YAQUINA ITEMS.

Plenty of fish in the bay, and all the fishermen are happy.

C. L. Litchfield is suffering with several of Job's comforters.

Vern Blue came over from Albany Saturday. He was homesick for Yaquina.

Lon Stout came in Saturday from Aberdeen, Wash., called home by the serious sickness of his mother.

Ernest Dixon of Vancouver, Wash., spent several days at the Hotel Casteel. It was a wedding trip.

Miss Gertrude Litchfield returned last Saturday from her visit at Salem.

Robert Niles and family of Baker City are spending a few days here, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sullivan.

The musicale at the Hotel Casteel Tuesday night was much appreciated.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Casteel have gone to Albany to spend the winter.

Miss Fay Norton's school in the upper district closed this week.

Miss Mary Doyle of Waldport is in the city and expects to spend the winter here.

Several of the ranchers from Beaver creek are stormbound this side the bay.

Another ton of men's and boys' clothing and furnishing goods just arrived. Call and look at our fall and winter stock. We defy all competition.

Yaq. Bay Merc. Co.

FALL CREEK ITEMS.

School started last Monday and Miss Anna Goodman is the teacher.

A. J. Oglesby has got his grindstone apples gathered for the winter. He says when he gets them used up he will be onto his job as well as any of the attorneys on the creek.

R. B. Trenholm says he is not going to wait till after election to build a shed on his barn.

M. D. Carns has a lame back and is laid up for repairs. He says he will be all right after election if Bryan is elected.

D. W. Pickett has just made a trip out to Alsea. He says the road is good.

A woman is wanted to do general housework. For further particulars inquire at the Palisade hotel.

J. W. Webber is making quite a lot of improvements at his new home.

When you cannot sleep for coughing, it is hardly necessary that any one should tell you that you need a few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to allay the irritation of the throat, and make sleep possible. It is good. Try it. For sale by O. O. Krogstad, druggist.

JOHNSON ITEMS.

The weather is quite stormy now. The people are driving their cattle off the tide-land.

Archie Stephens returned home Monday. He reports a pleasant trip.

Dave Burton of Tillamook was over visiting friends last week.

Mr. Read and family have returned home from hopping and visiting.

Agent Buford was down looking for Agency school children.

G. S. Parmele is home now. He brought with him five goats of the best kind.

Yes! the world reached here, although it took it just six days from the time it left Williamina.

Edgar Parmele now has a printer. Anyone wanting first-class printing call at Johnson P. O.

Unclaimed letters at the Johnson postoffice are addressed to Mrs. W. H. Henson and Mrs. F. L. Nicholas. G. S. Parmele, postmaster.

A. S. Thompson and family are home again. This time they brought with them an organ. By the way, I heard that Parmele's folks have sent for an organ.

The next day after Mr. Affolter returned with a load from the valley the best one of his 4-horse team died. He turned the others out and now one of them is missing. He fears it is dead. That's what the Sahnun river road does.

J. F. Ball and W. E. Ball and family came down the Siletz river the first of the week, the first to settle up his business and the latter to some work on their claim, for they intend to live near the Siletz Agency this winter. After staying one night with their sister (Mrs. Parmele) the party started to return. I fear they got damp, as it rained hard all day.

SNOWFLAKE.

SPECIAL OFFER IN MUSIC FOR READERS OF THIS PAPER.

We are in receipt of a copy of E. T. Paull's latest and greatest march, just from the press, entitled "Dawn of the Century March." The title page is a work of art, without doubt the handsomest ever seen on a piece of music, magnificently lithographed in five colors. Mr. Paull is known all over the country by people who use music as being the author of the celebrated "Ben Hur Chariot Race March," which is a universal favorite. Other famous marches composed by him are "Charge of the Light Brigade," "America Forever," "A Warmin' Up in Dixie," great characteristic piece, etc. This new march of Mr. Paull's "Dawn of the Century" is said by competent judges to be one of the best ever placed on the market. Mr. Paull is styled by the leading New York music journals "The New March King." Every piano and organ player should have a copy of this piece. It has six full pages of music. In consideration of our mentioning this new march in our news columns, the publishers agree to furnish any of our readers with a complete copy of the piece for 25c in postage stamps or silver, provided this notice and this paper is mentioned, otherwise the regular price 50c will be charged. The publishers also agree to furnish free, to any reader of this paper for a 2c postage stamp, a catalogue of their publications containing thirty pages of music. This special offer can only be obtained by mentioning this paper, and writing direct to the publishers: E. T. Paull Music Co., 44 W 29th St. New York.
