

STARVED OUT.

Many a garrison has been forced to give up the fight and hang out the white flag of surrender, when lack of food has weakened the men past all power to continue the struggle.

Many a man is similarly starved out of business. His digestion is impaired. His food does not nourish him, and for lack of strength to carry on the struggle he turns his store over to another.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It restores strength to weak, nervous, run-down men and women.

"About ten years ago I began to be afflicted with stomach trouble, also diarrhoea," writes Mr. Wm. Walters, of Antrim, Mo. "In warm weather it grew worse, until it would throw me into a cramping chill. Was troubled so often that I sometimes thought my end had come. Tried many remedies, but they gave only temporary relief. In November, 1899, thought I would try Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I got six bottles and took five in succession, then thought I would wait for a time and take the one left. Soon found I had symptoms of the trouble coming back, so took the sixth bottle and it cured me. I have enjoyed the best of health this summer, and the credit all belongs to your 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I can't express my many thanks to Dr. Pierce for his remedy, for it did so much for me. Words cannot express how severely I suffered. "If any doubt the above statement let them address me, and I will take great pleasure in answering."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cleanse the bowels and stimulate the sluggish liver.

Our Good Neighbors

Waldport Waves.

The sick people are most all improving at this writing.

Mr. Graff had the misfortune to lose two cows a few days ago.

Rev. Ayers preached as usual morning and evening last Sunday.

Simon Lentden of Newport visited Waldport last week on business.

Ernest and Ira Everson expect to start in a few days to Gardiner logging camp.

C. R. Evens has his new launch set up and he and Louis Colvin are very busy at it these days.

Henry Howell returned from a business trip to the valley last Saturday. He has been sick since.

The nice weather is all gone and now we are having some real Oregon mist, with a little wind mixed in.

We wonder what THE LEADER man is down here for. Look out boys, or you will get your names in the paper.

The trial of C. S. Gideon against Jack Early which came off last week was decided in favor of the defendant.

The writer was going to tell you something about the wedding, but at this writing both parties concerned are not to be found. To be continued.

Rev. Cole has been exhibiting some views and gave a lecture on some of the South Sea islands and their inhabitants which have been very interesting.

There was a party of five young folks out floundering a few evenings ago—at least there's where they said they had been, but from the noise they made we thought they had been to some other place. All the fish they had when they returned was five suckers.

Charley Graff had another narrow escape a few days ago, but he wasn't duck hunting. This time he was playing cowboy. He had hold of a rope, the other end of which was fastened to what he called a vicious cow. She had just got across a pond of mud and water when she became frightened and pulled Charley through the mud and water and nearly drowned him.

Johnson Jottings.

John Morris went to Sheridan last week and packed in windows for his house.

Miss Myrtle Parmele commenced a four months' term of school on Slab creek last week.

A school meeting was held on Drift creek last Wednesday. Some hot words were offered. Is it possible that our once peaceable district is to be a (?)

Elk City Events.

Marsh Simpson and H. Terwilliger have purchased the Chas Allen homestead.

James Williams, who came here last fall from Idaho, has gone back. He thinks the country east of the mountains is preferable to the moist Coast climate.

Adam Rse has just returned from Portland, where he has been taking treatment in the sanitarium. He had throat trouble and was somewhat run down. After a fifteen-days' treatment he came home feeling as good as new. He is very enthusiastic over the methods employed there.

H. Terwilliger of Portland has been spending a week here looking after his ranch up the Big Elk and trying to persuade the trout to bite.

The doctor reports R. A. Abbey as improving. The broken bones of the leg are beginning to knit together.

Miss Irma Carrier of Yaquina was up Tuesday assisting her grandmother, Mrs. Blair.

Harlan Happenings

Work is on a standstill for the present. More snow and rain to start in the week with.

This weather is very bad on little lambs and young kids.

Bill Mulkey has started to do some slashing on his ranch.

Gloert Mason purchased a young dog of L. January, paying $25 for it.

Albert Dawson is quite sick again, having taken a relapse of the scarlet fever.

Mrs. Kester did not get home last week as she expected, on account of sickness.

J. Hart went to Summit last Saturday. He says he is glad he is not a mail carrier.

Mr. and Mrs. Athel Hathaway came in last Sunday to make their home on Big Elk once more.

Jack Foss was over to look after his ranch on the Elk. He is going to move back in next month.

Mr. Hathaway has a brand new hack. Something everyone needs in these mountains if they have any mercy on their horses.

Chitwood Chips.

Everybody knows it is raining.

J. E. Wilson is out this week with a picture show.

H. N. Foster helped G. T. Smith butcher hogs Tuesday.

Harry Eyer is happy now. He got a car of feed last Saturday.

The public school opened Monday for a three months' term. Miss McCourt is teacher.

Grant Hart and John Adams started for Seattle Tuesday morning. May they have a safe journey.

The members of the Chitwood Farmers' Association are going to Elk City Thursday night to resurrect their brethren at that place. May success be their gain.

The Literary Society elected officers last Tuesday evening for a term of three months. R. E. Wood being the choice for president and Frank Kurtichanof for secretary.

Additional Local.

Mrs. Norman Holgate of South Beach is in the city today.

George Wetmore left Tuesday morning for Spokane, Wash.

C. C. Kubler of Newport was visiting Toledo friends last Saturday.

Ed Baldwin of Waldport passed through to Corvallis this morning.

Sheriff Ross and County Clerk Wade visited Newport Wednesday night.

Warren Hall, one of the Siletz merchants, was in Toledo yesterday after a load of freight.

Lee and Ed Wade and County Surveyor Wygant left this morning for tall timber. Ed is under bonds and contract as cook.

That tailor first door south of the barber shop is always busy. He guarantees a perfect fit on every garment and is thoroughly up-to-date. Prices reasonable.

Honey is high, but oh how sweet! Look after your bees right now and put them in shape for the coming season. Everything you desire in this line is kept by Krogstad.

THE LEADER is in receipt of a letter from Rev. F. O. Jones, who is temporarily located at Pendleton. He hopes the change of climate will restore his somewhat shattered health, and he will not return to his work here until the early part of the coming summer. His many friends on the bay trust his hopes may be realized.

Dissolution of Partnership.

To All Whom It May Concern: The partnership heretofore existing between O. Holgate and N. Holgate having been dissolved, I will not be responsible for any debts that may be charged against said firm from this date. N. HOLGATE.

Newport, Or., Feb. 18, 1903.

Siletz Siftings.

Mrs. Will Towner is on the sick list. Bob Tronson and Roy Butterfield are logging for Hall Bros.

The famous hog case of Joseph Kosydar has been appealed.

Henry Wevoliskie was on the sick list Monday but is now up and around.

Mrs. Lena Tronson and Inez Chapman are at home with their mother, Mrs. John Adams.

Willie Alexander made his appearance at the parental fireside Wednesday and will remain indefinitely.

George Chambers passed through the Agency Saturday in company with John and Eli Gauthier, Pruett and others en route to the latters' claims.

Jim Gaither is temporarily installed as clerk in the government office. Old friends are trying to relieve his loneliness and are welcoming heartily.

The Hall boys, with a force of men, have been very busy the past week strengthening their mill boom and cording logs coming down the river.

Attorneys B. F. Jones and B. F. Swope were with us on legal business Friday. John Spencer vs Long Prairie Charlie. The defendant was bound over to higher court.

John Williams accompanied his wife here from Chemawa last week. Mr. Williams returned Monday to resume his duties as cook at Chemawa. His wife will occupy the cook's position at the Indian Training School at Siletz.

The social at the Indian training school Saturday evening, March 7, in honor of Major J. J. McKoin's arrival and as a farewell to Superintendent and Mrs. D. D. McArthur, who left for Fort Mojave, Arizona, Sunday afternoon, was one of the most successful and pleasant affairs of the season. The seats had been removed from the schoolroom and the building was well filled by pupils and guests by 8 p. m.

The first number on the program was a quartet by Mrs. Bryant, Miss Kruger, Messrs. Arthur Bensell and Warren Hall. Next was an instrumental solo by Mrs. Bryant. This was followed by an instrumental duet by Mrs. Bensell and Mr. Gates, vocal solos by Misses Esther Copeland, Cecile Clay and Mrs. Bensell and an instrumental duet by Miss Kruger and Mrs. Bryant. The closing number was a quartet by Messdames Bensell and Bryant and Messrs. Towner and Bensell. All of these numbers were excellent and merited the applause tendered them. The last number was enthusiastically encored. Major McKoin is introduced, and his maiden speech in Siletz was very good. His sociability and courteousness was in evidence during the evening, and every effort will be made by our good people to have him feel at home among us. Duncan D. McArthur's remarks to the school and people were very appropriate. In the girls' parlors games and social chat occupied the time until supper was announced. Your correspondent enjoyed this feature of the entertainment as well as any, especially the chicken salad, orange cake, etc. Everyone enjoyed it. The dining room was tastefully decorated in orange and green. Miss Kruger is an artist in this line. Mrs. Haller and all those who in any way contributed towards the success are to be congratulated.

Education

Demands Careful Consideration

There are two kinds of education—practical and ornamental. The first should be secured by everyone, because it may be put to use quickly in a living. Therefore secure the former first; the latter afterward, if you have the time and money. The courses of the are arranged with a view to usefulness. We do not dabble in a little of anything, but devote our energies to conducting a first-class business school. Expenses cheap. Students admitted at any time. Our graduates are successful. Send for catalogue.
