Among the teas of thousands who have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for colds and la grippe during the past few years, to our knowledge, not a single case has resulted in pneumonia. Thos. Whitfield & Co., 240 Wabash avenue, Chicago, one of the most prominent retail druggists in that city, in speaking of this, says: "We recommend Chamberlain's Cough remedy for la grippe in many cases, as it not only gives prompt and complete recovery, but also counteracts any tendency of la grippe to result in pneumonia." For sale by O. O. Krogstad, druggist.

No one can reasonably hope for good health unless his bowels move once each day. When this is not attended to, disorders of the stomach arise, biliousness, headache, dyspepsia and piles soon follow. If you wish to avoid these ailments keep your bowels regular by taking Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets when required. They are so easy to take and mild and gentle in effect. For sale by O. O. Krogstad, druggist.

SILETZ ITEMS

Charles Ruhl, administrator, is busy settling up the affairs of the George Harney estate. The mess entertained Mr. and Mrs. Center Sunday. There was sufficient turkey to go around. Mrs. Mary Cook died at her home in Siletz December 2, after months of suffering. She was a member of the M. E. church. The last sad rites were administered by the pastor and she was laid to rest in Siletz cemetery December 4 at 11 o'clock. Mrs. W. H. Brown, as teacher, is accomplishing a grand work with the little folks. Sabbath services were largely attended. The effort of the choir to keep up the singing is greatly appreciated by us. Mrs. Bates' voice is a help. Miss Buckles' solo in the evening was very good. A United States marshal visited Siletz Sunday and returned the same day. L. D. Wood has vacated the Center property and is now living on the Louie Fuller place. Samuel Center will occupy the house and purchased furniture for it in Corvallis Monday. The hotel will be refitted and in every way made pleasant for the traveling public. G. R. Schenck and Joe Turnidge of Toledo went with us Monday night and left next morning for the big woods. Charley Montgomery is slowly gaining strength in his arm and shoulder. Seven were baptized and added to the church November 18. Office work, school work and church work are moving along in the usual happy manner. Mrs. Fred Stanton returned to her home in Toledo Monday, after a very pleasant but brief time in the service here. Have you seen our new flag pole on the hill, with old glory flying at the top? It is a beauty. Thanksgiving dinner was thoroughly enjoyed by pastor and wife at the home of Mrs. C. G. Copeland. Professionals in the culinary art, with Miss Anna as chef de corps, they prepared a repast unequalled in Lincoln county on that day—a pyramid of chicken, with vegetable accompaniments, clam soup, delicious puddings, large assortments of pies, cakes and fruits, were some of the things provided for our three appetites. In the evening a social gathering occurred at our home. Games, music and chat were enjoyed until a late hour. Willie Towner gives evening entertainments on his cornet. Robert Collins and Charles McDonald visited their claims this week.

GLUTTONY

Is more common than we may think, if we define gluttony as eating beyond the body's need of sustenance and beyond the stomach's capacity for digestion and assimilation of food. That is a fair definition, and it fastens the name glutton on many a person who would resent the term as an insult. The fact of this gluttony is marked by its consequences. The overloaded stomach becomes diseased. The popular term for the condition is "weak" stomach. The "weak" stomach fails in furnishing adequate nutrition for the body, and soon the "weakness" spreads from the stomach to other organs.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It enables the perfect assimilation of food, by which alone the health and strength of the body is maintained.

"Your medicine helped me so much that I cannot praise it too highly," writes Mrs. C. L. Brooks, of Poland, Androscoggin Co., Me. "The first dose I took helped me. I cannot forget how I felt when I took it; I was suffering everything with indigestion, and my stomach was so bloated that it seemed as though it must burst. My husband said he was going for the doctor, but I said if he would get me a bottle of the 'Golden Medical Discovery' I would try that. I had not taken it long when I felt relieved, and have not had a touch of indigestion or stomach trouble since. I had been sick for four years, and less than four bottles cured me. Some people that knew me before I began to take the 'Golden Medical Discovery' tell me that they never saw such a change in any one, and they also say they don't see how I can do such large washings as I do now, when I had not done a washing for so long."

Dr. Pierce's Pellets cure biliousness.

Making an appeal for a simpler Christmas, Edward Bok, in the December Ladies' Home Journal, considers this Christmas—because it is the last of the century—a good time to change about and go back to the simpler Christmas of earlier days. "Why not respond a little to our natural selves; the selves that were given to us as children?" he asks. "In other words, why not give a true remembrance to our children to carry them through their lives—the remembrance that comes of true giving. Not the giving that we feel, for some reason, we should or ought to practice. Not the giving that is measured by what the gift cost. Not the giving that comes of any artificial or conventional motive. But the giving that comes of great gladness; the giving prompted by real loving-kindness; the giving of sincerity; the giving of the heart. It makes no difference how simple may be the gift. It need not be a gift; it may be a few written words will do. I believe that there are few things needed to evoke the best power of Christmas; its true gladness. It shines brightest in the simplest, and discloses most where a real expression of it is wanting. It tells its best and sweetest secrets where love is found. It grants its highest endowments to hearts that are simple and true and gladden the lives of others. The material surroundings matter not. Upon such a Christmas the Master of the feast bestows the dearest, most abiding influences that can come into the human heart."
