GEE WILLICKINS ITEMS.

An authority on the just proportions of the human form divine says: "The ears should be so placed as not to be higher than the eyebrows, or lower than the tip of the nose." People who are dressing for a party should not forget this.

The senate of the United States is a convalescent hospital for political stiffs. It is the paradise where good politicians go after their political death. If the shelves were not full, I would name some has-beens that could be put on and would not require to be labeled, either.

If a political stiff cannot get to the senate, he might go to Klondike and secure a job as a roofer. A roofer is a man who rents himself out to lay on the roofs of houses that leak to keep the rain out.

The mean man at Newport is afraid to go out on the street except on rainy days. He's afraid if he goes out when the sun is shining his shadow will ask him for something.

The stingy man from Siletz recently cut the tail off a dead dog and made a shaving brush of it.

There is in Yaquina a kitchen girl who has travelled a great deal, if all accounts be true. Her mistress says that she has been all over Greece.

Yours truly,

GEE WILLICKINS.

HOW TO CURE COUGH.

Mr. R. Gray, who lives near Amenia, Dutchess county, N. Y., says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best medicine I have ever used. It is a fine children's remedy for croup and never fails to cure." When given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough has developed, it will prevent the attack. This should be borne in mind and a bottle of the Cough Remedy kept at hand for instant use as soon as these symptoms appear. For sale by O. O. Krogstad, druggist.
