Education

Demands Careful Consideration

There are two kinds of education—practical and ornamental. The former should be secured by everyone, because it may be put to use quickly in earning a living. Therefore secure the former first; the latter afterward, if you have the time and money. The courses of the

CAPITAL BUSINESS COLLEGE

are arranged with a view to usefulness. We do not dabble in a little of everything, but devote our energies to conducting a first-class business school. Living expenses cheap. Students admitted at any time. Our graduates are successful. Send for catalogue.

The Siletz Grist.

Mr. Hardesty, engineer at the saw-mill, is in the valley we understand, looking for a lucrative position.

A letter from Mrs. Anna Turner states that they are enjoying life; that the Doctor's mother has been visiting them; that she has recovered her usual good health. Success to them.

Everyone is busy here. Farmers are harvesting their potato crops and sowing grain.

U. S. Grant is convalescing very slowly.

Mr. Carter is doing carpenter work for the Government.

Miss Cressey wishes me through this medium to extend her cordial invitation to all to visit her school.

A correction—the 10 pigs and five cows of the governments will be auctioned off Nov. 7, instead of the 10th, as published last week.

Improvements—A new stable for the government engine, a new sidewalk from school buildings to the barn, a new woodshed back of the Government office.

Mr. Micek at last has his buildings located and is busy repairing the same.

L. D. Wood is enthusiastic over his good claim and will move on to the same to remain permanently.

Mrs. Grant King has been visiting Mrs. Copeland.

Coquille Thompson will soon have Oscar Brown repairing his old house and erecting an addition to the same 24x20x14. Mr. Thompson has a nice place on Thompson creek and fully appreciates it.

Died—Joshley Brown's little girl, aged 3 years. She was laid at rest in Siletz cemetery Wednesday, Father Bucher officiating.

Superintendent D. D. McArthur went to Portland Tuesday on another liquor trial. He is to be commended for his zeal and tenacity in prosecuting these cases. With Toledo officials at one end of the string and D. D. McArthur at the other it must be expensive to some of our citizens. Whiskey is not in evidence here now, and we are glad to chronicle the good news. The way of the transgressor is hard, and the legacy he bequeaths is hard, his end is harder still.

Miss Noyes left Tuesday for her field of work at Haskell, Kan. Her many friends regret her departure.

Mrs. Bates, we understand, is not to return to Siletz. Her son Horace is recovering, and Mr. Bates' anxiety is consequently decreasing.

U. S. Marshal Probstel was registered at the hotel Saturday; also Mr. Steiwer, of Jefferson.

OBITUARY.

DIED—Of diphtheria, Oct. 20, 1902, Earl, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Pepin, aged 1 year and 2 days.

A mound is in the cemetery—A short and narrow bed; No grass is growing on it, No marble at its head.

There is anguish in the household, It is desolate and lone, For a fondly cherished nestling From its parents' nest has flown.

Remove the empty cradle, His clothing put away, And all his little playthings, Your choicest treasures, lay.

Oh, they have found the sunshine—Dear, blessed baby hands! We through the dark catch glimpses, Knowing God understands.

A FRIEND.

CHITWOOD ITEMS.

Aunt Jean Robertson and her niece, Miss Grace Davis, came home from hoppleicking and remained through prune gathering. They report having a fine time. R. R. Wood and family whom they were with, have not yet returned, but we look for them yet this week.

J. E. Wilson is putting new rustic on his house, with the help of J. D. Chitwood. Dell is a nail driver from away back.

Miss Linnie Geer expects to go to the Portland Sanitarium this week to take the nurse's course.

Abe McFadden came in Monday evening from California, where he has been for a time, and is visiting relatives and friends here. Mrs. Samuel Mason also came on the Monday evening and is visiting old friends here. Many of the readers of this will remember that Samuel Mason and son Charlie bought the Chitwood store nearly three years ago, did a very successful business for a few months, when they bought property at Morgan Hill, Cal. Charlie bought a store there and is doing a good business. Mrs. Mason has been on a visit with relatives and friends in Minnesota, and she is now on her return trip to California which she expects to reach about November 11.
