Amended Rules.

Superintendent McArthur of Siletz has sent THE LEADER a copy of the "Amended Rules for Conveyance of Inherited Indian Lands." Owing to its length, we are unable to give it space this week, but the following (section 7) will be of value to those who are interested:

The affidavits of the grantors and grantees must accompany such deed, showing that there is no contract, agreement, nor understanding (written or verbal) whereby the consideration money or price paid for the land, or any portion thereof, is to be refunded to the purchaser after the approval of the deed; nor any live stock, implements, other article or thing, are to be exchanged or taken in lieu of said consideration money or purchase price, or any portion thereof for such land. Each deed must be accompanied by an affidavit of the grantee, stating he is not a party to any association or combination of persons to acquire lands under said law at less than their fair value or to prevent open and fair competition in the purchase and sale of lands; that he is not directly or indirectly connected with or interested in any device, scheme, or plan to prevent or interfere with fair competition in the purchase of such lands or to secure them at less than their fair market value, and that the contract under which the deed presented for approval was executed was not procured through or by means of any such plan or scheme; that such contract was not secured through false representations to the grantor, or suppression of facts as to the value of the land or as to any other feature of the transaction, and that neither the grantor nor any one acting for him or in his place, has been given or promised any money or other thing by the grantee, or by any one with his advice, consent, or knowledge, except the consideration named in the deed, to induce him to agree to such sale of his land.

ONE OF LIFE'S PLEASURES

There is nothing in life more enjoyable, and at the same time so beneficial to both mind and body, as traveling.

A modern railway journey, intelligently taken, tends to prolong life, break the monotony of existence and act as a panacea for dull care, by taking us out of the well worn channels of worldly and business struggles.

Before starting upon a trip, whether on business or recreation, it is well to inquire and investigate the various routes, and choose the one offering the best inducements in the way of comfort and attractions. The traveler, the tourist or business man is wise in selecting the Rio Grande Lines in a journey to and from the east, as it offers every comfort and modern convenience to suit all classes of travel, with an array of scenic attractions unsurpassed in the world. Castle Gate, the Canyon of the Grand, Marshall Pass, Tennessee Pass and the world-renowned Royal Gorge are but few of these attractions seen from the car windows.
