

The claim of other cough medicines to be as good as Chamberlain's are effectually set at rest in the following testimonial of Mr. C. D. Glass, an employe of Bartlett & Dennis Co., Gardiner, Me. He says: "I had kept adding to a cold and cough in the winter of 1897, trying every cough medicine I heard of without permanent help. Until one day I was in the drug store of Mr. Houlehan and he advised me to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and offered to pay back my money if I was not cured. My lungs and bronchial tubes were very sore at this time, but I was completely cured by this remedy, and have since always turned to it when I got a cold, and soon found relief. I also recommend it to my friends and am glad to say it is the best of all cough medicines. For sale by O. O. Krogstad, druggist."

Circuit Court—January Term.

Judge Burnett of Salem, who relieved Circuit Judge Hamilton for the January term in Lincoln county, arrived last Friday night and began the preliminary work preparatory to convening court Monday morning. Prosecuting Attorney Brown and several Attorneys from the valley were also on hand early. Judge Burnett is something of a pusher himself, the session which ended Tuesday, being one of the shortest on record. The jurors were on hand, but not a single jury trial was pulled off. The following cases were disposed of:

The greatest danger from colds and la grippe is their resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. It will cure a cold or an attack of la grippe in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by Krogstad, the druggist.

We have some record-breaking clubbing combinations with many leading periodicals. Come in and learn about them.

STOOD DEATH OFF.

E. B. Munday, a lawyer of Henrietta, Tex., once fooled a gravedigger. He says: "My brother was very low with malarial fever and jaundice. I persuaded him to try Electric Bitters, and he was soon much better, but continued their use until he was wholly cured. I am sure Electric Bitters saved his life." This remedy expels malaria, kills disease germs and purifies the blood; aids digestion, regulates liver, kidney and bowels, cures constipation, dyspepsia, nervous diseases, kidney troubles, female complaints; gives perfect health. Only 50c at Krogstad's drugstore.
