YAQUINA ITEMS.

Mr. Monroe of Alsea had business in the city last Saturday.

Mrs. W. C. Hoeftlein spent Monday with relatives and friends at Newport.

Born—At Yaquina, Nov. 8, 1900, to Mr. and Mrs. James Brown, a daughter.

Mesdames Thos. Fett and Geo. King were in the city Wednesday visiting the sick and afflicted.

Died—At Yaquina, Nov. 9, 1900, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Brown, a daughter.

Rev. C. M. Brown will conduct service in Yaquina Sunday evening, Nov. 18. Everybody invited.

The city is full of ranchers. The fine weather gives them a good opportunity to take home their winter supplies.

Mrs. J. Blower and daughter Kate of Mill 4 were in Yaquina Monday enjoying the fine weather, making calls and shopping.

The party given by the fishermen was a very enjoyable affair and was well represented by both Toledo and Newport.

We understand George Emerson of Pool slough has gone to Aberdeen, Wash., where he has secured a position in a sawmill.

Mrs. D. Jenkins and Miss Helen Pygall walked over the hills Sunday to see Mrs. A. J. Stout, who has been quite ill, but is improving rapidly.

JOHNSON ITEMS.

Archie Stephens has gone to Tillamook.

J. S. Stephens is out in the valley this week.

The toll road on Salmon river is a sure thing.

We hear that Mr. Anderson has bought the Johnson farm.

Mr. Taylor raised cabbage that tipped the scales at 27 pounds.

Land is going fast around Johnson. Fourteen claims have been filed on recently.

Mr. Gordy was in last week looking after his claim. He brought in some fruit trees.

W. E. Ball, Charlie Ball and two other men went up the river in a boat a few days ago.

Miss Myrtle Parmele and her brother Edgar went to Tillamook to visit old friends for awhile.

Agent Buford and a party have been on Siletz bay hunting. One of the party was a doctor from the state insane asylum at Salem.

Mr. Mitchell went to Toledo with the ballot-box. We haven't heard from either since. The election went off quietly in Morris precinct.

Johnson young folks gathered at the home of G. S. Parmele and enjoyed themselves thoroughly. The party was in honor of Charlie Ball, who will leave for Texas soon with his parents.

CHITWOOD ITEMS.

Joe Wilson is busy filling orders for fruit trees.

Mr. Whitney has a troublesome boil on his finger.

George Smith is busily engaged in hauling his winter wood.

Last Sunday night was the first time it has frosted here this fall, and it was very light.

C. S. Wilson has returned from California with his family and is stopping for the winter on the old McLane place.

What lovely weather we have been having the past two weeks. It has given us a chance to do lots of much-needed work.

C. B. Mason, our enterprising merchant, has sold all his goats to his father and is going into the poultry business. He has six or seven roosters, one pullet and a turkey gobbler, and if that doesn't pay he will enlarge his stock of goods here and have a branch store at Nortons.

Last Monday was Uncle Jimmie Chitwood's birthday anniversary. Mrs. A. L. Chitwood presented him with a huge pumpkin pie—three feet across, more or less—and you should have seen the 10-cent grin it brought to his countenance. It made him happy, and we don't blame him, and if any of THE LEADER readers don't believe it, just try him with another for Thanksgiving day.
