It is semi-officially announced that Aguinaldo isn't dead again.

When the state legislature has finished the work of the session, Oregon will have a fish and game law guaranteed to remain in full force and effect for at least a year.

Germany will soon have twice as many warships as the United States, but will still be shy a Dewey, a Schley, a Clarke—to say nothing of our world-walloping "man behind the gun."

There isn't a doubt about it. The ship subsidy bill is a good thing—for the grafters. "Grafters," by the way, is an over-worked, abominable word, but occasionally serves as a short cut to the objective point.

If Prof. Tesla has received any news from Venus or Mars recently he's keeping it to himself. Perhaps a senatorial deadlock is on up there, and consequently "news are scarce"—as the college graduate would say.

A telegram from San Francisco says our friend Pat Crowe "is supposed to be" hiding somewhere on the Pacific coast. The trail seems to be getting warmer. Pat was "supposed to be" in England about a week ago.

With the primary system in vogue and United States senators elected by direct vote, several would-be statesmen in Oregon would soon see themselves as others see them. The time is not far distant when big sacks and senatorial deadlocks will cease to give the helpless majority that tired feeling.

There is no change in the senatorial situation at Salem. H. W. Corbett, according to the Oregonian, is in the race to stay, and if the other candidates are in the same humor—as they have a right to be—"there will be one vacant chair" in the United States senate. However, it is altogether probable that some day there'll be a stampede to some more or less dark horse.

Mrs. Carrie Nation, the celebrated Kansas saloon smasher, has proven that in the hands of woman the hatchet is mightier than the ballot. However, it is to be hoped Mrs. Nation's methods of fighting King Alcohol will not become popular. If every woman who is opposed to saloons should perform in that manner the spectacle would head off the greatest pen artist on earth. In the language of the poet: "Don't let your angry passions rise, but fix a place for them to lay in."

The Newport News accuses a correspondent of THE LEADER of "attempting to injure or besmirch the good name of Hon. H. W. Corbett." If our correspondent has made one statement concerning Mr. Corbett that is not true, he will offer a public apology, and not over a nom de plume, either. The article in question is devoted to the main to the past political history of Oregon, and is no more an injustice to Mr. Corbett than were a few remarks made by the Newport News last July. But this controversy is useless and tiresome. Nothing that can be said by the News, THE LEADER or any reader who may "take his pen in hand" will either elect or defeat Mr. Corbett. Unfortunately United States senators are not made by the people.

Roseburg's Rara Avis.

The Roseburg Review isn't satisfied with Governor Geer's appointments on the school-book commission. The governor is unfortunate. It would be a big feather in his headgear if he could do something that would please The Review.—Toledo Leader.

That would be the easiest thing in the world to do—if he would simply go back to his farm and quit trying to fill offices that are several sizes too large for him.—Review.

The asstoot editor of the Review has evidently been the victim of a sweet dream, in which he found himself giving entire satisfaction as governor of the great state of Oregon. Anybody can see that he wants Governor Geer's job.

Oregon at the Pan-American.

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 26, 1901. The following resolution was unanimously adopted by our delegation at a regular meeting, Friday evening, January 25, 1901:

"Resolved, that we, as Oregon's National Delegates to the N. E. A. which convenes in Buffalo, June 10-13, during the Pan-American Exposition of 1901, do hereby pledge ourselves, individually and severally, to do all in our power toward having said N. E. A. meet in Portland, Oregon, during the Exposition of 1905, which is to be held to commemorate the Lewis and Clark Expedition; and we also pledge our hearty support to the Commission appointed by our State Executive to represent Oregon at the Pan-American Exposition and request that every member of our State Association aid in seeing that our State and its resources be properly advertised and displayed at Buffalo during the entire Exposition." W. G. STEELE, Chairman. G. L. PEASLEE, Secretary.

No one needs to be told to try to cure a cough. But any one will be glad to be told of a means of cure which will be thorough and lasting. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is a medicine which can be confidently relied on to cure diseases of the organs of respiration. It cures obstinate, deep-seated coughs, bronchitis and bleeding of the lungs. It cures when nothing else will cure, and the local physician says: "There is nothing more that we can do."

There is no alcohol in "Golden Medical Discovery," and it is absolutely free from opium, cocaine and all other narcotics.

The dealer, tempted by the little more profit paid by less meritorious medicines, will sometimes try and sell a substitute when the "Discovery" is asked for. No substitute medicine will satisfy the sick like "Golden Medical Discovery." It always helps. It almost always cures.

"Two years ago a severe cough started on me and I was also bothered with 'carrs,'" writes Mr. F. Skjold, of Daneswood, Chicago Co., Minn. "I could not sleep nights, as the cough was worse at night. I tried several cough medicines, but to no avail, and a year ago when I got so bad I could not breathe through my nose at times. I then tried Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. After taking eight bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and at the same time using Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, I am a well man. I can thank Dr. Pierce for my good health, and will recommend his medicines to any one suffering from the same trouble."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation.

A CONVINCING ANSWER.

"I hobbled into Mr. Blackmon's drugstore one evening," says Wesley Nelson of Hamilton, Ga., "and he asked me to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism with which I suffered for a long time. I told him I had no faith in any medicine as they all failed. He said: 'Well, if Chamberlain's Pain Balm does not help you, you need not pay for it.' I took a bottle of it home and used it according to the directions and in one week I was cured, and have not since been troubled with rheumatism." Sold by Krogstad, druggist.
