

Never Still.
Mrs. Naggem—And do you love me still?
Naggem (wearily) — I don't know; I've never had the chance.

The Truth.
If we did not think Monopole Spices to be purer, stronger and more fragrant than any other kind, we would not say so. It is because we have examined and compared very closely the Monopole with every other brand that we are so positive in our statement. All we care to have you do is to give them a fair trial. The quality of the spices will do the rest. Your grocer handles Monopole goods or can get them for you. Wadhams & Kerr Bros., packers, Portland, Or.

One More.
The conversation turned upon people notorious for telling falsehoods.
"In all my life," says the hostess, "I have never told a fib three times."
"Well, that makes the fourth," said her husband, skeptically.—Judge.

FITS Permanently Cured. No fits or nervousness after first day's use of Dr. Kline's Great Nerve Restorer. Send for FREE $2.00 trial bottle and treatise. Dr. R. H. KLINE, Ltd., 341 Arch St., Philadelphia, Pa.

A Matter of Wonder.
Mrs. Peck (who has returned from Niagara)—I stood speechless—
Mr. Peck — Wonderful, wonderful! (to himself)—I wonder how Niagara did it?— Detroit Free Press.

Piso's Cure is a remedy for coughs, colds and consumption. Try it. Price 25 cents, at druggists.

Not Up-to-Date.
"His novel was a failure, I understand."
"Of course it was."
"Why of course?"
"Oh, he was so terribly behind the times."

"In what way."
"Why, he called his heroine Elizabeth, and everybody knows that that is entirely out of date. We are now in the Dorothy cycle of literature, and I have an idea that Josephine is coming next."—Brooklyn Eagle.

The Unlucky Thirteen.
Prison Visitor—Why are you here, my misguided friend?
Prisoner—I'm the victim of the unlucky number 13.
Visitor—Indeed! How's that?
Prisoner—Twelve jurors and one judge.

Safer, Too.
Lover—One kiss is worth a hundred letters.
Damsel—Oh, you're very sentimental.
Lover—Oh, no. The kiss, you know, can't be introduced in a breach of promise suit.

A Synonym.
"What is a synonym?" asked a teacher.
"Please, sir," said a lad, "it's a word you can use in place of another if you don't know how to spell the other one."

The Butternut Tree.
The butternut is a tree that likes best a rocky and uneven soil, and in whose shade neither shrub nor herb will thrive. The bark is used as a dye stuff for woollens.

Chronic Sores

Eating Ulcers, A Constant Drain Upon the System

And a source of worry, anxiety and endless trouble to those who are afflicted with them, particularly so when located upon the lower extremities where the circulation is weak and sluggish. A gangrenous eating ulcer upon the leg is a frightful sight, and as the poison burrows deeper and deeper into the tissue beneath and the sore continues to spread, one can almost see the flesh melting away and feel the strength going out with the sickening discharges. Great running sores and deep offensive ulcers often develop from a simple boil, swollen gland, bruise or pimple and are a threatening danger always, because while all such sores are not cancerous, a great many are, and this should make you suspicious of all chronic slow-healing ulcers and sores, particularly if cancer runs in your family. Face sores are common and cause the greatest annoyance because they are so persistent and unsightly and detract from one's appearance.

Middle aged and old people and those whose blood is contaminated and tainted with the germs and poison of malaria or some previous sickness, or excessive use of mercury, are the chief sufferers from chronic sores and ulcers. While the blood remains in this unhealthy, polluted condition healing is simply impossible and the sore will continue to grow and spread in spite of washes and salves or any superficial or surface treatment, for the sore is but the outward sign of some constitutional disorder, a bad condition of the blood and system, which local remedies cannot cure.

S. S. S. reaches these old chronic sores through the blood. It goes to the very root of the trouble and counteracts and removes from the blood all the impurities and poisons, and gradually builds up the entire system and strengthens the sluggish circulation, and when the blood has been purified and the system purged of all morbid, unhealthy matter the healing process begins, and the eating ulcer or chronic sore is soon entirely gone.

S. S. S. contains no mineral or poisonous drugs of any description, but is guaranteed a purely vegetable remedy, a blood purifier and tonic combined and a safe and permanent cure for chronic sores and ulcers. If you have a slow-healing sore of any kind, large or small, write us about it, and our physicians will advise you without charge. Book on Blood and Skin Diseases free.

Mrs. Henrietta A. S. Marsh.
Woman's Benevolent Association of Chicago.

Mrs. Henrietta A. S. Marsh, President Woman's Benevolent Association, of 327 Jackson Park Terrace, Wood-lawn, Chicago, Ill., says:
"I suffered with la grippe for seven weeks and nothing helped me until I tried Peruna. I felt at once that I had at last secured the right medicine and kept steadily improving. Within three weeks I was fully restored."—Henrietta A. S. Marsh.

Independent Order of Good Templars, of Washington.
Mrs. T. W. Collins, treasurer I. O. G. T., of Everett, Wash., has used the great catarrhal tonic, Peruna, for an aggravated case of dyspepsia. She writes:

"After having a severe attack of la grippe, I also suffered with dyspepsia. After taking Peruna I could eat my regular meals with relish, my system was built up, my health returned, and I have remained in excellent strength and vigor now for over a year."—Mrs. T. W. Collins.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.
Address Dr. Hartman, president of the Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio.

Liquidity of the German Language.
Mr. Casey, under the impression that the perfuming machine was a phonograph, dropped a cent in the slot and placed the tube to his ear.
"Wow!" he exclaimed suddenly, flinging the tube from him. "It's a wonder some one wouldn't invent waterproof records for them dim German songs!"—New York Sun.

Mothers will find Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup the best remedy to use for their children during the teething period.

Quick Promotion.
"I hear your brother is an assistant bookkeeper."
"Yes, indeed. And, do you know, he proved himself so clever that they've passed him over the first and second assistantships and made him third assistant right off."

Hillis—Whew! Why do you have your office as hot as an oven? Willis—It's there I make my daily bread.—Town and Country.

"Why, Harold, I'm surprised! You should wait until the blessing is asked." "I did ask mine." "You did?" "Yes; and God said 'Go ahead!'"—Life.

Class in history: Teacher—Jamie, can you tell me why Lincoln is called the martyr President? Jamie—'Cause he has to stand for all the Lincoln stories.—Ex.

"So you are going to get an automobile?" "Yes," answered the man who is always thinking of his health; "the doctor says I must walk more."—Washington Star.

Mrs. Fortyodd—A man is as old as he feels, but a woman is as old as she looks. Mr. Oldbeau—Really, madam, that doesn't apply to your case, I'm sure.—Chicago Daily News.

The Browning clubs of Boston: "Do you still read Browning in Boston?" "Oh, dear, no. We all learned him by heart long ago. We merely discuss him now."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Dorothy—Say, auntie, is religion something to wear? Aunt Julia—My dear, why do you ask such foolish questions? Dorothy—'Cause papa said you used your religion for a cloak.—Judge.

Fuddy—There is one thing about Flanders that I like. He never has anything to say about his aches and pains. Daddy—No; but he's all the time bragging about his splendid health.—Boston Transcript.

Miss Ascum—Wasn't that Mr. Bonds I saw you walking with last evening? Miss Coy—Yes. Miss Ascum—He's a landed freeholder of the county, isn't he? Miss Coy (blushing)—Well—he isn't quite landed yet.—Philadelphia Press.

She was a teacher in one of the lower classes, and she was trying to remind the young scholar of the letter r. "Now, Tommy, what comes at the end of dinner?" "Oh, yes, ping-pong!" shouted Tommy, joyfully.—Yonkers Statesman.

Tourist—Do these racing automobiles give you farmers much trouble? Native—No end uv it! It's got so now that when we see a dark, funeral-shaped cloud approaching we don't know whether to run for a gun or a cyclone cellar!—Puck.

Forgot himself: Mrs. Henpeck—We hev bin married twenty years to-day, Hiram. Hiram (with a sigh)—Yes; for twenty years we've fought— Mrs. Henpeck (scowling)—What? You old wretch! Hiram (quickly)—Life's battles together, Mirandy.—Judge.

No call for leisure: "What, you back to work, Pete? When I saw you fall off the building yesterday I never expected to see you work again." "I t'ought dat, too, boss. But mah wife done let mah accident assurance expiate last week."—Indianapolis News.

First Comedian—Did you score a hit with your new specialty? Second Comedian—Did I? Why the audience gazed in open-mouthed wonder before I was half through. First Comedian—Wonderful! It is seldom that an entire audience yawns at once.—Chicago Daily News.

"Are you the defendant?" asked a man in the court room, speaking to an old negro. "No, boss," was the reply. "I ain't done nothing to be called names like that. I've got a lawyer here who does the defending." "Then who are you?" "I'm the gentleman what stole the chickens."

"Education," said the impassioned orator, "begins at home." "That's where you're off," said the calm spectator; "it begins in the kindergarten, is continued in the boarding-school, foot-ball field, Paris, London, and Wall street, and ends in either Sing Sing or Newport."—Life.

Cholly (proudly)—By Jove! I'm quite a professor of swimming, don't you know. I taught Mabel Galey how to swim in two lessons. Jack—Gad! That was a quick throw-down. Cholly (indignantly)—What do you mean? Jack—Why, she let me give her ten lessons before she learned.—Brooklyn Life.

"The new railroad has been a great blessing to us," says a rural exchange; "in less than six weeks we got enough damages out of it to build a town hall and grade the cemetery. A few more enterprises of this kind, and our town will rise to heights undreamed of in the history of new settlements!"—Atlanta Constitution.

Easily Explained: Nurse (of insane asylum)—I can't make out what ails that new patient. She keeps screaming, "Mondays in January, first and third Thursdays, Sunday afternoons, second and fourth Wednesdays, Tuesday evenings in February," and things like that. House Doctor—That's easy. She's a society woman trying to keep track of her friends' reception days.—Judge.

Long Hair

"About a year ago my hair was coming out very fast, so I bought a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor. It stopped the falling and made my hair grow very rapidly, until now it is 45 inches in length."—Mrs. A. Boydston, Atchison, Kans.

There's another hunger than that of the stomach. Hair hunger, for instance. Hungry hair needs food, needs hair vigor—Ayer's. This is why we say that Ayer's Hair Vigor always restores color, and makes the hair grow long and heavy. $1.00 a bottle. All druggists.

If your druggist cannot supply you, send us one dollar and we will express you a bottle. Be sure and give the name of your nearest express office. Address, J. C. AYER CO., Lowell, Mass.
