It is rumored that the hotel and restaurant keepers of Salem are beginning to feel good over the prospect of a senatorial deadlock this winter.

Like Mr. Bryan, Mr. Debs files notice of his intention to continue the "fight." Really, Mr. Debs has the better reason of the two for so doing. Mr. Bryan lost a great deal of ground during the past four years, while Mr. Debs can point with pride to several votes gained by his cause in the same period.

Liberty has not lost, but gained in strength. The structure of the fathers stands secure upon the foundation on which they raised it, and is today, as it has been in the past, and as it will be in the years to come, "the government of the people, by the people and for the people." Be not disturbed; there is no danger from empire; there is no fear for the Republic.—President McKinley at Philadelphia last Saturday night, November 24.

Speaking of his future, William Jennings Bryan says: "I have received innumerable offers for my services, comprising opportunities in nearly all the vocations of life, but I am not looking for a position—not now." What do you think of that? Here is a man who only a few days ago—just prior to the election—was going through the country with tears in his voice as he declared there are no opportunities for young men in this fair land of ours. And now he says he has "received INNUMERABLE offers," in "nearly ALL the vocations of life." It is well to note these little discrepancies—even though Mr. Bryan is no longer the paramount issue.

Fish are never strictly fresh after they have been removed from their natural element for more than an hour. Thousands of people never taste fish food at its best. As a nation, we have much to learn in this respect. People living in rural districts may enjoy all the pleasures of an epicure by making the necessary preparations which may be done much easier than most people suppose. Thousands of streams of water now barren of food fish should be utilized by being sheltered, protected, and planted with the proper varieties. Instructions for the necessary arrangements will be furnished by the United States Commission of Fish and Fisheries. Under proper conditions fish spawn will be furnished free to those who are in a position to make good use of it. Fish streams should be as common as poultry yards and the exhibit at the Pan-American Exposition, at Buffalo, N. Y., next summer will demonstrate how it can be accomplished. Odd kinds of fish will be shown by the government commission by way of variety, some of which hardly look like fish. The uneasy eel will undertake to flirt with the McGinty fish from the bottom of the sea; affectionate crabs will embrace the unsuspecting turtle; but the main feature of the exhibit will pertain to the practical demonstration of what may be done in the way of propagating valuable food and game fish in a large or small way. We have abundant resources, which this section of the Pan-American Exposition will show us how to utilize to our permanent advantage.

The Christmas number of the "New Lippincott" Magazine, published at Philadelphia, will be appreciated as a "time-killer" during the long winter evenings. Amelia E. Barr's latest and best novel, "Soul's of Passage," is published complete in this number, and numerous other contributions from reputable authors combine to make it an unusually valuable addition to the "output" of 1900. Subscriptions received at this office.

Portland is planning for a big exposition in 1902. It is an entirely sensible idea, and deserves the support of every loyal Webfoot. It would result in much good to the state.

TOO MUCH

Exercise is as bad as too little for the growing girl. It is very easy for her to overdo, and this is especially dangerous at that critical period of a young girl's life when she crosses the line of womanhood. It is not an uncommon thing to lay the foundation for years of after misery by neglect of necessary precautions at the first "change of life." The use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription not only establishes regularity, but it gives health to the entire womanly organism. It is the best medicine for diseases peculiar to women because it cures the causes of disease completely and permanently. "Favorite Prescription" contains no alcohol, neither opium, cocaine nor any other narcotic. It cannot disagree with the most delicate constitution.

"For a number of months I suffered with female trouble," writes Miss Agnes McGowne, of 1212 Bank Street, Washington, D. C. "I tried various remedies, but none seemed to do me any permanent good. The doctors said it was the worst case of internal trouble they ever had. I decided to write to you for help. I received a very encouraging reply and commenced treatment at once. I had not used your 'Favorite Prescription' a week before I began to feel better, and as I continued, my health gradually improved, and is improving every day."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, in paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

CITATION.

In the County Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Lincoln. In the matter of the estate of James McCaffery, deceased.

To all Heirs, known and unknown, in and to the above-named estate—Greeting:

In the Name of the State of Oregon: You are hereby cited and required to appear in the County Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Lincoln, at the court-room thereof, at Toledo, in the County of Lincoln, State of Oregon, on Tuesday, the 4th day of December, 1900, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, then and there to show cause, if any exists, why the following-described real property, to-wit: The east half of the southeast one-fourth of section Twenty, the northeast one-fourth of the northeast one-fourth of section Twenty-nine, and the northwest one-fourth of the northwest one-fourth of section Twenty-eight, township Ten south of range Ten west, Willamette meridian, in Lincoln county, Oregon, containing one hundred and sixty acres, should not be sold to pay the debts and claims allowed and outstanding against said estate and for the expenses of the administration of said estate.

Witness the Hon. J. F. Stewart, Judge of the County Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Lincoln, with the seal of said Court affixed this 16th day of October, 1900.

Attest: J. H. LUTZ, Clerk.

A Wonderful Offer to Women.

We have received word of a most remarkable offer which is to be made to women by The Delineator, of New York. Taking the fact that next year begins a new century, The Delineator offers to distribute $17,500 among 1901 women. The plan is so cleverly arranged that a woman living in a small town or village, has just as good a chance to win one of these 1901 prizes as a woman living in a city—because the prizes are given for the number of subscriptions secured in a town in proportion to the population of that town, instead of being given simply to those who send the largest list of subscribers—which, of course, are most easily obtained in big cities. Another clever feature of the plan is that all the cities and towns of the United States and Canada have been arranged in seven classes. The cities of the greatest population are grouped in Class 1, and as these cities are not very many, the prizes offered are twenty-eight; the highest prize being $500, and the lowest $5.00. The total amount of prizes given away in this class is $1,000. The remaining smaller towns and villages fall into six other classes, and as the number of towns in a class increases, because, of course, there are more small towns than large ones, the amount of prizes given away to a class increases, so that in Class 7, there will be $4,000 distributed among 601 winners.

Furthermore, to everyone who fails to win one of the 1901 prizes there will be paid an extra commission on subscriptions, provided they equal one out of every two hundred inhabitants of the town from which the contestant sends them.

This is altogether a very liberal offer, and one which the famous old Delineator is well able to make good. From our point of view, we do not see why such an offer needs to be made by the Publishers of The Delineator, for we believe it already has nearly half a million subscribers. Its strong hold upon the affections of American women has come in the past generation, from its timely advice about dress details and its...

THE WHITE IS KING
—OF—
Sewing Machines and Bicycles

The application of ball bearings to our sewing machines has reduced friction to a minimum and emphasizes more strongly than ever the title of "LIGHT-RUNNING WHITE." Elegantly embossed woodwork, smooth hand ironwork, easily kept clean, the finest set of attachments, automatic tension indicator and releaser, oil cups and needle-bar—these are only a few of the many labor-saving devices applied to the WHITE.

The White Bicycle stands on its own merits. During the past few years its reputation has been maintained as the most durable, beautiful and light-running wheel. The White holds all Pacific Coast records from a quarter of a mile to a century, as well as the world's mile record, and in the International Six-Day Tournament held in San Francisco last year, the White won four out of eight prizes, no other make of wheel taking more than one of the rest. We have dealers in sewing machines and bicycles almost everywhere. If there is none in your town, write for catalogue and prices.
