

Additional Local.

L. M. Starr was reported seriously ill yesterday.

Miss Hazel Walch of Yaquina was a passenger yalleyward this morning.

Will Ewing was up from the life-saving station yesterday for a visit at home.

The M. E. Sunday school will give an entertainment on the evening of May 1. Particulars next week.

D. J. Derby, the well-known horticulturist, was in the city Wednesday with a load of fruit and vegetables.

Now is the time to look up your wants in the seed line—garden and grass seeds. A full line of fresh seeds at Krogstads.

The attempt to organize a fire company at the courthouse last Friday night was a fizzle, only a few citizens being present.

Frank Fogarty, who had been visiting his home at South Beach, returned Monday to his duties at the life saving station near Astoria.

Mrs. Wakefield of Eddyville arrived last night for a visit with her daughter, Miss Mamie, teacher of the primary department of the Toledo schools.

Grant King's contract for furnishing logs to the Toledo sawmill was completed Tuesday. This, we understand, brings the mill's supply up to 350,000 feet.

C. W. Gillingham came in from his farm on the Siletz Monday and left next morning for Astoria, where he has secured a position in a job-printing office.

That tailor first door south of the barber shop is always busy. He guarantees a perfect fit on every garment and is thoroughly up-to-date. Prices reasonable.

The supreme court has admitted County Judge C. M. Brown to practice in the courts of Oregon. The certificate was issued Wednesday. So says the Salem Statesman.

T. E. Latimer, editor of the Liberator, the official state organ of the Socialist party, will lecture on Socialism at the courthouse in Toledo Saturday afternoon and evening—tomorrow.

Commissioner George King inspected the Blair creek bridge near Elk City yesterday. It was built by George Hodges, and Commissioner King pronounces it in every way satisfactory.

On May 24th the new law which does away with the $300 exemption from taxation will go into effect, sec. 3039 new code, and hereafter $300 will be added to the taxable property of every taxpayer.

The finest apples we have seen in the market at this season of the year were a lot of Baldwins received a few days ago by Stewart & Vaut from J. J. Bristow of Nashville. They didn't last long at $1 per box.

Fred Stanton returned Wednesday from a trip into the woods northeast of the Agency. He got mixed up with some very unkind weather. He visited the upper Depot country yesterday and will leave tomorrow morning for Sugarloaf and vicinity, accompanied by "Cene" Young. Fred can hold a goat level in the big woods, having been known to live for a week on a diet of salal leaves.

L I N C O L N C O U N T Y L E A D E R

All the News All the Time
Big and Growing Circulation
Headquarters for Job Printing

Additional Local.

A. T. Peterson had business at Chitwood Wednesday.

Deputy Collector of Customs B. F. Hahn of Yaquina is in the city today.

Mrs. C. B. Crosno and Mrs. George Hall are recent additions to Toledo's sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Williams of Newport passed through last Saturday evening enroute homeward from a visit at Portland.

The celebrated W. B. Stetson "Tiger" brand hats, $2.50 to $5. Macdonald & Hall Bros. of Siletz sell them. They are the finest in the market.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Kubler came up from Newport Wednesday morning and went over to Siletz for a few days' visit with William Porter and family.

Dr. F. M. Carter passed through from Philomath to Yaquina last night, accompanied by his wife and daughter Lora. The doctor's family will reside in Yaquina this summer.

Deputy United States Marshal Jacob Proebstel of Portland was in Toledo and vicinity the fore part of the week after witnesses to appear before the Federal grand jury in liquor cases on the 20th inst.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ambler of Philomath returned home Tuesday morning from a visit at Newport, where Mr. Ambler purchased for a summer home the Hemphill property near the Catholic church.

O. O. Krogstad and family are moving into the Alexander residence and the house which they are vacating will soon be occupied by C. E. Hawkins and family, Mr. Hawkins having purchased it of Mrs. C. G. Copeland. The next occupant of the house to be vacated by Mr. Hawkins will probably be Thomas Leese, the owner, president of the Lincoln County Bank.

Hans Olson was down from Toledo Tuesday evening. He brought down a supply of excellent butter, for which there is a ready market. Mr. Olson informs us that he is putting in a new creamery plant at Toledo and will soon have it ready for operation. He is also fitting up his launch "Olalla" with a new 4½ horse power gas engine, which will make the little craft a flyer.—Newport News.

Chicago's moral star is on the climb. Carter Harrison was re-elected mayor the other day by a plurality of less than 7000. It was his fourth successive election to the office, his pluralities dropping steadily from 60,000.

Only 2 1-5 per cent of the coffee imported by the United States every year is Java, according to recent statistics. The fancy Mocha and Java which you are in the habit of drinking probably tastes better because of the name—unlike the rose, which "by any other name would smell as sweet."

For Sale or Rent—My ranch on the Olalla, near Toledo. Call on or address HANS OLSON, Toledo, Oregon.

A new stock of dry goods, dress goods, blankets, shoes, etc., will be found at McDonald & Hall Bros., Siletz, and the prices are lower than anybody's.

THE DEMAND FOR
STEVENS PISTOLS
IS INCREASING RAPIDLY.

Have been making for 37 years the TIP UP—.22 Short R. F.$2.50

The DIAMOND, 6-inch blued barrel, nickel frame, open or globe and peep
sights$5.00

Same with 10-inch barrel..... 7.50

The Diamond Pistol will shoot a C. B. cap, .22 Short or .22 Long rifle cartridge. STEVENS RIFLES are also known the world over. Range in price from $4.00 to $75.00.

Send stamp for catalog describing our complete line and containing information to shooters.

THE J. STEVENS ARMS AND TOOL CO.
P. O. Box CHICOPEE FALLS, MASS.

Any school boy or girl can make good pictures with one of the Eastman Kodak Co.'s

DOLLAR BROWNIE CAMERAS

The Brownie Book, a dainty, tiny pamphlet containing fifteen of the prize winning pictures from the Brownie Camera Club Contest, free at any Kodak dealer's or by mail.

EASTMAN KODAK CO., Rochester, N. Y.

"Oregon Literature"—Better hurry!