$3.00 W. L. DOUGLAS SHOES $3.50
UNION MADE
W. L. Douglas makes and sells more men's Goodyear Welt (Hand-Sewed Process) shoes than any other manufacturer in the world.
$25,000 REWARD
will be paid to anyone who can disprove this statement.
Because W. L. Douglas is the largest manufacturer he can buy cheaper and produce his shoes at a lower cost than other concerns, which enables him to sell shoes for $3.50 and $3.00 equal in every way to those sold elsewhere for $4 and $5.00.
The Douglas secret process of tanning the bottom soles produces absolutely pure leather; more flexible and will wear longer than any other tanning in the world.
The sales have more than doubled the past four years, which proves its superiority. Why not give W. L. Douglas shoes a trial and save money.
Net Price Increase (1902 Sales: $2,300,000; 1903 Sales: $5,024,340.00)
A gain of $2,724,340.00 in Four Years.
W. L. DOUGLAS $4.00 GILT EDGE LINE, Worth $9.00 Compared with Other Makes.
The best Imported and American leathers, Hoy's Patent Calf, Enamel, Box Calf, Calf, Vic Kid, Corong Colt, and National Kangaroo. Fast Color Eyelets.
Caution: The genuine have W. L. DOUGLAS name and price stamped on bottom.

SHEAR NONSENSE

"I see the new magazine is out?"
"Yes; and thank heaven, they've got my poem right next to advertising matter."—Atlanta Constitution.

"Dis is certainly fine, bracin' weather," remarked Weary Raggles to Tired Tatters. "Yes," replied Tatters; "I braced six men fer a dime dis mornin' an' on'y got one refusal."—Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.

A man with an unusually large mouth has the habit of opening it on some occasions very wide. His dentist the other day administered a mild rebuke: "Not so wide, please; I prefer to stand outside and work."

Summed Up: The Widow—I want a man to do odd jobs about the house, run on errands, one that never answers back, and is always ready to do my bidding. Applicant—You're looking for husband, ma'am.—New York Life.

A Natural Question: "Have you any two-cent stamps?" Inquired the victim, after paying his bill at the Bong Tong Hotel. "I think so," replied the clerk; "how many do you want?" "How much are they apiece?"—Philadelphia Press.

Barnes—Charley appeared to be willing to acknowledge that he was in the wrong. He said he quite aware of his shortcomings. Shodd—Isn't that just like Charley? Always bragging about what he knows!—Boston Transcript.

"These Americanos," cries the affrighted Tagal, "are cannibals."
"Whatever gave you such an idea?" asks the Moro. "I just heard one of those soldiers ask that pretty school teacher to come and eat a Filipino with him."—What-to-Eat.

She—He didn't succeed in convincing her, after all his argument. He—No; he merely made her mad. "But his explanation was clear." "Yes; and that's where he made his mistake. He told her it was as 'plain as the nose on her face.'"—Tit-Bits.

"Are they fond of their New York home?" "Oh, awfully fond. They spend their winters in Florida, their springs in Lakewood, their summers at Newport, and their autumns at Lenox, but they are simply devoted to their New York home!"—Exchange.

Convinced: "Do you read Dickens?" "No," said Mrs. Cumrox, rather loftily. "Perhaps you are one of those who do not regard him as representing the best literature?" "I am. I have seen his books offered for sale as cheap as 25 cents a copy."—Washington Star.

Very Unromantic: "They had one of the strangest marriages recorded for a long time." "In what respect?" "In every respect. Why, both parents on both sides were present, there was nothing sudden or secret about it, and their own clergyman performed the ceremony."—Judge.

The Lesser Evil: "Charley, dear," said young Mrs. Torkins, "I hope you will never conceal it from me when you bet on a horse race." "Won't you be angry if I lose?" "Not as angry as I would be if you were to win and not let me know about it."—Washington Evening Star.

Mrs. Bizzy—I am so sorry to hear that your wife has been throwing the crockery at you again, Casey. Where did she hit you? Casey—Faith, ma'am! That's what Oi do be afther complainin' av. 'Twas a whole set av dishes broke to pieces, an' she nivr hit me wanst.—Brooklyn Life.

"You have just as much right and, theoretically, just as good a chance as anybody else to be President," says the patriotic citizen to his neighbor. "I cannot agree with you," sighs the neighbor; "we have no children, and that fact alone would lose me the photographer's vote."—Judge.

Miss Mainchantz—I suppose you've heard of my engagement to Mr. Jenks. Miss Ascott—Yes, and I confess I was surprised. You told me once that you wouldn't marry him for a million dollars. Miss Mainchantz—I know, dear, but I discovered later that he had two millions.—Philadelphia Press.

Wished to be Prepared: "I'm hungry, sir," said the beggar; "won't you give me enough to get a meal?" "Here, my good man," said Mr. Pompus, "here's a penny for you." "Oh, thank you, sir. By the way, have you got a peppermint tablet about you? I always get dyspepsia when I overeat myself."—Tit-Bits.

He was wandering in Ireland, and came upon a couple of men "in holts" rolling on the road. The man on top was pommeling the other within an inch of his life. The traveler intervened. "It's an infernal shame to strike a man when he's down," said he. "If you knew all the trouble I had to get him down," was the reply, "you wouldn't be talking like that."—Sporting Times.

THE PINKHAM CURES
ATTRACTING GREAT ATTENTION AMONG THINKING WOMEN.

Mrs. Frances Stafford, of 243 E. 114th St., N.Y. City, adds her testimony to the hundreds of thousands on Mrs. Pinkham's files.

When Lydia E. Pinkham's Remedies were first introduced skeptics all over the country frowned upon their curative claims, but as year after year has rolled by and the little group of women who had been cured by the new discovery has since grown into a vast army of hundreds of thousands, doubts and skepticisms have been swept away as by a mighty flood, until to-day the great good that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and her other medicines are doing among the women of America is attracting the attention of many of our leading scientists, physicians and thinking people.

Merit alone could win such fame; wise, therefore, is the woman who for a cure relies upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

The English Style.
Frank was learning to ride a horse and one day some one asked if it bounced him very hard when the horse trotted.
"Oh, no," he answered. "I don't bounce very hard. I stay up nearly all the time."—Little Chronicle.

Mothers will find Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup the best remedy to use for their children during the teething period.

Taking No Chances.
Clerk—Im' sorry, sir, but I can not sell you any morphine.
Homely Customer—Why, do I look like a man who would kill himself?
Clerk—I don't know, but if I looked like you I should be tempted.

FITS Permanently Cured. No fits or nervousness after first day's use of Dr. Kline's Great Nerve Restorer. Send for FREE $2.00 trial bottle and treatise. Dr. R. H. KLINE, Ltd., 631 Arch St., Philadelphia, Pa.

Only When Ordered.
Scientific and Nervous Visitor (at country hotel)—I suppose there's no ptomaine in this pie?
Waiter (quite equal to the occasion)—No sir. We never puts that in unless specially ordered.—Punch.

Helpful Husband.
Cicero Moke—I came to tole yo', ma'am, dat Lucy Brown, what dne leabe yo' yesteday, ain't gwine lib out no mo,' kase she married me today.
Mrs. Hau-keep—Indeed! Well?
Cicero Moke—Well, I t'ought mebbe yo' might let her do yo' washin'. I'm a drummin' up trade fer her dis mo'n-in'.

No One Made a Motion.
"Kin any one make a motion?" asked one of the audience. "Gents," said Alkali Bill, chairman of the meeting, as he laid his revolvers on the table, "owin' to the general custom of wearin' weapons in these parts, I trust no one will make a motion."

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh That Contain Mercury.
As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.
Sold by Druggists, price 75c. per bottle. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

Knew Human Nature.
Judge—Have you anything to say before I pass sentence?
Prisoner—Yes, my lord, I should like you to have your dinner before you pass sentence upon me."

Piso's Cure is a good cough medicine. It has cured coughs and colds for forty years. At druggists, 25 cents.

Advantages of Saving.
A boy beginning at 16 and saving $5 a month will have $328 when he is 21, even if his savings bank pays only 3 per cent interest. Not only that, but he will have acquired the habit of saving, which will help him all his life.

Not "Just as Good."
Your dealer may tell you that some other brand of peaches and pears and other fruits is as good as or the same as Monopole. Don't you believe such a statement. It isn't so and your dealer wouldn't make it if he would only compare all the other so-called high class brands with Monopole. Monopole fruits are packed to order in special canneries and are packed in a special way. They are, therefore, sweeter, more natural in flavor and more delicious than any other brand. Get Monopole from your grocer. Wadhams & Kerr Bros., Monopole grocers and dry coffee roasters, Portland, Oregon.

A Study of a Rich Man.
"I wonder how a rich man feels?"
"Well, I'll tell you. He feel dis- away: Now dat he got it he can't keep it; on ef he do keep it somebody else will sho' git it!"

Doting Dotage.
Miss De Spite—I just dote on George. I understand he threw you over?
Miss De Sweet—Yes; in dotage one is liable to do almost anything.

A Little Close.
"You married a rich wife, didn't you?" asked Jones of his friend.
"Yes," he sighed, "but she hasn't declared any dividend yet."

Coughs

"My wife had a deep-seated cough for three years. I purchased two bottles of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, large size, and it cured her completely."
J. H. Burge, Macon, Col.

Probably you know of cough medicines that relieve little coughs, all coughs, except deep ones! The medicine that has been curing the worst of deep coughs for sixty years is Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

Three sizes: 25c., enough for an ordinary cold; 50c., just right for bronchitis, hoarseness, hard colds, etc.; $1., most economical for chronic cases and to keep on hand.
J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass.

A Modern Adonis.
Lady—Your partner has fainted, I hear. How did it happen?
Officer—It is quite simple. I danced with her three times in succession. The great happiness was too much of a strain for her nerves. I am now taking my departure lest I should do any further damage.
