Lincoln County's Friend

Republican Candidate for Congress
First District

BINGER HERMANN
VOTE FOR HIM

The representative Democrats of the First congressional district met in convention at Albany last Saturday and selected a lamb for slaughter in the person of Judge A. E. Reames of Jackson county. Mr. Reames is a good citizen and possesses considerable ability, but of course stands no chance whatever of being elected. The convention was evidently not in sympathy with Bryan, as it was the sense of the intelligent body that no "wind-jammers" would be tolerated.

The Democratic leaders (Bryan excepted) admit that free silver is an exploded idea and imperialism a creation of the jim-jams by an evident determination to fight it out until further notice on the tariff question. Inasmuch as the Democratic party is booked for another licking, it should be willing to spring some new issue—just to make the scrap more interesting.

The little flurry created by the movement to spring the referendum law on the Lewis and Clark Fair appropriation seems to have subsided. A large majority of the taxpayers of Oregon are convinced that the Fair will be worth more than it costs.

President Roosevelt will be in Oregon next month. How many are curious to learn if he will let fall some remark touching upon the candidacy of "Our Binger?"

The population of Oregon is increasing rapidly. The afflicted easterners are finding a haven.
