

Lincoln County Leader Supplement

Our Good Neighbors

Waldport Waves.

Fred Vader and family expect to leave soon for eastern Oregon.

There is a new boneyard established in Waldport, in front of Dole's saloon.

C. R. Evens' new launch is getting along nicely, and will soon be ready to float.

Mrs. D. W. Graff and daughter made a flying trip to Newport Saturday, returning Monday.

Fielding Goin came down from the Life Saving Station Sunday for a visit with his best girl.

George Hoover and family have returned from California for a visit with relatives and friends.

The writer cannot tell you anything about the wedding at present, as it seems to be postponed.

George Bobell returned from his work in the Gardiner logging camp for a week's visit at the parental home.

There is no sickness to report at this writing, and with the bright sunshine and the robins singing for us, there is no reason why we should not all be happy.

Fisher Items.

Manford Seits was a visitor at Fisher this week.

Hiram Prindle has been making trips to lower Five Rivers. I wonder why?

F. M. Seits and son, S. A. Seits, made a trip to Drift Creek this week for some goats.

Harry Ernest returned to Portland a few weeks ago to engage in the car-penter trade.

Needy Ludeman and Fred Vader made a business trip to this part of the country Sunday.

M. L. Ernst and son Will returned to their home on Five Rivers from a trip on the Yachats.

Miss St. Germain is thinking of teaching the school at Mr. Watson's, provided they do not give her another month's school where she is now teaching. We hope to be able to keep her with us.

They organized a literary on upper Five Rivers, and many enjoyable times at these meetings are reported. The subject for last meeting's debate was, "Resolved, that the dishrag is more useful than the broom." The affirmative won.

There was a mistake in the Waldport Waves last week, as Mr. Swatman retraced his steps toward Five Rivers, on a "a fishing excursion" instead of a "dear hunt." He and his dear fished three days and caught something over three hundred fish. Does that smell fishy?

Elk City Events.

The excitement and worry and usual amount of unprintable language attending a general moving epidemic has struck this city. Thomas Wilson and family from Nebraska have purchased and moved onto the C. P. Bevins ranch. Mr. Bevins and family have moved onto the Colonel Parker ranch. A. Huyck's family have moved back to the village, where they now occupy the Mays residence on Prospect hill. Mr. Wilson

FACTS COUNT!

It is easy to make any kind of a statement if your conscience is flexible, but square talk wins

You may Rake the World over, but you'll never find a rake quite as good as the

This Machine gives Mower

Satisfaction and Service than any other on the Coast

SOLD BY

T. P. FISH

Toledo, Lincoln County, Oregon

FACTS COUNT---Do not make a mistake:

Buy an OSBORNE Mower and Rake!

came from Nebraska here and was so favorably impressed with the country that he purchased the Bevins ranch. He appears to be an energetic man and will undoubtedly succeed.

J. R. Mays is taking solid comfort these days. He has purchased two Berkshire and two Poland China pigs and has put them in competition for the heavyweight championship. He spends most of his time sitting on the fence watching them grow.

The Elk City Farmers' Club displayed commendable public spirit by putting $12 gasoline lamps in the school house.

Additional Local.

J. F. Mueller, one of the industrious Siletz ranchers, was over Monday after supplies. Mr. Mueller has been doing telling work on his place during the past year and will continue the same during the summer.

Ade and Cliff Crosno, George Hall, Ted McElwain, Everett Jones and Billy Alexander went out to Albany Monday, returning Tuesday.

Rev. and Mrs. Doran returned yesterday morning from a visit to Newport, where they obtained their first view of the big Pacific.

Oliver Altree reports that he now has available at the mill and in the boom in Depot slough about 400,000 feet of saw logs.

Deputy County Clerk Lee Wade returned yesterday morning from a business trip to Waldport and vicinity.

County Commissioner George King of Winant was an eastbound passenger yesterday morning.

Ladies, my dress and street hats will be on exhibition Friday and Saturday. The Bazaar.

Miss Tillie Crosno went out to Corvallis Monday to visit her grandmother.

Superintendent J. J. McKoin and son were visitors from Siletz Tuesday.

Mrs. James Winskill of Elk City was in Toledo Tuesday night.

John Savage of Siletz was a passenger for the valley Wednesday morning.

Commodore Simon Lentden and J. J. Fleming of Newport were in the city Monday.

W. I. Staley of Salem, principal of the Capital City Business college was in Toledo the fore part of the week.

Postal Clerk Charlie Litchfield of Yaquina went out to Salem yesterday to visit a few days at the parental home.

Just received, a new line of shirt waists--the latest styles and materials; also my school hose have just arrived. The Bazaar.

Banker Thomas Leese, who had been in Toledo a couple of days on a business mission, returned yesterday to his home at Corvallis.

Thomas Lancaster's family came down from Elk City last Saturday evening and is now at home in the cottage on the courthouse grounds.

Attorney W. E. Yates of Corvallis came in with his numerous sisters Tuesday evening and passed on to Newport. He returned home yesterday morning.

O. H. Davenport, the dentist, has decided to locate permanently in Toledo. After due deliberation he has arrived at the conclusion that he could travel over a vast amount of territory and not find a place which suits him as well.

Sheriff Ross and County Clerk Wade left yesterday morning for Eugene to witness the execution of the murderer of Sheriff Withers. As it is the last execution which will take place in Oregon outside the walls of the penitentiary, the officials of the various counties have been invited to be present. It is to be hoped the scene will work a grand reformation.

Lyman Lee, accompanied by his brother Roscoe, came in from Salem Wednesday night and left next morning for his farm in the Siletz country, Liveryman George Hall escorting them to Canoe Landing. The young men will make the place reflect the work of artists this summer. Setting out fruit trees, sowing grass seed and building fence will be the principal order of business.

The Toledo schools observed Arbor Day last Friday afternoon with appropriate exercises. A goodly number of visitors were present, interesting remarks being made by Mrs. C. E. Hawkins and School Superintendent Bethers. Each department planted a tree, each pupil having the privilege of assisting.

'Tis sweet to be remembered. United States Senator John H. Mitchell has sent THE LEADER from the Department of Agriculture a large supply of garden seed--somewhat limited as to variety, however. Our farmer readers are invited to call and relieve us of the burden.

Mrs. Ann Rancier, who has been visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles Kreiger, departed yesterday morning for her home at Tacoma, Wash. Her grand-daughter, Miss Mabel Kreiger, accompanied her and will remain about three weeks.

Jim Derrick and family returned last Saturday from a protracted visit with relatives and friends at Eddyville. They were accompanied by Jim's brother Dick of Albany. The latter returned to Eddyville yesterday morning.

County Surveyor Wygant went up to Nashville Wednesday to do some surveying on the Wallis Nash ranch. It is understood that Mr. Nash is negotiating for the sale of a portion of his ranch to a colony in 80-acre tracts.

At its meeting last Saturday night Bay Lodge No. 116 I. O. O. F. of Yaquina elected W. C. Hoefflein and C. L. Litchfield delegates to the Grand Lodge, which convenes at Portland May 21.

J. J. Gaither returned Wednesday from the Agency, where he has been filling the position of clerk. He is succeeded by H. McKoin, son of Superintendent McKoin.

Henry Lewis has just received a large stock of shoes, manufactured by the old reliable firm of Buckingham & Hecht. He invites you to call and inspect them.

The old wallpaper on your walls looks shabby. For one dollar I will sell you sufficient to repaper a room. Over 75 Styles to select from at Krogstad's.

Rite Dedrick expects to have his new launch ready for business in about two weeks. He has engaged Cliff Crosno as first officer.

Miss Pearl Tucker left last Saturday morning for Salado, where she has been engaged as teacher for a three-months' term.

Prof. Horner's book, "Oregon Literature," is THE LEADER's favorite premium. Now is the time to subscribe.

Mrs. Fred Bailey and daughters Pearl and Eva of Winant came up Tuesday for a visit with Toledo friends.

Hall Bros., the Siletz merchants, have a new ad on another page.