, Lena Charlie and Isabel Ferguson accompanied Dr. Clark to Chemawa, where they will attend school.

William Wakefield, the well-known society bud of Little Elk, arrived Wednesday evening with another shipment of big apples, fancy roosters and things. The Toledo market always seems to be ready for him.

George Schenck and Joe Turnidge went over into the Siletz country yesterday to build cabins for homesteaders, including themselves. They will be absent until their clothes and grub give out.

Attorney C. E. Hawkins accompanied Revenue Inspector Hobbs of McMinnville on a trout expedition to Elk City last Saturday. They returned on the evening train with a fine catch.

Fred Rice and family, who have been visiting Sheriff Ross and family, departed Wednesday morning for their home at Eger, this state.

U. S. Grant, Tom Jackson and Harry Reed of Siletz came over yesterday evening to attend the political meeting at the courthouse.

Get your children's suits and all sizes of men's and youth's suits at Luger & Pruett's. Rock-bottom prices.

Ex-Commissioner F. A. Godwin of Nashville was among the arrivals Wednesday evening.

For boots and shoes, hats and caps at clearance prices go to Conroy, Son & Co.

William Boone of Mill 4 was up on business Tuesday morning.

Get your new hat at Schenck & Co.'s. All the latest styles.

Get your lime, coal tar, etc., at Schenck & Co.'s.

J. H. Doty of Yaquina was a county seat visitor Tuesday.

The equinox has the rostrum today. It's a howling success.

Closing out our floor matting at cost. Now is your chance. Conroy, Son & Co.

W. B. Stevens & Co., Albany, are offering the people a snap in the McCall Magazine.

Miss Jennie Megginson of Cape Foulweather was a passenger for Albany Monday morning.

J. P. Hamar of Nashville, father of Mrs. Charles Altree, has been visiting in Toledo this week.

Fred Stanton, Lee, Dye and Ira Wade went back into the Siletz forest Tuesday to build more cabins.

Just received at Luger & Pruett's, a very large assortment of fall and winter clothing. Come and see us.

County Superintendent George Bethers and family went out to Philomath Tuesday for a visit with relatives and friends.

Dr. Daniel came over from the Agency Monday in care of Fred Chambers. The latter was looking as well as usual—perhaps better.

Luger & Pruett have received a large assortment of men's kip and calf boots, as well as shoes for ladies and gents, in all grades and prices.

Bob Collins has sold his residence property to Mrs. Conklin and moved into the house formerly occupied by his parents. The latter are located on the T. I. Olson place on Depoe.

Brother Van Clove of the Post missed the stick and cut one of his best fingers Sunday night while manufacturing shavings. Men who persist in doing woman's work are always getting into trouble.

The Ladies Aid society met with Mrs. G. R. Schenck Monday and Tuesday and accomplished a great deal, but owing to the amount of work on hand, the members are urged to meet at the same place tomorrow (Saturday) and also next Tuesday.

When you cannot sleep for coughing, it is hardly necessary that any one should tell you that you need a few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to allay the irritation of the throat, and make sleep possible. It is good. Try it. For sale by O. O. Krogstad, druggist.

Miss Daisy Pattison caught her first salmon Tuesday and thereby become entitled to recognition as a Webfoot. Fred Ingle of Philomath was an interested witness of the exciting incident, but, of course, was in no way responsible for the victory. The young lady considered the fish a whopper, but we noticed it wasn't long enough to reach to THE LEADER office.

Monday, Oct. 29,

Ade Crosno and Al Caton returned Tuesday from a protracted stay in the big woods. They have completed their contracts for building cabins for homesteaders.

The citizens of this Yaquina bay country are not alone in their opposition to fish traps. The people of Oregon adjacent to streams frequented by salmon are protesting vigorously against the nuisances, and the same reports come from Washington. It is almost safe to say that the legislatures of the two states will at their coming sessions declare against fish traps.

John Fogarty, Jr., passed through Monday evening en route to his home at South Beach. He has been absent about a year and spent the summer in Alaska in the Copper river country, which he pronounces a fraud—more or less. Being employed at a good salary, John was able to return with the O. K. signal in plain view, and hale hearty and handsome as a stack of gold twenties.

The Pacific Monthly for October presents what is probably the most attractive number of any monthly periodical ever issued in the Pacific Northwest. The cover design, which is new and unusually striking, is done in two colors of bronze, gold and green, and the entire contents are in keeping with this beautiful cover. The articles are all timely. There is one on "Oregon Writers," by Eva Emery Dye, of Oregon City, whose book on "McLaughlin and Old Oregon," has attracted attention throughout the country. The illustration of Harvey W. Scott, of the Oregonian is as nearly perfect as art can produce. The magazine is replete with short stories and descriptive articles, and its eleven departments make it unique among the magazines and a credit to the Pacific coast. Dr. W. S. Holt, in "The Outlook in China," sums up the situation in a masterly way. Altogether this number marks the greatest stride forward that the magazine has yet taken. It is an excellent number.

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.

Council Chambers, Toledo, Or.,
October 4, 1900.

The common council of the city of Toledo met in regular session. Present, Mayor Vincent, Aldermen Ofstedahl, Peterson, Kubler and Alexander; absent, Aldermen Gaar and Gaither.

Minutes of previous meeting read and approved. There were no reports from the committees on ways and means, claims, streets, ordinances, elections or fire and police.

On motion the rules were suspended and the following claims allowed: O. O. Krogstad, $6.50, for street-lamp supplies; C. H. Young, $17, marshal's salary for September and work on streets; B. F. Swope, $3.50, recorder's fees.

On motion of Alderman Kubler, W. H. Hufford's proposition for drawing a charter for the city of Toledo was accepted and the recorder ordered to so notify him.

On motion of Alderman Peterson, the committee on streets was instructed to see Clarence Altree in regard to filling in the crossing at the junction of Sixth and Hill streets.

On motion of Alderman Ofstedahl, the city marshal was instructed to employ teams to remove and haul the dirt from the sidewalk on the east side of Hill street at the junction of Third, and that he also get the sawdust necessary to fill in the crossing at the junction of Hill and Fourth streets.

B. F. SWOPE,
City Recorder.

Married.

SEIDLER-FERR—The marriage of Miss Hattie Ferr and Edward Seidler was solemnized Thursday evening October 11, 1900, at 8 o'clock, at the residence of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ferr, at Oysterville. The parlors were beautifully decorated with evergreens and flowers. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Isaac Dawson. A number of relatives and invited guests were present. After the nuptials, congratulations and good wishes, the guests were invited to the dining-room where a bounteous banquet was prepared. The groom was attended by Mr. Al Ferr, and the bride by Miss Nora Case. The steamer T. M. Richardson made a special trip up the river and brought the happy couple and their friends home to Newport sometime after midnight. Mr. and Mrs. Seidler are comfortably located in their neat cottage on third street. The News joins in the hearty congratulations.—Newport News.

Here too!

IT HAPPENED IN A DRUG STORE.

"One day last winter a lady came to my drug store and asked for a brand of cough medicine that I did not have in stock," says Mr. C. R. Grandin, the popular druggist of Ontario, N. Y. "She was disappointed and wanted to know what cough preparation I could recommend. I said to her that I could freely recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and that she could take a bottle of the remedy and after giving it a fair trial if she did not find it worth the money to bring back the bottle and I would refund the price paid. In the course of a day or two the lady came back in company with a friend in need of a cough medicine and advised her to buy a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I consider that a very good recommendation for the remedy." It is for sale by O. O. Krogstad, druggist.

For sprains, swellings and lameness there is nothing so good as Chamberlain's Pain Balm. Try it. For sale by O. O. Krogstad, druggist.
